Proposed Capital Reduction of 3 Cents

The Board of Directors advises that it is proposing a capital reduction of 3 cents per share, subject to shareholder approval and ASIC lodgment.

The proposed capital reduction will be put to shareholders for consideration and approval at an Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM), which the Company intends to convene during the first quarter of 2027.

Further details regarding the proposed capital reduction, including the timing and arrangements for the EGM, will be provided to shareholders in due course.
