Letter to Offer Participants

19 February 2026

Dear Offer Participants,

On behalf of the Directors of Austral Resources Australia Limited (Austral or AR1), I am pleased to invite you to participate in these Offers being presented by the Company.

The Company was recapitalised and requoted onto the ASX Official List on 5 November 2025. The new corporate strategy, to become the consolidation platform for the North-West Queensland region as executed through the acquisition of Rocklands and Lady Loretta, has resonated with industry participants, stakeholders and shareholders alike. Austral intends to complete the Offers to allow it to continue to expand and fund its future activities as it becomes Australia's next mid-tier copper powerhouse.

As announced, Austral has completed the Previous Placement of $38,223,189 through the issue of 424,702,100 Shares at the Offer Price and has secured binding commitments to subscribe for New Shares under the Placement Offer (in the form of a Placement Commitment Letter) subject to Shareholder Approval.

The Placement Offer comprises an issue of 130,853,456 New Shares at an Offer Price of 9 cents ($0.09) per New Share to raise a further $11.78 million (approximately) under this offer document (Prospectus).

The Placement Offer is to be undertaken to sophisticated, professional and otherwise exempt investors who are invited by the Company, as Placement Participants, to subscribe for the New Shares and is not open to the general public. A minimum subscription of $11,776,811 is being sought under the Placement.

At the same time, the Company will undertake the QCMBTF Offer, comprising the offer of 166,666,667 New Shares to the QBF No. 1 Pty Ltd ACN 051 675 033 as trustee of the QCMBTF Critical Minerals and Battery Technology Fund (QCMBTF).

The Directors want to reward loyal Shareholders by extending to those Eligible Shareholders an ability to participate in the SPP. An entitlement for Eligible Shareholders of 55,555,556 Shares at the Offer Price of 9 cents $0.09 per New Share to raise up to a maximum of $5 million before costs of the offer (Shareholder Priority Placement or SPP).

Participation in the SPP is available to shareholders of the Company who are registered as holders of Shares at 7pm (AEDT) on the Record Date of 18 February 2026 and whose registered address is in Australia and New Zealand who are eligible investors (Eligible Shareholders).

Under the SPP, each Eligible Shareholder may apply for up to $30,000 worth of new Shares at 9 cents ($0.09) per New Share. Applications may be made for parcels of $2,000, $5,000, $10,000, $15,000, $20,000, $25,000 or $30,000 worth of Shares under the SPP.

It is proposed that the funds raised from the Offers (together with the Previous Placement) will be used for:

- (a) the upgrade of Rocklands including power station refurbishment;
- (b) Barkley Highway upgrade and construction of the Rocklands Western access road;
- (c) further resource delineation and exploration drilling;
- (d) acquisition of ancillary operational equipment; and
- (e) the costs of the Previous Placement, the SPP and the Placement.

The Board has structured the SPP to encourage our loyal, smaller shareholders to apply and increase their holding in the Company. The issue price of 9 cents ($0.09) per Share is equal to the Offer price of the Previous Placement, the Placement and the QCMBTF Offer.

If you are an Eligible Shareholder, your personalised Application Form in relation to the Shares offered under the SPP is included in this package. The SPP will open on Thursday 26 February 2026 and will close at 5:00pm (AEST) on 23 March 2026. Accordingly, Shareholders are encouraged to submit their Applications as early as possible. Further details about how to apply for Shares under the SPP are set out in section 3.5 of the Prospectus. If you choose not to participate in the SPP, your right to participate lapses on the Closing Date of the SPP.

Investment in the Company involves risks, which are summarised in section 1.5 of this Prospectus and explained in further detail in section 5 of this Prospectus.

The Prospectus has also been prepared for the purposes of section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) to remove any secondary trading restrictions on the on-sale of the shares issued by the Company to the Eligible Investors under the Previous Placement and the Incentive Share Issue.

This Prospectus includes details of the various Offers and the Company, together with a statement of the key risks associated with investing in the Company. I recommend that you study the document carefully and seek independent professional advice before investing in the Company.

On behalf of the Directors, I thank you for your interest and I invite you to consider this investment opportunity and participate in the next chapter of the Company's success.

Yours sincerely,

David Newling
Chairman
Austral Resources Australia Ltd

1.5 Risk factors

Subscribing for New Shares in the Company involves risks. There are factors, both specific to the Company and of a general nature, which may affect the future operating and financial performance of the Company. Some of these factors can be mitigated by appropriate commercial action. However, many are outside the control of the Company, dependent on the policies adopted and approaches taken by regulatory authorities or cannot otherwise be mitigated.

The following sets out a summary of some of the key risks relevant to the Company. It should be considered a summary only and Shareholders should read the comprehensive risk factors (which contain a number of additional risks) contained in section 5 in full:

Risk	Details
Acquisition Risks	The Lady Lorretta Acquisition is subject to a number of conditions which are summarised in section 6.2. Accordingly there is no guarantee that the Lady Loretta Acquisition will complete on its terms or at all. If the Lady Loretta Acquisition does not complete, Board will assess the reallocation of those funds raised under the Offers, that are currently allocated to the Lady Loretta Project, to other existing projects, acquisition opportunities and appropriate reserves for organic and inorganic opportunities. The Company has undertaken financial, operational, business and other analyses of whether to pursue the Lady Loretta Acquisition. There is a risk that such analyses, and the estimates and assumptions made by the Company during the analyses, lead to conclusions or forecasts that are inaccurate, or which will not be realised in due course.
Due Diligence Risk	The Lady Loretta Acquisition due diligence process relied in part on the review of technical, financial and operational information provided by the counterparty to the Lady Loretta Acquisition. Despite making reasonable efforts, the Company has not been able to verify the accuracy, reliability or completeness of all the information which was provided to it against independent data.
Mine Development	Possible future development of a mining operation at any of the Company's projects including, the Lady Loretta Project, the Rocklands Project, the Expansion Projects and Heap Leach Re-Mine is dependent on a number of factors affecting the tenure exploration, quality ore supply, mine development and commercialisation of mining projects.
Strategic Risk	Austral's strategic growth plans (including the re-commissioning of the Rocklands Processing Plant) require the availability of appropriate and suitable ore supply and potential acquisition targets or sourcing third party ore for processing under tolling arrangements. Austral has executed two Memoranda of Understanding for ore assessment and potential toll treatment of third-party ore with Maronan Metals Limited (ASX: MMA) and Transition Minerals Limited and has identified a number of suitable targets for this purpose however there is no guarantee that Austral will be able to enter into contractual arrangements with those targets or acquire suitable acquisition targets. There is no guarantee that any successful acquisitions will be able to be efficiently integrated into the operations of Austral.

Integration risks	The integration of a business with substantial assets such as the Lady Loretta Project carries risk, including potential delays or costs in implementing necessary changes and difficulties in integrating various operations. The success of the Lady Loretta Acquisition and the ability to realise the benefits of the Lady Loretta Project is dependent on the discovery and development of economically recoverable copper resource and the effective and timely integration of the Lady Loretta Project operations into Austral's proposed strategic expansion program and its planned business operations.
Exploration and evaluation risk	The long-term value of Austral will depend on its ability to find and develop resources that are economically recoverable within the Lady Loretta and Rocklands Projects and Company Expansion Projects, in the short to medium term, and within its exploration tenements in the longer term. Mineral exploration and mine development are inherently highly speculative and involves a significant degree of risk. There is no guarantee that it will be economic to extract these resources or that there will be commercial opportunities available to monetise these resources.
Contractual Risks	The Austral Group is a party to various contracts and has entered into the Lady Loretta Acquisition Agreement and the QCMETF Share Subscription Agreement. Austral has also entered into binding commitments with Eligible Investors to acquire New Shares under the Placement Offer. No assurance can be given that all contracts to which Austral is a party will be fully performed by all contracting parties. If a contract summarised in section 6 is not fully performed in accordance with its terms, there is a risk that the Offers will not be completed in accordance with their respective terms or at all. Additionally, no assurance can be given that if a contracting party does not comply with any contractual provisions, Austral will be successful in securing compliance.

