HIGHLIGHTS

- Company recapitalisation and corporate restructure completed:
 - Share issues to settle Company debts; converting loans, advisor & director fees, to conserve cash
 - Share placement completed to raise $300,000 before costs
 - Underwritten entitlement offer finalised in January 2026 to raise $2.5 million before costs
 - Share consolidation completed
- Conico repositioned for renewed exploration and project generation focus with Board renewal & Director role changes;
- The Mt Thirsty JV is planning an extensive drill program aimed at bringing Scandium into the Mineral Resource given continued strength in Scandium prices.

Company Recapitalisation Completed

Conico is pleased to report on capital raisings and debt reduction measures to date, which leave the Company with no debt and well-funded to progress its near-term objectives.

On 28 November 2025, the Company received shareholder approval to convert all outstanding converting loans on issue, including accrued interest, of approximately $1.4 million, as well as to settle accrued Director fees (to 30 November 2025), together with lead manager and advisor fees through the issue of shares. These approved shares were issued on 1 December 2025.

During the quarter Conico undertook additional capital raising measures via a share placement to raise $300,000 (before costs) and an expanded underwritten entitlement offer a 1 for 1 basis at a price of $0.008 per share to raise approximately $2.5 million ("Rights Offer"), to provide sufficient funds for exploration and working capital (ASX announcements dated 30 October 2025 and 9 December 2025). The Rights Offer closed on 13 January 2026, with offer shares issued on 22 January 2026.

Board Composition and Skills Renewal

In December 2025, the Company announced that Mr Guy Le Page had assumed the role of Executive Chairman, previously a non-executive Director. This role change followed the appointment of Mr Simon Mitchell, an experienced geologist and corporate executive with over 30 years' experience, as non-executive Director on 4th December 2025.

These changes are intended to bring a renewed exploration focus and bolster the technical and project generation skills of the Board.

Mt Thirsty PGE-Ni-Co-Mn-Sc Project, Western Australia (50% owned) (Horizon Minerals Limited, 50%)

The Company, together with its joint venture partner, undertook a geological review of the Mt Thirsty project as part of preparations and targeting for an aircore/reverse circulation drill program in Q2 2026. Drilling is planned to target an upper zone of nickel-cobalt-manganese-scandium (Ni-Co-Mn-Sc) which returned intersections in excess of 40g/t scandium (CNJ ASX Announcement, 23 January 2023). Further, drilling will test the presence of a lower, potentially higher-grade Ni-Co-Mn-Sc zone, which is currently outside of the existing resource.

Scandium oxide (Sc_2O_3) prices are variable based on purity and quantity. Prices range from approximately US$700/kg for bulk industrial orders up to over US$4,000/kg for higher purity or smaller, retail quantities with long-term projections suggesting a reduction towards US$700–$1,000 per kg to support increased demand in aluminium-scandium alloy applications (Standard Advanced Materials, October 2025).

Continued high prices have been driven by increasing demand for scandium-aluminum alloys in aerospace, together with a push to diversify supply away from China.

According to the USGS, (Mineral Commodity Summaries 2024) China's share of global scandium supply exceeds that of almost all strategic metals, including gallium, germanium, silicon and rare earths. Over 90% of current world demand is from U.S. industry, for both civilian and defence applications. The global scandium metal market is projected to experience strong growth (8.70% CAGR) towards 2032 due to its critical role in advanced.

The Company will provide further updates on the planned drilling program at Mt Thirsty shortly.

Mestersvig and Ryberg Projects, Greenland (100%)

Following the completed recapitalisation of Conico, the Company continues to evaluate options to advance its project portfolio in Greenland particular given geopolitical developments in recent months.

Project Generation

The Board continues to evaluation additional exploration project acquisition opportunities, across various commodities and jurisdictions.

Corporate and ASX Disclosure

Exploration costs reported for the quarter totalled $220k, related to (non-reoccurring) Greenland licence renewal costs, as well as tenement management and holding costs for the Mt Thirsty Joint Venture project. Other material costs incurred related to the final payout due to settle the Cartwright legal dispute of $356k.

There were no mining production or development activities during the quarter.

There were no operating cashflow payments to related parties during the quarter.
