

PDI ANNOUNCES AMENDED ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT WITH ROBEX

SUMMARY

- PDI announces amendment to the arrangement agreement with Robex whereby the amended exchange ratio of 7.862 PDI shares for each Robex share will result in 53.5% and 46.5% ownership of the combined company by PDI and Robex shareholders, respectively.
- The previously announced acquisition proposal by Perseus is no longer considered a Superior Proposal as a PDI-Robex combination (as amended) offers greater medium to long-term value for PDI shareholders and enhanced transaction execution certainty with clear support from several major PDI shareholders.
- Robex shareholders, directors and officers representing ~23.8% of the Robex shares on issue have entered into amended voting support agreements to vote in favour of the amended arrangement.

Predictive Discovery Limited ("PDI" or the "Company") (ASX: PDI) announces today that it has entered into an amendment (the "Amendment") to the arrangement agreement dated 5 October 2025 between PDI and Robex Resources Inc. ("Robex") (the "Robex Arrangement Agreement", and such agreement, as amended, the "Amended Robex Arrangement Agreement").

Pursuant to the Amended Robex Arrangement Agreement, PDI will acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Robex (each, a "Robex Share") in exchange for 7.862 ordinary shares of PDI for each Robex Share by way of a statutory plan of arrangement under the Business Corporations Act (Quebec) (the "Transaction"). Existing PDI shareholders and former Robex shareholders will own approximately 53.5% and 46.5%, respectively, of the combined company on a fully diluted in-the-money basis.

In connection with the Amendment, Robex will postpone the special meeting of Robex shareholders to approve the Transaction (the "Robex Meeting") to 30 December 2025 in order to facilitate the communication of information concerning the Amendment to the Robex shareholders prior to the Robex Meeting. All other terms and conditions of the Robex Arrangement Agreement remain unchanged.

Two of Robex's largest shareholders, the Cohen Group and Eglinton Mining, all of Robex's directors and certain members of Robex's senior management, who in aggregate own approximately 23.8% of the issued and outstanding Robex Shares, have each entered into amended voting support agreements with PDI pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their Robex Shares in favour of the Transaction at the Robex Meeting.

The Board of Directors of the Company (the "PDI Board") has unanimously determined, after receiving advice from its financial and legal advisors, that (i) the Amendment results in the acquisition proposal made to the Company by Perseus Mining Limited ("Perseus") (as announced on 3 December 2025) ceasing to be a Superior Proposal (within the meaning of the Robex Arrangement Agreement); and (ii) the Transaction is in the best interests of the Company.

Andrew Pardey, Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director of PDI, commented: "We are pleased to announce the Amended Robex Arrangement Agreement, which reflects our shared commitment to combine two of the largest, lowest cost and most advanced gold projects in West Africa. After announcing the Perseus acquisition proposal, we received clear written feedback from several of our largest shareholders indicating their support for the Robex merger over the Perseus acquisition proposal in its current form. In light of this feedback and considering the improved terms under the Amended Robex Arrangement Agreement, together with the greater medium to long-term value of the combined company for PDI shareholders and higher transaction execution certainty, the Board has concluded the amended transaction with Robex is in the best interests of the Company and our shareholders. We are excited to move forward with this transaction and look forward to working with Robex to build one of West Africa's leading gold producers."

STRATEGIC RATIONALE FOR THE TRANSACTION

As previously disclosed by PDI in its announcement on 6 October 2025, key strategic, financial and operational advantages of the combined company include the following:

- Pathway to becoming one of West Africa's leading gold producers: Combines two of the potentially largest, lowest cost and most advanced gold projects in West Africa, enhancing scale, access to capital, strategic relevance and competitiveness; the combined company is expected to have +400kozpa Au<sup>1</sup> of production by 2029, combined Mineral Resources of approximately 9.5Moz Au<sup>2</sup> and combined Ore Reserves of approximately 4.5Moz Au.<sup>3</sup>
- Flexibility through leveraging cash flows from Robex to fund development of the Bankan Project: Significant cash flows expected to be generated from the Kiniero Project together with proceeds received from the recent exercise of in-the-money warrants can support development of the Bankan Project.
- Right management and board skill set to drive value creation: Strengthened team with a proven in-country track record and complementary skill set to develop and operate mines in West Africa, and with extensive experience working within dual-listed and large mining companies in Africa. Robex's leading development team are ready to move from the Kiniero Project's construction to the Bankan Project's development, applying lessons learned and optimizing workforce deployment.
- Potential for meaningful upside: Proximity of the Bankan Project and Kiniero Project creates a tier-1 mining hub with potential for meaningful upside, coordinated development, operating and exploration strategies, and enhanced ability to leverage in-country resources.
- Enhanced capital markets presence: Greater scale and multi-asset nature of the combined company, with potential inclusion in the ASX 200 and VanEck Junior Gold Miners ("GDXJ") indices, enhancing its relevance and attractiveness to investors, positioning it for a potential share price re-rate.
