Decmil Awarded $51m Windfarm Works

Macmahon Holdings Limited (ASX: MAH) ('Macmahon' or 'Company') is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Decmil, has received a notice of award from Tilt Renewables for $51 million in works as part of the balance of plant contract at the 108MW Waddi Windfarm in the mid-west of Western Australia.

The Waddi Windfarm balance of plant contract has a total value of $91 million, which has been awarded to a joint venture between Decmil and RJE Global, on a split-scope basis, with RJE to receive $40 million and Decmil to receive $51 million.

The scope of the joint venture contract includes the design and construction of the balance of plant for the 18-turbine wind farm, including wind turbine bases, access tracks, site cabling and a switch room.

Waddi Windfarm is located approximately 150km north of Perth, near Dandaragan.

The works to be undertaken by Decmil will commence in early 2026 and are expected to be completed by early 2027.

Macmahon's FY26 guidance remains unchanged.

Managing Director and CEO of Macmahon, Michael Finnegan, said:

"We are pleased to be partnering with RJE Global to deliver the Waddi Windfarm for our valued client, Tilt Renewables. This award demonstrates Decmil's strength in civil construction in the renewables sector, in line with our strategy to expand our Australian civil infrastructure business."