Further details regarding risks which may affect the Company in the future are set out in section 5. The New Shares offered under this Prospectus carry no guarantee of profitability, dividends, return of capital or the price at which they may trade on ASX. The past performance of the Company should not necessarily be considered a guide to its future performance.

1.6 Regulatory Requirements – Previous Placement and Shareholder Priority Placement

Generally, and where a company has complied with ASIC Corporations Instrument 2019/547 (the Instrument), a company may conduct an offer to Eligible Shareholders on the terms similar to the Shareholder Priority Placement (SPP) without a disclosure document, such as a prospectus and with the shares being secondarily tradeable. This requires that the company had not been suspended for more than 5 days in the 12 months preceding the offer. Because Austral has been suspended from trading for more than 5 days in the previous 12 months, the Shareholder Priority Placement can only occur if it is undertaken under this Prospectus and is subject to Shareholder approval. While the SPP Offer under this Prospectus has similar characteristics to and meets several criteria contained in the Instrument, it is not an offer of Shares in compliance with all of the elements and criteria of the Instrument. Accordingly, SPP Offer is being conducted in accordance with terms and conditions contained in this Prospectus.

Under ASX Listing Rule 7.1, a listed entity is permitted to issue equity securities up to 15% of its fully paid ordinary shares in any 12-month period without requiring shareholder approval. Additionally, under ASX Listing Rule 7.1A, an eligible entity may seek shareholder approval to allow the entity to issue an additional 10% of its fully paid ordinary securities (Placement Limits). Approval given under Listing Rule 7.1A continues for the earlier of 12 months from the date of approval, the next AGM, or a significant transaction under Listing Rules 11.1.2 or 11.2. Any issue of shares beyond the Placement Limits requires further shareholder approval.

The Company has utilised its Placement Limits under the Previous Placement and is seeking shareholder ratification to refresh those Placement Limits under the ASX Listing Rules.

The Company is seeking shareholder approval of the issue of New Shares under the Shareholder Priority Placement. Shareholder approval is a condition of the Shareholder Priority Placement.

1.7 Removal of Trading Restrictions

In addition to the Offers, the purpose of this Prospectus is to remove any trading restrictions that may have attached to the Shares issued under the Previous Placement.

The offer and issue of the New Shares to under the Previous Placement was undertaken without disclosure under Part 6D of the Corporations Act, to investors who were considered sophisticated investors, professional investors or other investors who were exempt from disclosure pursuant to section 708 of the Corporations Act.

In addition, the offer and issue of the Shares under Incentive Share Issue will be undertaken without disclosure under Part 6D of the Corporations Act, to related party or senior management recipients were or other potential recipients who were exempt from disclosure pursuant to section 708 of the Corporations Act.

Generally, section 707(3) of the Corporations Act requires that a prospectus is issued in order for a person to whom securities were issued without disclosure under Part 6D of the Corporations Act to on-sell those securities within 12 months of the date of their issue.

Relevantly, section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act provides an exemption from this general requirement and states that a sale offer does not need disclosure to investors if:

- (a) the relevant securities are in a class of securities that are quoted securities of the body; and
- (b) either:
 - (1) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC on or after the day on which the relevant securities were issued, but before the day on which the sale offer is made; or
 - (2) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC before the day on which the relevant securities are issued and offers of securities that have been made under the prospectus are still open for acceptance on the day on which the relevant securities were issued; and
 - (3) the prospectus is an offer of securities issued by the body that are in the same class of securities as the relevant securities.

Accordingly, an additional purpose of this Prospectus is to comply with section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act so that the Shares issued under the Previous Placement or the Incentive Share Issue may be sold within the next twelve months without the issue of a prospectus. The issue of the Shares under the Previous Placement and the Incentive Share Issue have not been undertaken by the Company with the purpose of the recipients selling or transferring those Shares. However, the Directors consider that the recipients of those Shares should be able to sell them should they wish to do so, without being required to issue a prospectus.

1.8 New Share terms

Upon issue, each New Share will rank equally with all existing Shares then on issue. A summary of the rights attaching to the New Shares is set out in section 7.3.

1.9 Applying for New Shares

The number of New Shares that each Placement Participant has committed to apply for under the Placement, the total amount payable on discharge of that Placement Commitment, and the means by which that commitment can be accepted and paid for, is set out in the Placement Commitment Letter provided to that Placement Participant by the Joint Lead Managers, which will be accompanied by this Prospectus.

An Application Form may only be distributed together with a complete and unaltered copy of the Prospectus. The Company will not accept a completed Application Form if it has reason to believe that the Applicant has not received a complete paper copy or electronic copy of the Prospectus or if it has reason to believe that the Application Form or electronic copy of the Prospectus has been altered or tampered with in any way.

While the Company believes that it is extremely unlikely that during the period in which the Offers are open for acceptance the electronic version of the Prospectus will be tampered with or altered in any way, the Company cannot give any absolute assurance that it will not be the case. Any Applicant in doubt concerning the validity or integrity of an electronic copy of the Prospectus should immediately request a paper copy of the Prospectus directly from the Company or the Share Registry.

2. Details of the Offers

2.1 Placement Offer

The Placement Offer is extended to Placement Participants who are invited by the Company to subscribe for the New Shares and is not open to the general public.

The Placement Offer is the issue of 130,853,456 New Shares to raise $11,776,811.

2.2 QCMBTF Offer

The QCMBTF Offer is made to QCMBTF pursuant to the terms of the Share Subscription Agreement comprises an issue of 166,666,667 New Shares at the same Offer Price as the Placement Offer.

The number of New Shares offered to QCMBTF under the QCMBTF Offer represents the number of Shares required to be issued by the Company under the Share Subscription Agreement.

The issue of New Shares under the QCMBTF Offer is subject to Shareholder Approval and satisfaction of other conditions set out section 6.4.

2.3 AES Offer

The AES Offer is made to AES pursuant to the AES Debt Conversion the terms of which are summarised in section 6.3 to discharge the AES Debt. The AES Debt Conversion was previously approved by Shareholders, however given the delay to the Company's reinstatement to the ASX (which was a prerequisite of the issue of Shares to AES) the Company was unable to issue those Shares within the prescribed time limit (of one month) from the date of Shareholder approval. Consequently, that approval lapsed, requiring the Company to seek further approval of Shareholders.

The AES Debt Conversion will involve the issue of up to 40 million New Shares.

The AES Offer is subject to shareholder approval. Shareholder approval or completion of the AES Offer is not a condition of any other Offer.

2.4 Shareholder Priority Placement (SPP)

(a) Summary

The SPP is an offer to Eligible Shareholders to acquire Shares, by subscribing for up to $30,000 worth of New Shares (333,333 Shares) at the Offer Price to raise up to maximum $5 million.

The SPP is being made to Eligible Shareholders to increase their existing shareholding in the Company and participate in the future prospects of the Company.

There is no minimum amount to be raised under the SPP.

The maximum amount to be raised under the SPP is $5 million.

(b) Who is Eligible?

Participation in the SPP is optional and is available exclusively to Eligible Shareholders. The Company has determined that it is not practical for holders of Shares with addresses on the register in other jurisdictions to participate in the SPP.

The SPP does not constitute an offer in any jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer.

If you are an Eligible Shareholder, you should have received a copy of this Prospectus together with a personalised Application Form.

