

Change of Company Name to Peak Processing Limited

Peak Processing Limited (ASX:AGH) ("Peak", or "the Company"), a global leader in the manufacturing, sales, and distribution of THC beverages, is pleased to advise that, following the approval of Shareholders at the Annual General Meeting held on 27 November 2025, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission has processed the change of name of the Company from Althea Group Holdings Limited to Peak Processing Limited.

ASX is in the process of implementing the change of name and change of ASX code to 'PKP', which will take effect from the commencement of trading on Monday, 8 December 2025.

The change of name reflects the Company's strategic evolution into a leading North American developer and manufacturer of cannabis-infused and hemp-derived beverage and ancillary products. The new name aligns the Company's listed entity with its established and well-recognised Peak Processing operating brand, which encompasses its commercial, manufacturing and R&D activities in Canada and the United States.

As part of the rebranding, the Company will adopt the existing Peak Processing logo and visual identity as its primary corporate branding. Digital assets, investor materials and communication channels will be progressively updated to reflect the new name and branding over the coming weeks.

During the transition period, the existing AGH web domain will redirect to the Peak investor centre – peakprocessing.com/investor-centre.

The change of company name and ASX ticker code does not affect the Company's share capital structure, the rights attaching to shares, or any of the Company's ongoing operational activities.
