Executive Leadership Team resignation

Synlait Milk Limited (Synlait) announces that Chief Quality Officer Hila Mory has resigned.

CEO Richard Wyeth said Hila has made a significant contribution to Synlait.

“Under Hila’s leadership, Synlait has significantly lifted its quality performance. A new Quality Strategy has been delivered, alongside the rollout of Synlait Care as a company-wide quality commitment. Through this work, Synlait has strengthened its quality and compliance operating model, governance and regulatory readiness, including clearer accountabilities, more consistent standards, and improved risk-based decision-making across the organisation. We wish Hila all the best.”

Hila’s last day with Synlait will be 31 July 2026.