(c) How much can you invest

Each Eligible Shareholder may only purchase up to $30,000 worth of New Shares under the SPP. This represents 333,333 New Shares. This value is the same for all Shareholders, irrespective of how many Shares are held at the Record Date. This limit also applies if a Shareholder receives more than one offer from the Company. For example, if a Shareholder is both a sole and joint Eligible Shareholder or a shareholder with more than one holding under a separate account, the Shareholder can only apply for New Shares up to a maximum value of $30,000.

All Offers for New Shares under the SPP are non-renounceable and therefore the right to participate in SPP cannot be transferred.

Under the SPP, Eligible Shareholders may participate by selecting only one of the following options to purchase New Shares under the SPP:

Offer type	Total amount payable at 9 cents ($0.09) per New Share	Number of New Shares which may be applied for
Offer A	$30,000	333,333
Offer B	$25,000	277,777
Offer C	$20,000	222,222
Offer D	$15,000	166,666
Offer E	$10,000	111,111
Offer F	$5,000	55,555
Offer G	$2,000	22,222

No brokerage, stamp duty or other costs are payable by Applicants in respect of an application for New Shares under this Prospectus.

If two or more persons are recorded in the register of shareholders of the Company as jointly holding Shares, they are considered to be a single registered holder for the purposes of this SPP and they are entitled to participate in the SPP in respect of that single holding only. If as joint holders, they receive more than one offer under the SPP due to multiple identical holdings, the joint holders may still only contribute a maximum of $30,000 in applying under the SPP.

(d) Offer Price Comparison

The SPP price of 9 cents ($0.09) per New Share is payable in full on acceptance of part or all of your entitlement.

The price for New Shares is the same as the Offer Price of the New Shares under the Previous Placement, the Placement Offer and the QCMBTF Offer.

Compared with the average closing market price over the last 10 days on which trading in the Company's Shares were recorded prior to the announcement of the SPP (on 19 February 2026) the SPP price of 9 cents $0.09 represents a 17.5% discount to the average closing market price over that period (being $0.109).

The Shares are a speculative investment, and the market price of the Shares may change between the Opening Date and the date of issue of Shares. This means that the SPP price of 9 cents ($0.09) per New Share may exceed the market price of the Shares at the Issue Date. The Company does not make any assurance as to the market price of Shares and there can be no certainty that Shares in the Company will trade at or above the Offer Price per New Share following the Issue Date. Shareholders should seek their own financial advice in relation to, and participation in, the SPP.

 - (4) any other Shares in the Company issued to you as Custodian in the 12 months prior to the date of submission of the Application Form as a result of an instruction given by them to you as Custodian or a Downstream Custodian to apply for Shares under an arrangement similar to the SPP operated by the Company;
- (g) that a copy of the written offer document was given to each Participating Beneficiary; and
- (h) where paragraph (a)(2) applies, the name and address of each Custodian who holds beneficial interests in Shares held by the Custodian in relation to each Participating Beneficiary.

For the purposes of these terms of the SPP you are a 'custodian' if you are a person who provides a custodial or depository service in relation to shares of a body or interests in a registered scheme and who:

- (a) holds an Australian financial services licence covering the provision of a Custodial or Depository Service;
- (b) is exempt from the requirement to hold an Australian financial services licence for the provision of a custodial or depository service;
- (c) holds an Australian financial services licence covering the operation of an IDPS (as defined in Instrument 2019/547) or is the responsible entity of an IDPS-like scheme;

If you hold Shares as a trustee or nominee for another person or persons but are not a Custodian as defined above, you cannot participate for beneficiaries in the manner described above. In this case, the rules for multiple single holdings apply.

The Company reserves the right to reject any application for New Shares to the extent it considers that the application (whether alone or in conjunction with other applications) does not comply with these requirements. The Company reserves the right to reject applications in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in this Prospectus.

Non-residents

The right to participate in this offer under the SPP is available exclusively to persons who were registered as holders of Shares at 7.00pm (AEST) on the Record Date and whose registered address was in the Eligible Jurisdictions.

(i) Board's discretion

The Board reserves the right to reject any application for New Shares (in whole or in part) including (without limitation) if:

- (a) an Application Form is not correctly completed;
- (b) the Applicant is not an Eligible Shareholder;
- (c) the issue of those New Shares would contravene any law or the Listing Rules;
- (d) the exact payment for the New Shares applied for is not received;
- (e) to accept the application in full would have the effect of exceeding the maximum offer of New Shares under the SPP;
- (f) it is not reasonably satisfied that the issue of those New Shares will not result in any person receiving Shares in the Company with an application price totalling more than $30,000 as a result of:
 - (1) Shares issued to the person or to a Custodian on that person's behalf (as a result of an instruction given by that person to the Custodian or a Downstream Custodian to apply for Shares on their behalf) under the SPP; and
 - (2) any other Shares in the Company issued to the person or to a Custodian on that person's behalf (as a result of an instruction given by that person to the Custodian or a Downstream Custodian to apply for ordinary shares in the Company on their behalf) under an arrangement similar to the SPP operated by the Company in the 12 months prior to the application, except to the extent that the person is issued with New Shares or interests as a Custodian under a custodian offer;

- (g) the Applicant is a Custodian and has failed to provide the Company with a Custodian Certificate; or
- (h) the Applicant has not otherwise complied with the terms and conditions set out in this Prospectus.

The Board reserves the right to allocate fewer, or no, New Shares than an Eligible Shareholder applies for under the SPP, including, without limitation, in the event that the SPP is oversubscribed at its sole discretion.

In respect of application monies received from an Eligible Shareholder, the Company will, prior to the Issue Date, determine the maximum number of New Shares rounded down to the nearest whole number which may be acquired by any Eligible Shareholder.

The allocation of New Shares will be determined by the Board at its sole discretion.

The Board may change or terminate the SPP at any time prior to the Issue Date. If the Board does so, it will advise the ASX. Any omission to give notice of changes to, or termination of, the SPP, or the non-receipt of any such notice, will not invalidate the change or termination.

In addition to any rights of the Directors to reject applications as set out above and without limiting the above, the Company may issue to any person fewer or no New Shares than the person applied for under the SPP if the issue of the New Shares applied for would contravene any applicable law or the Listing Rules.

Scale Back

The Directors reserve the right to allocate fewer, or no, New Shares than an Eligible Shareholder applies for under the SPP, including, without limitation, if the SPP is oversubscribed at their sole discretion (Scale Back). If there is a Scale Back, you may receive fewer than the parcel of New Shares for which you applied. If a Scale Back produces a fractional number of shares when applied to your parcel, the number of New Shares you will be issued will be rounded down to the nearest whole number of Shares. In the event of a Scale Back, the difference between the Application Money received by the Company and the number of Shares that will be issued to you multiplied by the issue price, will be refunded to you without interest.

If there is a consolidation or re-organisation of the issued share capital of the Company prior to the Closing Date, the maximum number of Shares to be issued pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan shall be consolidated or re-organised (as the case may be) in the same ratio as the issued capital of the Company.

Minimum subscription

There is no minimum subscription under the SPP. The minimum parcel of Shares which an Eligible Shareholder may apply for under the Shareholder Priority Offer is $2,000, being 22,222 Shares.

4. Company Information

4.1 Introduction

Austral Resources Australia Ltd (ASX: AR1) is a pure-play Australian copper producer and consolidator operating across the Mount Isa–Cloncurry copper belt in North-West Queensland. The Company owns the Mt Kelly oxide SX-EW plant and the Rocklands sulphide concentrator, the region's only dual-processing platform capable of treating both oxide and sulphide ores. Austral controls significant copper resources, 64Mt at 0.73% Cu (JORC) and 2,101km² of exploration tenure, with significant near-mine and regional growth potential. Through infrastructure-led consolidation, third-party tolling, exploration and strategic acquisition, Austral is targeting sustainable production of ~50,000 tonnes per annum of copper.

