

QUARTERLY ACTIVITIES REPORT FOR PERIOD ENDING 31 DECEMBER 2025

30 January 2026

Lord Resources Limited (ASX: LRD) (“Lord” or “the Company”) is pleased to present its quarterly activities report for the quarter ended 31 December 2025.

During the period, Lord reported final assay results from its inaugural Ilgarari drill program, confirming extensions to high-grade copper lodes at depth and refining the geological model.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ilgarari drilling extends copper lodes with high-grade hits. First diamond-assay results from the Ilgarari Copper Project returned high-grade copper intersections up to 4.59% Cu, extending the Tailings Lode ~330 m down-plunge and the Hidden Lode ~70 m down-dip and ~100 m along strike.
- Final results from Ilgarari drilling. All remaining diamond assays were received, confirming further copper mineralisation and increasing confidence in lode geometry.

Commenting on the quarter, Chairman Paul Lloyd stated:

“The December quarter delivered an important step forward at Ilgarari, with final assay results validating our geological targeting model and confirming that copper mineralisation continues beyond the areas historically tested. We’ve also remained disciplined on capital and timing—aligning funding decisions with technical outcomes—while maintaining the flexibility to evaluate value-accretive opportunities as they arise. I’d like to thank shareholders for their ongoing support as we move into the next phase of exploration.”

ILGARARI COPPER PROJECT

DIAMOND DRILLING EXTEND TAILINGS AND HIDDEN LODES

On 22 October 2025, Lord reported the first diamond-assay results from its maiden drilling campaign at the Ilgarari Copper Project, confirming and extending copper mineralisation at both the Tailings Lode and Hidden Lode. High-grade copper was returned from several key intercepts, including 1.5 m @ 3.20% Cu (from 308 m) in 25IRC002D and 3.7m @ 1.39% Cu (including 1.1m @ 3.74% Cu) and 0.7 m @ 4.59% Cu in 25IRC011D.

Diamond holes 25IRC011D and 25IRC002D successfully extended the Tailings Lode approximately 330m down-plunge of historic high-grade workings, coincident with a modelled EM conductor plate. At the Hidden Lode, hole 25IRC006D delivered a broad zone of mineralisation including 10m @ 0.59% Cu from 156m (incl. 1.04 m @ 1.33% Cu), 2m @ 1.06% Cu from 162.3 m and 3m @ 1.37% Cu from 175m, extending known mineralisation ~60m down-dip and ~100m along strike from historic intercepts. These results validate earlier visual copper logs and demonstrate that high-grade mineralisation continues below the oxide zone on multiple lodes.

Lord noted that the diamond data, together with prior RC drilling and ground MLEM, supports a structurally constrained lode where copper is focused into plunging shoots along the Ilgarari Fault system.

FINAL DRILL RESULTS

On 28 October 2025, Lord released the final assays from the diamond drilling program. Hole 25IRC005D intersected copper at the down-hole depths predicted from historic drilling, increasing confidence in the geometry of individual lodes. Significant intervals included 2.3m @ 1.17% Cu, 3m @ 0.85% Cu and 1.3m @ 1.29% Cu. Step-out hole 25IRC004D, drilled ~100 m from historic mineralisation, returned multiple copper zones including 1.3m @ 1.13% Cu and 3.3m @ 0.74% Cu, demonstrating that mineralisation remains open and locally persistent beyond historical drill coverage.

Two deep EIS-supported holes (25IRC007D and 25IRC009D) tested a significant magnetic anomaly at depth. Logging and assays confirmed that the geophysical feature is caused by a magnetite-rich portion of a thick dolerite sill, with no direct relationship to copper mineralisation, although both holes did intercept the mineralised fault with sub-economic thicknesses and grades (for example, 0.5m @ 1.30% Cu and 0.5m @ 0.60% Cu in 25IRC009D).

NEXT STEPS

With Phase 1 drilling now fully assayed, Lord's near-term focus is to integrate all geological, geochemical and geophysical datasets, incorporating detailed structural logging from the diamond core. This work will provide guidance on future drilling programs.

ABOUT THE ILGARARI COPPER PROJECT

The Ilgarari Copper Project (Ilgarari) is located approximately 110 km south of Newman in Western Australia, off the Great Northern Highway and is located within E52/2274. Lord Resources Limited (ASX: LRD) has an earn-in to 80% of the mineral rights below 120m from surface at Ilgarari, with 100% applications over E52/4403 and E52/4405. The district hosts historic copper workings and remnant oxide mineralisation that is not part of the current earn-in.¹
