

EVOLUTION ENERGY MINERALS LIMITED

ENGAGEMENT OF SATOSHI CAPITAL ADVISORS

Evolution Energy Minerals Limited (ASX: EV1, FRA: P77) (Evolution or the Company) advises that it has engaged Satoshi Capital Advisors (Satoshi) as its financial advisor to assist in securing staged pre-development and development funding for the Chilalo Graphite Project.

Satoshi will focus on opportunities within North America, Asia-Pacific, and European institutional markets, including structured capital solutions that may provide staged funding at the asset level. These funding structures are expected to be quasi-debt in nature, consistent with typical market instruments used to finance the development of critical minerals projects.

The scope of Satoshi's engagement includes:

- Identifying and engaging with qualified institutional investors throughout North America, Asia-Pacific, and Europe;
- Assessing structured capital options suitable for staged pre-development and project-level development funding;
- Advising the Company in relation to commercial terms and funding structure design;
- Assisting Evolution through due diligence, evaluation of proposals, and negotiation of potential financing arrangements; and
- Supporting documentation and execution processes as required.

This engagement does not commit Evolution to any financing structure, nor does it guarantee that any funding will be secured. Any prospective transaction remains subject to market conditions, investor due diligence, negotiation of binding agreements, regulatory requirements, and Board approval.

Evolution will continue to update the market in accordance with its continuous disclosure obligations.

This announcement has been approved for release by the Managing Director.
