ASX Announcement
ATOMOS LIMITED (ASX:AMS)

27 April 2026

Completion of Flanders Scientific acquisition

Settlement funded by CBA Finance Facility

Melbourne, Australia - Atomos Limited ('ASX:AMS', 'Atomos' or the 'Company'), a global leader in professional video monitoring and workflow tools, is pleased to announce it has completed the acquisition of 100% of the issued capital of Dan Desmet & Associates, Inc., doing business as Flanders Scientific, Inc. (FSI).

FSI a long-standing, and trusted global brand providing a suite of highly calibrated professional reference monitors with a global reputation for expertise in colour science & reference display technology. The acquisition of FSI expands the Atomos ecosystem by incorporating products that address critical customer challenges further along the video production process.

Post synergies and before any revenue growth FSI is expected to generate annual EBITDA of $1m.

The upfront consideration paid was approximately $2.35m in cash and 5,602,592 in AMS shares.

Settlement of CBA Finance Facility

Atomos has executed required security and financing documentation with the Commonwealth Bank of Australia (CBA) for a new $10m Business Finance Facilty (Finance Facility) (refer announcement on 10 April 2026).

To fund the completion payments, Atomos has drawn on the Finance Facilty, with the remaining loan proceeds being used to accelerate Atomos Product Development, increase Inventory holdings and provide general working capital for both Atomos and FSI.

Concurrent with the Finance Facility, Atomos has executed an Amendment Deed under the Monreii facility reducing the funding costs from 20% per annum to 13%, an approximate saving of $0.7m annually.

Commenting on the FSI acquisition, Atomos Managing Director & CEO, Peter Barber, said,

"We are excited to welcome the FSI business and team to Atomos and look forward to working closely together to furthering our commitment to monitoring at every level, from on-camera through to final delivery, while also accelerating our ability to support the highest tier of professional production and post-production workflows."

"The initial reaction from customers has been very positive and we are now focused on an efficient integration process, enabling the realisation of synergies across the business."

"We would also like to thank CBA for their support as we continue to execute on our growth strategy".

This announcement has been authorised for lodgement with ASX by the Board of Directors.