Austral currently produces approximately 800 to 1,000 tonnes per month of copper cathode at its existing SX/EW facility at Mount Kelly. This plant is supplied by the Anthill Project mine resource which resource and production volumes are quarantined to repay Glencore and Secover (APA Lenders) under the Anthill Project Agreement (APA).

The Anthill Project is expected to be fully mined by February 2026 and processed over the next 12 months, following which security pledged in favour of the APA Lenders will be released and the APA extinguished.

Austral intends to develop its Expansion Projects and undertake the Heap Leach Remine to increase copper cathode production from the Mount Kelly SX/EW facility. Near-term copper cathode production from the Mount Kelly SX-EW Facility is supported by positive scoping-level technical studies evaluating the processing of existing copper oxide resources within the Expansion Project; complemented by the concurrent reprocessing of historical heap leach materials under the Heap Leach Remine. These studies demonstrate the potential to deliver an early, low-capital restart pathway while leveraging existing infrastructure, optimising recoveries, and maximising utilisation of previously invested capital.

The SX/EW facility at Mount Kelly has operated continuously under the ownership of Austral.

4.2 Rocklands Project

The Rocklands Project is strategically significant for Austral as it unlocks the potential within the East of the Mt Isa and Cloncurry region. The Rocklands Acquisition is an integral part of Austral's consolidation strategy within the region.

Rocklands complements the Company's existing Mt Kelly SX-EW operations by expanding production capacity into copper-gold sulphide mineralisation. This strategic dual-processing footprint (oxide at Lady Annie and sulphide at Rocklands) uniquely positions Austral to become an integrated and flexible copper producer in Queensland.

The Rocklands acquisition delivers near-term operational leverage, underpinned by a defined JORC-compliant resource base with clear expansion potential. The asset provides strategic integration synergies with Austral's existing infrastructure network and organic resource pipeline, further enhanced by access to diversified third-party feedstock sources. These advantages enable operational flexibility, optimised blending strategies, improved economies of scale and a derisked production profile.

The Rocklands Project, located within 50km east of Austral's existing eastern tenements and near Cloncurry, represents a cornerstone asset within the Company's organic growth strategy. Its strategic position maximises exposure to the future value of copper-gold discoveries across the Eastern Isa district while providing a platform to extend the life of the Rocklands asset through integration with Austral's exploration pipeline, potential processing synergies, and ongoing regional development initiatives

Rocklands establishes a strong platform to accelerate Austral's long-term regional growth strategy, supporting processing capacity expansion, unlocking significant exploration upside, and advancing future discovery potential across the Company's highly prospective Miranda and Cameron River Projects.

4.3 Lady Loretta Acquisition

(a) Lady Loretta Acquisition Agreement

The Company has entered into the Lady Loretta Acquisition Agreement to acquire Noranda Pacific, the owner and operator of the Lady Loretta Project.

The Lady Loretta Acquisition Agreement contemplates, the Company acquiring all of the issued share capital of Noranda Pacific, and two mining tenements held by MIM which relate to the Lady Loretta Project, in return for nominal purchase price ($1.00). Austral must also procure the grant of a net smelter royalty of 2.5% on all copper products produced from the Lady Loretta Project.

The shareholders of Noranda Pacific (Sellers) must also ensure that Noranda Pacific has a cash balance of not less than US$40 million (Computed Cash) in its bank accounts on completion to be allocated to the Replacement ERC Bond (defined below) and otherwise ensure Austral has free and unrestricted access to the balance of the Computed Cash as at Completion. Austral has agreed, through its ownership of Noranda Pacific (and the Lady Loretta Project) to undertake and discharge the Lady Loretta Project rehabilitation obligations and corresponding liabilities in accordance with the related mine closure plan.

Further details, including conditions of completion of the Lady Loretta Acquisition Agreement are contained in section 6.2.

Noranda Pacific also currently maintains a corporate guarantee backed rehabilitation bond of approximately US$9.6 million as provision for the anticipated rehabilitation of the Lady Loretta mine (ERC Bond). The ERC Bond will be cash-backed by AR1 (Replacement ERC Bond) as a condition of the Proposed Transaction. This will be achieved by Noranda Pacific allocating a total of US$9.6 million / AUD$15 million from the Computed Cash for the sole purpose of funding the Replacement ERC Bond.

(b) History

The Lady Loretta Zn-Ag-Pb deposit is located approximately 140km NNW of Mount Isa and represents one of the high-grade strata bound deposits in the world. The initial discovery of Lady Loretta was established by routine geochemical soil surveys by Placer Exploration in 1968, which at the time was focused on Cu exploration at the nearby Lady Annie Mine. Exploration drilling of peak surface Pb anomalism (+400ppm Pb) in 1969 confirmed sub-surface strong Pb-Ag mineralisation as a lead-rich gossan to ~100m below surface. Further exploration and resource definition drilling delineated high-grade, strata bound, zinc-dominant Zn-Pb-Ag mineralisation like that at Mount Isa, eventually leading to a maiden resource in 1973.

Though high-grade, the relatively small size of the deposit saw Lady Loretta changes hands through multiple entities following initial discovery, with mine development commenced in 2012 by Xstrata (now Glencore).

XStrata Zinc (now Glencore) moved the deposit into development in 2011, taking full ownership in April 2011 and commencing project works with a plan for the mine to be operational by the end of 2013. Early development concepts targeted production of ~1.0Mtpa of zinc-lead-silver ore over an initial ~10-year mine life, with ore to be treated at Mount Isa.

After commissioning and ramp-up, Lady Loretta delivered a decade-scale operating history characterised by consistently high grades and strong production performance, with ore haulage by road to Mount Isa forming a core part of the operating model. Operations entered care and maintenance in late 2015 due to falling commodity prices brought on by the Global Financial Crisis, before a restart decision in 2018, after which the mine was successfully contract-operated by Redpath, delivering record outputs in the early 2020s. By 2025, Glencore had signalled the mine was approaching the end of its active mining life and transitioning to a new chapter.

(c) State of Current Operations

Mining activities at Lady Loretta were completed in December 2025, marking the conclusion of the current underground Zinc production phase. Following cessation of mining, Glencore commenced an orderly demobilisation from site in January 2026. Notwithstanding the completion of mining, the operation remains in a well-maintained and highly functional condition, with the 200-person accommodation camp, workshops, administrative offices, also includes a paste plant, concrete batch plant, power station, reverse osmosis plant, materials handling areas and onsite crushing infrastructure fully intact and available for future use. Environmental compliance obligations continue to be met, with retained environmental personnel maintaining monitoring, reporting and site stewardship activities in accordance with approved regulatory requirements.

(d) Future Plans – AR1 Exploration and Development Strategy

Pit designs, optimisation and mine scheduling have begun in earnest to once again redirect the focus of mining and exploration to the adjacent Lady Annie Copper Mine. The extension of Cu resource outside of the current pit design has been known about for some time, with mining only inhibited by the previous boundary constraints of the Lady Annie Mining Lease. With the acquisition of the Lady Loretta Mining Lease, this impediment is now materially lifted. Work has begun on the regulatory requirements to enable the open pit cutbacks at Lady Annie, including Environmental Authority (EA) amendments across the ML's to expand the pit size, and increase the size of the permitted disturbance area.

