2026 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS – CHAIRMAN’S REMARKS

MR. RAJIV JAIN, EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF INVESTMENT OFFICER

Nearly ten years ago, we founded GQG with the vision of creating an enduring institution that would outlive its founders. Today, I believe we have made great strides toward that vision, and our team is as committed as ever to delivering for our clients and shareholders through the responsible stewardship of their capital.

Our commitment begins with fostering alignment between our team, clients, and shareholders. Since GQG’s IPO in 2021, our team members have remained majority shareholders in the business and have made significant investments in our strategies alongside our clients. This shared perspective reinforces our dedication to long-term success and underscores the trust placed in us by those we serve.

Adaptability has always been a cornerstone of our philosophy and is deeply ingrained in our organization. By continuously challenging our thinking and refining our investment approach, we aim to position GQG for enduring success in an ever-changing market landscape.

While we acknowledge that we will not get every investment decision right, and we will underperform from time to time, we are confident in our process and believe that the resilience and strength of our investment culture will drive long-term outperformance.

I am incredibly proud of the board we have built, which is composed of exceptionally skilled and deeply committed individuals. Tim and I remain actively involved in all parts of the business and are honored to serve our shareholders in dual capacities as both executives and board members. Our independent directors contribute a wealth of diverse expertise, knowledge, and insight, enriching the board’s ability to guide the firm forward.

As GQG’s largest shareholder, I am deeply optimistic about the firm’s future. I share your expectation that the executive team will remain committed to delivering value for our clients, which in turn drives sustainable, long-term shareholder value.

I am proud of our team and the strong execution of our investment process, and I will continue to champion a culture of engagement, focus, and excellence across our professional staff.

2026 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS – CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER’S REMARKS

MR. TIM CARVER, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

I’d like to begin by thanking our team for their unwavering commitment to excellence. I believe our team’s alignment with clients and shareholders remains one of the defining characteristics of GQG.

Our alignment is reflected in our team’s collective exposure to our strategies, which totals hundreds of millions of dollars, and their ownership of more than 185 million vested and unvested shares/CDIs of GQG. We eat our own cooking, and our outcomes are closely tied to those of our shareholders.

This alignment starts at the top. Rajiv and I take zero bonuses personally and together remain the largest shareholders at GQG, ensuring that our focus remains firmly on creating long-term shareholder value and delivering results aligned with the interests of our clients and of our investors.

Our business continued to grow in 2025. As of December 2025, our funds under management reached $163.9 billion, driving net revenues of $808 million for the year, a 6.3% increase over 2024. Net operating income rose 7.6% to $622 million, and diluted earnings per share increased by 6.7% to reach 16 cents per share.

As I have said before, performance is a leading indicator of flows, and GQG has experienced a period of net outflows over the latter half of 2025 and the beginning of 2026. Our investment objectives have always been to protect client capital from downside risks and compound returns over a full market cycle. Our defensive positioning over the past year has been highly intentional, as we recognise indicators of late-cycle dynamics and speculative activity.

While we are never comfortable with periods of relative underperformance, we note that our performance has historically lagged during times when market exuberance overshadows fundamentals, as we believe is the case today.

Despite this, our investment team delivered $14.8 billion in investment performance for clients in 2025. I believe our differentiated view and approach to this market provide meaningful value for our clients. And against this backdrop of market volatility and uncertainty, in the first quarter of 2026, each of our flagship strategies outperformed their respective benchmarks.

A final 2025 dividend of US 3.65 cents per share was paid in March, and the Board declared a first quarter 2026 interim dividend of US 3.54 cents per share, representing a 90.14% payout ratio of distributable earnings for the first quarter.

In closing, I want to thank you for your continued trust in us. The dedication I see from our team reinforces my confidence in our ability to deliver for both our clients and shareholders for many years to come. I remain deeply passionate about the future of GQG and look forward to working together to build on the strong foundation we have created.

And now I will turn it over to Charles to give an overview of the 2025 financial results.

2026 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS – CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER'S REMARKS

MR. CHARLES FALCK, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

We were pleased with our financial results for 2025 and have seen good momentum into 2026. In 2025, GQG experienced strong growth. As summarized on page 3 and detailed further back, revenues increased 6.3% and amounted to US $808.3 million. Operating Income increased 7.6% and amounted to US $622.5 million. Note on page 7 we have also added some additional details on services rendered by our Independent Auditor. Those amounted to US $1.7 million in 2025, of which US $1.3 million was related to audit and related services, and the balance was for tax advice. We will be disclosing this information in our Proxy Statement going forward.

Net Income increased 7.3% and amounted to US $463.3 million. As Tim mentioned, earnings per share increased to 16 cents per share from 15 cents in the prior period. We continue with a high dividend payout ratio of 90% and recently announced our first quarter dividend of US 3.54 cents per share.

