
September 2025 Quarterly Business Activity Report & Appendix 4C
28 October 2025
Global Health Limited (ASX: GLH)

Global Health Limited (ASX: GLH) ("Global Health" or "the Group") is pleased to release its Appendix 4C Cash Flow Report for the quarter ended 30 September 2025, and the accompanying Quarterly Business Activity Report.

The financial performance commentary for the September 2025 quarter is relative to the Previous Corresponding Period (PCP) being the September 2024 quarter. Financial estimates of revenue, expenses and profitability are subject to audit.

Sep-2025 Quarter Activity

The principal focus of the Company in the reporting period was the implementation of the Company's MasterCare+ SaaS across new sites procured prior to July and new sales signed in the September quarter.

Five sites went live with MasterCare+ with a further 15 new implementations expected to be completed by March 2026. New customers account for the bulk of the implementation backlog.

Work on the Integration of the Company's Digital Front Door and ReferralNet Secure Messaging platform to Best Practice and MasterCare EMR commenced in the quarter and is scheduled for completion and general release in the current December quarter.

The technology upgrade of the Company's Lifecard Personal Health Record for consumer active engagement in their health and wellness continued through the quarter and is in final QA, with general release expected in the current December quarter

Work is continuing in the incorporation of MasterCare PAS functionality within our MasterCare Plus composable SaaS platform with completion due by June 2026.

As is typical in the initial months of a new financial year, there were many new sales prospects with over $400K (first year costs) in signed deals during the quarter, open tenders with a value more than $5M and a further $2.6M in qualified leads.

AI: Doing more with Less

Internal process and workflows are increasingly adopting AI. This has enabled the Company to reduce our workforce by 10% over the September quarter.

Further productivity gains are expected to progressively accrue as more internal processes and workflows are re-imagined with the use of AI.

In parallel, the Company is in conversation with several 3rd party AI vendors for integration with our applications as well as engaging with specialists AI development contractors for specific use-cases to be implemented in our platforms.

Delayed receipt of R&D refund

The closing cash of $439K at the end of September was primarily due to the delay of our R&D refund of $720K which was expected in September but was only received in the first week of October.

The new-logo sites require significant professional services effort covering the development of new features, configuration, training and data conversion from 3rd party legacy applications.

The increase in professional services expenses this quarter is largely covered by a reduction in Research and Development expenditure. EBIT for the September quarter after fully expensing R&D, improved by over 25% from the PCP.

Forward outlook & growth strategy

The traditional Australian Healthcare segments are expanding beyond primary and acute care with new segments emerging due to the increased obligations of employers to support the psychosocial well-being of their employees. The Company's position as a leading provider to service providers living with Mental Health, other chronic conditions and Alcohol and Other Drug dependencies places us in a good position to diversify beyond the traditional healthcare provider markets.

There is a strong move to home-based and remote care. Both these trends are well-supported by our suite of platforms especially our Lifecard Personal Health Record, augmented with appropriate AI to monitor, coach and escalate individual conditions. Consequently, we expect to augment our B2B business with a B2C business model.

The considerable investments in our technology and platform modernisation are in the final stages. The Company is on track to reduce our R&D investments by a further 20% from $2.1M in FY2025 to $1.7M this FY2026.

Our platform of SaaS platforms on the cloud will enable the R&D expense reduction to be re-directed to new initiatives for customer acquisition such as online, no-touch channels, corporate revenue-sharing partners and to extend our reach to global markets.

Our customers and prospects are actively pursuing increased data digitisation and the adoption of AI to mitigate the escalation in energy, staff and general costs.

With our patient-centric portfolio of SaaS platforms that encompass the patient journey, Global Health are well positioned as a catalyst to positive change for the healthcare sector.

8.6 If item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, please provide answers to the following questions:
8.6.1 Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?
Answer: No. The September 25 quarter included $146K of one-off expenses and final payouts to departing staff. Further staff reductions in the December quarter is forecast in further savings of approx. $431K pa or $107K per quarter, as the entity does not expect to replace certain roles.
8.6.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?
Answer: No. The Company has not and is not expecting to take any steps to raise further cash.
8.6.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?
Answer: Yes. The entity received R&D refund $720K on the 7th of October (although the receipt was expected in September 25). In October 2025 receivables will be $1.5M, due to annual subscription renewals, with cash to be received in October, December and January 2026. The cash balances in September and March are traditionally low due to the timing of subscription renewals and implementation services.
Note: where item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.6.1, 8.6.2 and 8.6.3 above must be answered.