Concomitantly with the mining of Cu oxides from within existing resource model, AR intends to undertake aggressive near mine drilling, targeting Cu Oxide to bolster feedstock to the nearby Mt Kelly SX-EW Facility and add additional runway to Cu cathode production. The current exploration goal is to establish a +3 year Cu oxide resource pipeline beyond existing mining schedules. To achieve this goal a phased 5100m percussion drilling program has been planned to commence Q2 2026. Strong to extreme Cu surface anomalism (+400 ppm Cu to +1000 ppm Cu) within the targeted areas has already been confirmed, validated and replicated by AR Exploration. Sub-surface Cu oxide and transitional mineralisation associated with these surface copper anomalies is confirmed from historical drilling by Xstrata and Glencore from 2011 to 2023. The immediate focus of exploration drilling will be to extend Cu mineralisation beyond what is currently known, followed by resource definition and infill drilling to improve confidence in any resulting geological model.

During Q3–Q4 2026, Austral plans to commence staged resource definition drilling targeting copper sulphide and transitional mineralisation beneath the Lady Annie and Lady Brenda pits (Brenda East and Brenda West), with the objective of improving geological confidence and supporting future mine planning studies. The staged program will prioritise shallower zones of mineralisation that may offer potential open-pit optionality, enabling exploration expenditure to be matched to better align with Company cash flow while progressively de-risking future development pathways and considerations. A total of 9 400m of drilling has been planned for Phase 1 resource definition for Annie Deeps, with a further 12,600m designed for Phase 2 and 3. The total cost of this drilling is expected to cost approximately $11 million AUD with an exploration target of 6-8 Mt @ 1-2% Cu announced by the Company as “Lady Loretta Mine Acquired Increasing Copper Pipeline” on 30 January 2026 (Exploration Target).

The potential quantity and grade of the Exploration Target is conceptual in nature. There has been insufficient exploration work completed to estimate a Mineral Resource and it is uncertain if further exploration will result in the estimation of a Mineral Resource.

Metallurgical and geotechnical data acquisition will be undertaken in parallel with drilling to provide key technical inputs, including preliminary assessment of processing performance and underground mining considerations, subject to results

The Mineral Resource Estimate standing of 64 Mt @ 0.73% Cu (468,414t of contained copper) (comprising of 52.8Mt @ 0.74% Cu at the Lady Annie Project Global MRE – 8.8Mt at 0.75% Cu Measured MRE, 33.0Mt at 0.76% Cu Indicated MRE and 11.0Mt at 0.69% Cu Inferred MRE and 11.26Mt at 0.69% Cu at the Rocklands Project – 9.12Mt at 0.72% Cu Indicated MRE and 2.14Mt at 0.55% Cu Inferred MRE).

The Company confirms that it is not aware of any new information or data that materially affects the exploration results, exploration targets and estimates of Mineral Resources as cross-referenced in this release and further as “Prospectus” on 1 November 2021, “Maiden Mineral Resource at Enterprise” on 9 August 2022, “Significant Increase of McLeod Hill Copper Mineral Resource” on 20 May 2024, “Acquisition of Rocklands to Transform Austral” on 3 July 2025 and “Austral Resources Prospectus” on 4 September 2025 and that all material assumptions and technical parameters underpinning the estimates continue to apply and have not materially changed. The Company confirms that the form and context in which the Competent Person’s findings are presented have not been materially modified from the original announcements.

Option consideration – 2,464,900 options at $0.011 per option (note b)	27
Total consideration paid	26,637

- a. Cash consideration is to be funded by the Glencore Loan Facility and consequently resulted in an increase in Pro-Forma Current and Non-Current Borrowings.
- b. The Fair Value of the Options have been assessed in accordance with AASB 2 – Share Based Payment using a binomial option valuation model and assuming volatility of 60%.

Net Assets Acquired	$'000

Net Assets Acquired	26,637

- a. Whilst the plant and equipment is recognised at cost based on the equity consideration paid, the replacement cost valuation for the plant and equipment has been valued by an independent plant and equipment valuer at $443.4m.

3. Having regard to the requirements of AASB 15, and taking into account that under the Anthill Project Agreement control of the Anthill project and receipt of economic benefits from the residual proceeds from the Anthill Project will be received by Glencore and Secover, the Anthill Project Agreement is accounted for as a disposal of the Anthill Project by Austral to Glencore and Secover as summarised in the table below. As a consequence of the above, as at 30 June 2025, the assets and associated liabilities of the Anthill Project were classified as held for sale.

Carrying value of proceeds received
Borrowings quarantined against proceeds of the Anthill Project (refer note 4 in relation to contingent liabilities)	82,552

Liabilities associated with assets held for resale	36,591
Pro Forma Net carrying value of assets and associated liabilities of the Anthill Project at 30 June 2025	60,806
Net gain on disposal	21,746

4. Contingent liability associated with the Anthill Project Agreement

Under the Anthill Project Agreement, If the amount of Anthill Project proceeds distributed to Glencore and Secover is less than $78 million in aggregate (such shortfall being the Shortfall), then Austral will pay to Glencore and Secover (in the 75/25 pari passu proportions) proceeds from the rights to the Re-mine Oxide in an amount that is equal to the lesser of (A) the Shortfall; and (B) $13 million.

Therefore, the Company has a contingent liability payable of up to $13 million. As at the date of this Prospectus, the Company has reviewed the forecast cash flows of the Anthill Project and do not consider, based on the forecasts, that there will be any Shortfall. However, it should be noted that actuals results from the operation and management of the Anthill Project, may differ and the Company may be required to make a Shortfall payment to Glencore and Secover.

- a. Rehabilitation provision is based on the provision set out in the unaudited management accounts of Noranda Pacific Pty Ltd as at 31 December 2025.
- b. As part of the Transaction, AR1 agrees to pay a 2.5% net smelter return royalty derived from the sale of Copper Product extract, recovered or produced within the area of the EPMs (NSR) following Completion in accordance with the Royalty Agreement.

On the basis that the Lady Loretta Acquisition represents an arms-length transaction, the initial Fair Value of this liability has been calculated as the difference between the consideration paid and other assets and liabilities assumed as part of the transaction such that there is no gain recognised upon completion of the Lady Loretta Acquisition.

The ultimate value of payments that will crystallise from the Royalty Agreement will be contingent upon future events including the volumes of Copper Product recovered or produced within the area of the EPM's, related costs of extraction and the pricing obtained via the Offtake Agreement and may materially differ from the initial Fair Value recognised which may result in future gains or losses related to this liability being recognised in future accounting periods.

5. Risk factors

5.1 Introduction

As with any equity investment, there are risks involved with operating a Company that may impact its share price and liquidity. This section seeks to identify the major areas of risk associated with the Company; but should not be viewed as an exhaustive list of all risk factors to which the Company and its Shareholders are exposed.

Offer Participants should be aware that the risks outlined in section 1.5 and this section should be considered in conjunction with the other information in this Prospectus. In deciding whether to invest in the Company, Offer Participants should read this Prospectus in its entirety and consult their professional advisors before deciding whether to apply for Shares.

5.2 Specific Risks

In addition to the general market and economic risks noted in section 5.3, Offer Participants should be aware of the risks specific to an investment in the Company. The major risks are described below.

(a) Acquisition Risks

The Lady Loretta Acquisition is subject to a number of conditions which are summarised in section 6.2. Accordingly, there is no guarantee that the Lady Loretta Acquisition will complete on its terms or at all. If the Lady Loretta Acquisition does not complete, Board will assess the reallocation of those funds raised under the Offers, that are currently allocated to the Lady Loretta Project, to other existing projects, acquisition opportunities and appropriate reserves for organic and inorganic opportunities.

The Company has undertaken financial, operational, business and other analyses of whether to pursue the Lady Loretta Acquisition. There is a risk that such analyses, and the estimates and assumptions made by the Company during the analyses, leads to conclusions or forecasts that are inaccurate or which will not be realised in due course. To the extent that the actual results achieved by the Company differ from those indicated by the Company's analysis of the Lady Loretta Acquisition, there is a risk the cash position, profitability and future earnings of the operations of the Company may differ from the estimates and forecasts made by the Company.