Commentary

- Net revenue increased primarily driven by an increase in management fees from growth in average FUM† from US$148.2 billion to US$164.3 billion, or 10.8%, partially offset by a decrease in fee realization from 49.6 basis points to 48.4 basis points year over year. The decrease in fee realization is primarily due to a shift in strategy and vehicle mix.
- Operating expenses increased due to higher compensation and third-party distribution expenses, partially offset by lower general and administrative expenses:
 - Compensation and benefits increased, primarily driven by an increase in average number of employees from 212 to 240, or 13.2%, year over year.
 - Third-party distribution, servicing and related fees increased, driven by growth in US mutual fund and UCITS FUM.
 - General and administrative decreased, primarily due to a decrease in legal, consulting and accounting advisory fees following the completion of PCS-related and other non-recurring projects in 2024; partially offset by an increase in occupancy, middle-office expenses, general business expenses, depreciation expense and non-income taxes.
 - The 2025 fees for professional services provided by our Independent Auditor KPMG amounted to US$1.7 million. Audit and related services amounted to US$1.3 million, and tax advice to US$0.4 million. The audit fees were approved by our Audit Committee. KPMG also provides services to some of our funds, which the Audit Committee was aware of and considered when evaluating the auditor’s independence.
 - Information technology and services increased, primarily due to investments in market research data providers.
- Non-operating income: modest change due to offsetting factors. 2024 gain on PCS was not recurring, and FX losses reversed to gains in 2025.
- Provision for income taxes increased in absolute and relative terms as a result of higher operating income and a change in effective tax rate to 26.7% from 26.5% due to changes in apportionment and state and local taxes.

Performance data is based on the firm's composite for the strategy. Performance presented prior to June 1, 2016 was achieved prior to the creation of the firm. The prior track record has been reviewed by Ashland Partners & Company, LLP and conforms to the portability requirements of the GIPS standards. On June 28, 2017, ACA Performance Services, LLC acquired the investment performance service business of Ashland Partners & Company, LLP. For periods after June 1, 2016, the composite consists of accounts managed by GQG pursuant to the strategy. Net returns are calculated by deducting GQG's stated annual management fee but not performance fees for separately managed accounts, pro-rated on a quarterly basis. Returns reflect the reinvestment of all income and the deduction of applicable foreign withholding taxes. Prior to April 1, 2017, returns reflect the impact of actual trading expenses and other administrative fees (custody, legal, admin, audit and organization fees). Thereafter, returns do not reflect the impact of these other administrative fees.

Past performance may not be indicative of future results. Performance may vary substantially from year to year or even from month to month. The value of investments can go down as well as up. Future performance may be lower or higher than the performance presented and may include the possibility of loss of principal.

GQG Partners LLC is a wholly owned subsidiary of GQG Partners Inc., a Delaware corporation that is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange.

INFORMATION ABOUT BENCHMARKS

MSCI benchmark returns have been obtained from MSCI, a non-affiliated third-party source. Neither MSCI nor any other party involved in or related to compiling, computing or creating the MSCI data makes any express or implied warranties or representations with respect to such data (or the results to be obtained by the use thereof), and all such parties hereby expressly disclaim all warranties of originality, accuracy, completeness, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose with respect to any of such data. Without limiting the foregoing, in no event shall MSCI, any of its affiliates or any third party involved in or related to compiling, computing, or creating the data have any liability for any direct, indirect, special, punitive, consequential or any other damages (including lost profits) even if notified of the possibility of such damages.

Net total return indices reinvest dividends after the deduction of withholding taxes, using (for international indices) a tax rate applicable to non-resident institutional investors who do not benefit from double taxation treaties.

Information about benchmark indices is provided to allow you to compare it to the performance of GQG strategies. Investors often use these well-known and widely recognised indices as one way to gauge the investment performance of an investment manager's strategy compared to investment sectors that correspond to the strategy. However, GQG's investment strategies are actively managed and not intended to replicate the performance of the indices: the performance and volatility of GQG's investment strategies may differ materially from the performance and volatility of their benchmark indices, and their holdings will differ significantly from the securities that comprise the indices. You cannot invest directly in indices, which do not take into account trading commissions and costs.

DEFINITIONS

Standard Deviation: A statistical measure of how much an investment's returns vary around its average over time. Higher standard deviation means returns have been more volatile and less predictable; lower means more consistent. It's commonly used to quantify investment risk.

Excess Return: The amount by which an investment's return is higher or lower than a benchmark return.

Alpha: The extra return a fund earns above what the market (or its benchmark) delivered, after adjusting for risk. Positive alpha means the manager added value; negative alpha means the fund underperformed. For example, alpha of +2% means the fund beat its benchmark by 2 percentage points, after adjusting for risk. measured as risk-adjusted excess returns over the benchmark.

Beta: A measure of how much a stock or fund moves relative to the overall market. A beta of 1.0 means it moves in line with the market; above 1.0 means it tends to swing more (higher risk/reward); below 1.0 means it tends to move less. A beta of -1.0 would mean it moves in the opposite direction.
