David Clanchy Appointed as Chief Financial Officer effective 20 April 2026

Infotrust Ltd (“Infotrust”; “Company”) announces the appointment of David Clanchy to the role of Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Paul Miller will be stepping down from his role as CFO but will remain with the Company until 29 May 2026 to support an orderly handover.

Mr Clanchy brings extensive senior leadership experience, with over 20 years in professional services, including as a Partner at Ernst & Young, leading finance teams across domestic and international markets. His background includes advising on transactions and accounting matters across the technology, engineering and professional services sectors, together with hands-on experience as a technology company CFO.

Infotrust Managing Director and CEO, Julian Challingsworth, said:

“We are excited to have someone of David’s experience joining the senior leadership team. I am sure that his deep experience in IT services and his many years as an Ernst & Young partner will stand him in excellent stead in this next chapter of Infotrust’s emergence as Australia’s leading ASX listed cyber-first services provider.”

I want to thank Paul Miller for his contribution during his six years with the Company. During this period, Paul played a key leadership role in supporting the Company’s transformation into a cyber-first technology business and the delivery of a number of strategic initiatives, including the recent divestment of Nexgen. We thank Paul for his service and wish him well in his future endeavours.”

The Board thanks Paul Miller for his service and contribution to the Company and welcomes Mr Clanchy to the executive team as Infotrust enters its next phase of growth.

This announcement is authorised for release to the market by the Board of Directors of Infotrust Ltd.