(b) Due Diligence Risks

The Lady Loretta Acquisition due diligence process relied in part on the review of technical, financial and operational information provided by the counterparty to the Lady Loretta Acquisition. Despite making reasonable efforts, the Company has not been able to verify the accuracy, reliability or completeness of all the information which was provided to it against independent data. If any of the data or information provided to and relied upon by the Company in its due diligence process proves to be incomplete, incorrect, inaccurate or misleading, there is a risk that the actual financial position and performance of the Company may be materially different to the financial position and performance expected by the Company. The information reviewed by the Company includes forward-looking information. While the Company has been able to review some of the foundations for the forward-looking information relating to the Company, forward-looking information is inherently unreliable and based on assumptions that may change in the future.

Whilst the Company considers that its review was adequate in the circumstances, there is also no guarantee that the due diligence conducted was conclusive and that all material issues and risks in respect of the Lady Loretta Acquisition have been appropriately identified, managed, eliminated or addressed as part of the Lady Loretta Acquisition (and the documentation relating to the same). Therefore, there is a risk that unforeseen issues and risks may arise, which may have a material impact on the Company's business, financial position and performance.

(c) Mine development

Possible future development of a mining operation at any of the Company's projects including future mining development of the Lady Loretta Project, the Rocklands Project, the Heap Leach Re-Mine and the Expansion

Projects is dependent on a number of factors affecting the tenure exploration, quality ore supply, mine development and commercialisation of mining projects.

To assess the initial feasibility of the Heap Leach Re-Mine and future mining development of the Expansion Projects, the Company has undertaken scoping studies to assess on a preliminary basis the technical and economic viability of the Expansion Projects and to provide an initial Inferred Resources within the Heap Leach. While mining operations have been undertaken previously within a certain Expansion Projects the scoping studies are based on low level technical and economic assessments that are not sufficient to support the estimation of ore reserves.

Further evaluation work and appropriate studies are required before the Company will be in a position to estimate any ore reserves or to provide any assurance of an economic development case. Each scoping study is based on material assumptions. These include assumptions about the availability of funding. While the Company considers all of the material assumptions to be based on reasonable grounds, there is no certainty that they will prove to be correct or that the range of outcomes indicated by each scoping study will be achieved.

To achieve the range of outcomes indicated in the scoping study, further funding is required. The Company intends to fund the required capital through proceeds derived from the Heap Leach Re-Mine or will otherwise be required to reallocate funds raised under the Offers. Offer Participants should note that there is no guarantee that Austral will be able to generate the funds required from the Heap Leach Re-Mine to hold sufficient funding to develop the Expansion Project which will require the Company to either raise that amount of shortfall funding or reallocate funds currently designated to other items as identified in this Prospectus.

(d) Share Price

The price at which the Company's Shares trade on the ASX post-issue may be higher or lower than the issue price of the Shares offered under this Prospectus and could be subject to fluctuations in response to variations in operating performance, general operations and business risk, as well as external operating factors over which the Directors and the Company have no control, such as movements in mineral prices and exchange rates, changes to government policy, legislation or regulation and other events or factors.

There can be no guarantee that the price of Shares will increase. There may be relatively few or many potential buyers or sellers of Shares on ASX at any given time. This may increase the volatility of the market price of Shares. It may also affect the prevailing market price at which Shareholders are able to sell their Shares. This may result in Shareholders receiving a market price for their Shares that is above or below the price that Shareholders paid.

(e) Strategic risk

Austral's strategic growth plans (including the re-commissioning of the Rocklands Project concentrate facility) require the availability of appropriate and suitable ore supply and potential acquisition targets or sourcing third-party providers of suitable ore for processing under tolling arrangements. Austral has executed two Memoranda of Understanding for ore assessment and potential toll treatment of third-party ore with Maronan Metals Limited (ASX: MMA) and Transition Minerals Limited and has, in turn identified a number of suitable targets for this purpose however there is no guarantee that any successful acquisitions will be able to be efficiently integrated into the operations of Austral.

Integration risk

The integration of a business with substantial assets such as the Lady Loretta Project carries risk, including potential delays or costs in implementing necessary changes and difficulties in integrating various operations. The success of the Lady Loretta Acquisition and the ability to realise the benefits of the Lady Loretta Project is dependent on the discovery and development of economically recoverable copper resource and the effective and timely integration of the Lady Loretta Project operations into Austral's proposed expansion program and its planned business operations.

There is a risk that the assessment and re-commissioning of the Lady Loretta Project will be delayed, incur increased costs of re-commissioning or that the re-commissioning does not occur. While Austral has undertaken analysis in relation to the future operational benefits of the Lady Loretta Acquisition, assuming the re-commission does occur, they remain Austral's estimate of those expected benefits, and there is a risk that the actual synergies able to be realised as part of the Lady Loretta Acquisition may be less than expected or delayed, or that the expected synergy benefits of the Acquisition may not eventuate at all or cost more to achieve than originally expected.

(f) Operational risk

The Company's current and proposed copper production operations may be affected by a range of operational factors. Each of these factors will affect the feasibility of the re-commissioning and commercialisation of the Lady Loretta Project. These include failure to achieve the predicted grade in mining, processing, technical difficulties encountered in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, mechanical failure, problems which affect extraction rates and costs, adverse weather conditions, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes, unforeseen delays, unexpected shortages or increase in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment. For example, the Lady Loretta Project is subject to geological and metallurgical review of the performance of the Processing Facility in the treatment and recovery of the different ore types at and potentially surrounding, Lady Loretta. Given that both production levels and operating costs are susceptible to external factors, some of which are beyond the control of the Company, its Board and executive, no assurance can be given that adverse operating conditions will not impact on Austral's operations, financial performance or position.

The Company's production and operations generally may be disrupted by a variety of risks and hazards which are beyond its control, including environmental hazards, industrial accidents, technical failures, labour disputes, unusual or unexpected rock formations, flooding and extended interruptions due to inclement of hazardous weather conditions and fires, explosions or accidents. No assurance can be given that the Company will achieve commercial viability through the development or mining of its projects and treatment of ore.

(g) Increase in costs

Austral's business, operating and financial performance may be affected by increased cost of production inputs and consumables (such as fuel, water, acid and other chemicals) and capital costs, some of which are outside of the Company's control and may exceed the Company's future estimates.

The Company intends upon mitigating risks associated with potential increase in production costs by agreeing with third parties on, where possible, long term fixed price contracts and where applicable, hedging arrangements to limit further exposure. However, no guarantee can be given that such arrangements will be secured at commercially acceptable rates or at all.

(h) Exploration and evaluation risk

The long-term value of Austral will depend on its ability to find and develop resources that are economically recoverable within, the Lady Loretta Project tenements, the Rocklands Project tenements and Austral's Expansion Projects in the medium term and within its exploration tenements in the longer term. Mineral exploration and mine development is inherently highly speculative and involves a significant degree of risk. There is no guarantee that it will be economic to extract these resources or that there will be commercial opportunities available to monetise these resources. The circumstances in which a mineral deposit becomes or remains commercially viable depends on a number of factors. These include the particular attributes of the deposit, such as size, concentration and proximity to infrastructure as well as external factors such as development costs, supply and demand. This, along with other factors such as maintaining title to tenements and consents, commissioning and operating of projects and processing facilities may result in projects not being developed, or operations becoming unprofitable.

Furthermore, while the Company has confidence in its existing projects, should those projects not prove profitable and the Company is unable to secure new exploration and mining areas and resources, there could be a material adverse effect on the Company's prospects for copper exploration and its success in the future.

(i) Climate Change

The operations and activities of the Company are subject to changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage and other possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Company. While the Company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Company will not be impacted by these occurrences.

Climate change may also cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns, incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns. All these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Company operates.

