8.6.1 Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?
Answer: No. The company's operating cash flows were affected by seasonal factors during the quarter, primarily due to a substantial level of pre-customer expenditures. Such expenditures are expected to decrease significantly in the next quarter.
8.6.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?
Answer: Financial support from the major shareholder has been confirmed to safeguard the company against any potential default on its debts and payables. As of the end of this quarter, the company has no external debt and only limited payables.

8.6.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer:

Yes. Based on the historical quarterly cash flows over the past two years and the operating conditions during the current quarter, the negative operating cash flows primarily resulted from significant software development expenses and the purchase of e-learning course packages for projects that are in the pre-customer stage and have not yet generated corresponding cash inflows. Management believes that operating cash flows will improve in the next quarter as most of these projects are expected to be delivered.

Note: where item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.6.1, 8.6.2 and 8.6.3 above must be answered.

Notes

1. This quarterly cash flow report and the accompanying activity report provide a basis for informing the market about the entity's activities for the past quarter, how they have been financed and the effect this has had on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information over and above the minimum required under the Listing Rules is encouraged to do so.
2. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standard applies to this report.
3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
4. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the board". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a committee of your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the [name of board committee – eg Audit and Risk Committee]". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a disclosure committee, you can insert here: "By the Disclosure Committee".
5. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors and you wish to hold yourself out as complying with recommendation 4.2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the board should have received a declaration from its CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that this report complies with the appropriate accounting standards and gives a true and fair view of the cash flows of the entity, and that their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.

APPENDIX 4C AND REPORT ON QUARTERLY ACTIVITIES

Sydney, Australia, 31st October, 2025: Victor Group Holdings (ASX: VIG) (“VIG” or “the Company”), releases its cash flow report for the September 2025 quarter (Appendix 4C) and provides an update on the key areas of activity during the quarter ended 30 September 2025.

Principal Activities

VIG and its controlled entities (the “Group”) provides:

- IaaS, SaaS & PaaS services to customers;
- Education cloud platforms which bring together best-in-class resources and applications from strategic partners such as education services and e-learning content providers; and

Key areas of activity during the quarter:

- IaaS, SaaS & PaaS Services in the PRC – VIG operates its cloud services and software development business in the PRC through its subsidiary, Shenghan. During the quarter, Shenghan collected approximately $1.475 million in trade receivables, all of which were generated from its IaaS, SaaS, and PaaS service operations. The software delivered during the period included data management and operating system solutions for clients across various sectors.

Compared with the previous quarter, the company did not achieve positive operating cash flow due to substantial pre-customer expenditures, for which the corresponding sales contracts had not yet been executed or settled. These expenditures are similar in nature to inventory purchases and are expected to be utilised in future projects scheduled for the second half of the year. Management anticipates that such expenditures will be significantly reduced in the next quarter.

As of the end of the quarter, the Group’s consolidated cash and cash equivalents totalled $553,000. Given that the Group and its subsidiaries have no external debt, management believes that external fundraising is not required for the current operations in the PRC. Furthermore, financial support from the major shareholder has been confirmed to safeguard the company against any potential default on debts or payables.

- E-learning and Cloud Education – The company did not collect any trade receivables from this segment during the quarter; however, new sales contracts totalling approximately $664,000 were executed. During the period, the company collaborated with several qualified and established e-learning providers specialising in vocational training in the fields of information technology and new media operations. These partnerships have helped the company enhance the market reach of its e-learning content. Management believes this segment has strong growth potential, supported by the increasing demand and enthusiasm for IT and AI-related vocational courses.

- A summary of revenue and expenditure (cash basis) incurred in respect of the Company's business activities is as follows:

Activities	Revenue $A'000	Expenditure $A'000
Day to Day Operation & Administration	-	(97)
IaaS, SaaS & PaaS Services	1,475	(294)
E-learning & Cloud Education	-	(1,605)

Comment on Appendix 4C

The negative net operating cash flow for the quarter was primarily attributable to pre-customer expenditures, which are similar in nature to inventory purchases. The company did not incur any capital expenditures during the quarter. Management believes that the Group's cash flow position will improve in the next quarter.

Related Party Payments

There were no related party payments in the September 2025 report.