(j) Reserves and resource estimates

The resource statements and estimates set out in this Prospectus represent the estimated tonnages and grades which Austral has determined are technically feasible to progress more detailed technical and economic assessments. The resource statements are not sufficient to support the estimation of ore reserves which are economically viable to mine.

Resource estimates are expressions of judgment based on knowledge, experience and industry practice and the Joint Ore Reserve Committee code. These estimates are imprecise and depend to some extent on interpretations, which may ultimately prove to be inaccurate and require adjustment or, even if valid when originally calculated, may alter significantly when new information or techniques become available. As further information becomes available through additional drilling and analysis the estimates are likely to change. Any adjustments to resources could affect the Company's exploration and development plans which may, in turn, affect the Company's performance. The Company will undertake metallurgical studies to assess whether the resources are economically viable to mine. If Austral's actual realisation of mineral quantities and grades is less than estimated, there will be a corresponding effect on the operations and financial performance of the Company.

(k) Contractual risks

The Austral Group is a party to various contracts and has entered into the Lady Loretta Acquisition Agreement and the QCMBTF Share Subscription Agreement. These agreements are summarised in section 6. Austral has also entered into binding commitments with Eligible Investors to acquire New Shares under the Placement Offer.

No assurance can be given that all contracts to which Austral is a party will be fully performed by all contracting parties. If a contract summarised in section 6 is not fully performed in accordance with its terms, there is a risk that the Offers will not be completed in accordance with their respective terms or at all. Additionally, no assurance can be given that if a contracting party does not comply with any contractual provisions, Austral will be successful in securing compliance.

Whilst Austral has various contractual protections in place to quarantine its liabilities in the event of non-compliance by a contracting party, no assurance can be given that all contracts to which Austral is a party will be fully performed by all contracting parties. Additionally, no assurance can be given that if a contracting party does not comply with any contractual provisions, Austral will be successful in securing compliance. Any failure to secure timely compliance or substitution of key contracts may result in the operations of Austral being disrupted which could have a material adverse effect on its operations, financial position and financial performance.

(l) Access to utilities

Austral's mining activities rely on a significant quantity of power and water for mining and extraction activities, processing, and related support facilities. Water usage requires appropriate permits, which are granted by government authorities where Austral operates. Water permits are temporal and subject to usage and other conditions. Any change or effect on permitted allocation may affect Austral's operations and financial performance generally. Any failure or interruption to secure the necessary levels of power and water on commercially acceptable terms may affect Austral's development programme, production levels and operations generally which could adversely impact its financial performance and future prospects.

(m) Equipment failure

Austral's mining and processing operations are susceptible to equipment failure. The occurrence of any such failure or interruption may interrupt Austral's operations or delay Austral's production programme due to rectification or replacement of equipment. For example, the crusher screen decks have failed and the overland conveyor has suffered from belt failures. While Austral will seek to institute and maintain business interruption insurance, there is no guarantee that each incidence of equipment failure or business interruption will be covered by those policies or those policies can be secured on commercially acceptable terms. Any delay in production arising from such equipment failure may adversely affect the performance of the Austral operations.

(n) Infrastructure risk

Austral's mining, processing and development activities rely on critical infrastructure such as processing facilities, road and port access. A number of general factors could affect critical infrastructure and transport services, including third party contractual dispute, weather, global pandemics, infrastructure interruption, rail or port capacity, industrial action, commercial disputes, terrorist attacks, cyberattacks or other force majeure events.

The occurrence of any such disruptions may affect Austral's ability to deliver its copper product to third parties which could result in contractual breach and a corresponding impact on its financial performance and goodwill and reputation with contract counterparties. For example, any failure of Austral's third party transportation and logistics contracts to transport its copper product will affect its ability to discharge its obligations under any offtake arrangements it may affect at the time of delivery of its products and affect its operations and financial performance generally.

(o) Environmental risks

The Company's operations and projects are subject to the laws and regulations of all jurisdictions in which it has interests and carries on business, regarding environmental compliance and relevant hazards.

These laws and regulations set standards regulating certain aspects of health and environmental quality and provide for penalties and other liabilities for the violation of such standards. They also establish, in certain circumstances, obligations to rehabilitate current and former facilities and locations where operations are or were conducted.

As with most development and exploration projects operations, the Company's activities are expected to have an impact on the environment. Significant liability could be imposed on the Company for damages, clean-up costs, or penalties in the event of certain discharges into the environment, environmental damage caused by previous owners of property acquired by the Company, or non-compliance with environmental laws or regulations. It is the Company's intention to minimise this risk by conducting its activities to the highest standard of environmental obligation, including compliance with all environmental laws and where possible, by carrying appropriate insurance coverage.

There is also a risk that the environmental laws and regulations may become more onerous, making the Company's operations more expensive. Amendments to current laws, regulations and permits governing operations and activities of copper companies, or a more stringent implementation or enforcement, could have a material adverse impact on the Company and cause increases in exploration expenses, capital expenditures or production costs or reduction in levels of production at producing properties or require abandonment or delays in development of new properties.

(p) Rehabilitation cost risk

Austral makes provision in its financial statements for future rehabilitation and remediation costs. Estimating the likely quantum of such costs is uncertain and requires the use of assumptions as to mine life, mine processes, and future rehabilitation and closure costs. As such, no assurance can be given as to the accuracy of Austral's current provisions for future rehabilitation and closure costs, and actual costs may be substantially greater.

The Lady Loretta Acquisition obligates the Austral Group to undertake the rehabilitation of the Lady Loretta Project. While funds have been provided to the Austral Group, in consideration for undertaking the rehabilitation, there is no guarantee that the costs of such rehabilitation will be equal to or less than the funds provided. Any increase in rehabilitation liability will need to be sourced from the funds of the Austral Group which would impact Austral's liquidity and financial position.

Austral's projects operate in Queensland. As a condition of undertaking mining operations, the Queensland government requires Austral to provide a guarantee against future rehabilitation and closure liability, in the form of a performance bond or bank guarantee. The quantum of the surety is determined by the Queensland government regulatory authority and is required to be based on an assessment of potential disturbance and contamination, and other criteria determined by the regulatory authority. This assessment and resultant determination may result in an increase in the quantum of the surety which would impact Austral's liquidity and financial position.

(q) Ore Reserve depletion

Austral's Ore Reserves will reduce through mining operations. Austral's medium to long term financial performance and viability will require it to supplement and increase its resources and Ore Reserves through exploration, increasing the resource status of its known resources or capital investment in alternate but commercially viable extraction methods.

(r) Title Risk

The exploration and mining tenements the Company currently hold, or may, in the future, acquire an interest, are subject to the applicable local laws and regulations. There is no guarantee that any permits, applications or conversions in which the Company has a current or potential interest will be granted.

The exploration tenements in which the Company has an interest will be subject to application for permit renewal from time to time. Renewal of the term of each permit is subject to applicable legislation. If the permit is not renewed for any reason, the Company may suffer significant damage through loss of the opportunity to develop and discover any mineral resources on that permit.

Although the Company has taken steps to verify the title to the resource properties in which it has or has a right to acquire an interest, in accordance with industry standards for the current stage of exploration and mining of such properties, these procedures do not guarantee title. Title to resource properties may be subject to unregistered prior agreements or transfers and may also be affected by undetected defects or other stakeholder rights.

(s) Native Title

The tenements which the Company has an interest in or will in the future acquire such an interest, may be areas over which legitimate common law native title rights of Aboriginal Australians exist. If native title rights do exist, the ability of the Company to gain access to tenements (through obtaining consent of any relevant landowner), or to progress from the exploration phase to the development and mining phases of operations may be adversely affected.

All exploration tenements owned by the Austral Group are subject to native title agreements with either Kalkadoon Native Title Aboriginal Corporation (KNTAC) or Indjalandji – Dhidhanu Aboriginal Corporation (IDAC). All the exploration tenements have been granted either with Native Title Protection Conditions (NTPC's) or an agreement has been reached with the native title party under a Section 31 deed. All mining leases owned by the Company are subject to a native title agreement with KNTAC.

(t) Changes in commodity price

The Company's potential future revenues are likely to be derived mainly from copper revenue and/or from royalties gained from potential joint ventures or other arrangements.

Consequently, the Company's potential future earnings will likely be closely related to the price of copper.

Copper prices fluctuate and are affected by numerous industry factors including demand for the resource, forward selling by producers, production cost levels in major producing regions and macroeconomic factors, e.g. inflation, interest rates, currency exchange rates and global and regional demand for, and supply of, copper. If the Company is producing copper and the market price of copper were to fall below the costs of production and remain at such a level for any sustained period, the Company would experience losses and could have to curtail or suspend some or all of its proposed activities. In such circumstances, the Company would also have to assess the economic impact of any sustained lower commodity prices on recoverability.

(u) Failure to satisfy expenditure commitments and licence conditions

The Company's current tenement suite is located in Queensland. Interests in tenements in Queensland are governed by the mining acts and regulations that are current in that jurisdiction and are evidenced by the granting of licences or leases. Each licence or lease is for a specific term and carries with it annual expenditure and reporting commitments, as well as other conditions requiring compliance. Consequently, the Company could lose title to or its interest in the Tenements if licence conditions are not met or if insufficient funds are available to meet expenditure commitments.

(v) Financing

Austral has finite financial resources and, presently has no significant excess cash flow from producing assets. On completion of the Offer, Austral anticipates having sufficient financial resources from proceeds raised from the Offer and the anticipated proceeds derived from the Heap Leach Re-Mine to develop and commercialise the Expansion Projects in the manner described in this Prospectus. However, the Company may require additional financing in order to develop the Expansion Projects where actual costs exceed anticipated expenses or where the anticipated proceeds derived from the Heap Leach Re-Mine are insufficient to cover any unforeseen increases in development or production costs associated with the Expansion Projects.

If the financial performance of Austral is not sufficient to satisfy any unforeseen increases in development or production costs associated with the Lady Loretta Project, the Heap Leach Re-Mine and the Expansion Projects, Austral will be required to raise additional equity or debt. There can be no assurance that any such equity or debt funding will be available to Austral on favourable terms or at all. Failure to obtain appropriate financing on a timely basis will affect the development and commercialisation of the Lady Loretta Project, Rocklands Project, the Heap Leach Re-Mine and each Expansion Project and its operations generally. If Austral raises additional funds through the issue of equity securities, this will result in dilution to the existing Shareholders and potentially a change of control of Austral.

(w) Exchange rate risk

The revenues, earnings, assets and liabilities of the Company may be exposed adversely to exchange rate fluctuations. The Company's revenue may be denominated in Australian Dollars or a foreign currency, such as United States Dollars. As a result, fluctuations in exchange rates could result in unanticipated and material fluctuations in the financial results of the Company.

(x) Industrial risk

Industrial disruptions, work stoppages and accidents in the course of the Company's operations could result in losses and delays, which may adversely affect Austral's operations and profitability.

(y) Insurance arrangements

The Company intends to ensure that insurance is maintained within ranges of coverage that the Company believes to be consistent with industry practice and having regard to the nature of activities being conducted. No assurance, however, can be given that the Company will be able to obtain such insurance coverage at reasonable rates or that any coverage it arranges will be adequate and available to cover any such claims.

Moreover, insurance against risks such as business interruption, environmental pollution or other hazards as a result of exploration, development and production activities is not generally available to the Company or to other companies in the copper industry on acceptable terms. The Company might also become subject to liability for pollution or other hazards that may not be insured against or which the Company may elect not to insure against because of premium costs or other reasons. Losses from these events may cause the Company to incur significant costs that could have a material adverse effect upon its financial performance and results of operations.

(z) Land access risk

Austral's projects are located in Queensland. Access to land in Queensland for mining and exploration purposes can be affected by land ownership, including private (freehold) land, pastoral lease and regulatory requirements within the jurisdiction where the Company operates. Any non-performance non-compliance by or dispute with any contract counterparty or party granting land access could affect the Company's ability to access its projects and associated infrastructure which will affect operations and financial performance generally.

(aa) Government policy

Changes in relevant taxation, interest rates, other legal, legislative and administrative regimes, and Government policies in Queensland or at the federal level, may have an adverse effect on the assets, operations and ultimately the financial performance of the Company. These factors may ultimately affect the financial performance of the Company and the market price of its securities.

In addition to the normal level of income tax imposed on all industries, the Company may be required to pay government royalties, indirect taxes, GST and other imposts which generally relate to revenue or cash flows. Industry profitability can be affected by changes in government taxation policies.

Changing attitudes to environmental, land care, cultural heritage, together with the nature of the political process, provide the possibility for future policy changes in Queensland and federally. There is a risk that such changes may affect the Company's exploration and development plans or, indeed, its rights and/or obligations with respect to the tenements.

(bb) Reliance on Key Personnel

The Company is currently running a recruitment process for the purposes of engaging a new chief executive officer. The Board is confident a suitable candidate will be secured; however, there is no guarantee that an appropriately qualified and experienced candidate will fill that position in a timely manner or at all. The Company currently has a team of executives and senior personnel to progress its development, exploration and evaluation programme, within the time frames and within the costs structure as currently envisaged. The timing and costs associated with this programme could be influenced by the loss of existing key personnel or a failure to secure and retain additional key personnel as the Company's exploration and mining programme develops. The resulting impact from such loss would be dependent upon the quality and timing of the employee's replacement. Although the key personnel of the Company have a considerable amount of experience and have previously been successful in their pursuits of acquiring, exploring and evaluating resources projects, there is no guarantee or assurance that they will be successful in their objectives under the Offer.

5.3 General Risks

(a) Investment risk

There are a number of risks associated with any stock market investment. The market price of Shares can be expected to rise and fall in accordance with general market conditions and factors and there can be no certainty that, following listing, an active market for the Shares will develop.

The value of the Shares will be determined by the stock market and will be subject to a range of factors beyond the control of the Company or its Directors. These factors include movements in local and international stock exchanges, local interest rates and exchange rates, domestic and international economic and political conditions, government taxation, market supply, competition and demand and other legal, regulatory or policy changes.

The trading price after listing may also be affected by the financial and operating performance of the Company.

(b) Share Market Risk

The market price of Shares and other securities can be expected to rise and fall in accordance with general market conditions and factors specifically affecting the Australian resources sector and exploration and mining companies in particular.

There are a number of factors (both national and international) that may affect the share market price and neither the Company nor its Directors have control of these factors.

(c) Taxation

The acquisition and disposal of Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each investor. All Offer Participants in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation point of view and generally.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisers accept no liability and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of applying for Shares under this Prospectus.

(d) Force majeure events

Acts of terrorism, an outbreak of international hostilities, pandemics or fires, floods, earthquakes, labour strikes, civil wars and other natural disasters may cause an adverse change in investor sentiment with respect to the Company specifically or the stock market more generally, which could have a negative impact on the value of an investment in the Shares.

(e) Speculative nature of investment

The above list of risk factors ought not to be taken as an exhaustive list of the risks faced by the Company or by investors in the Company. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may materially affect the financial performance of the Company and the value of the Shares offered under the Offers. The Shares issued under the Offers carry no guarantee in respect of profitability, dividends, return of capital or the price at which they may trade on ASX. Offer Participants should therefore consider an investment in the Company as speculative and should consult their professional advisers before deciding whether to apply for Shares under the Offers.
