Charter Hall Social Infrastructure REIT (ASX:CQE) today announces changes to the Board of Charter Hall Social Infrastructure Limited (CHSIL), the responsible entity of CQE.

Greg Paramor has announced his decision to retire from the CHSIL Board effective today. Current Independent Non-Executive Director, Bevan Towing, has been appointed Chair. Greg stepped into the role of Chair of CQE following the sudden passing of long-term Chair Grant Hodgetts in order to provide immediate stability.

After a substantial period of service to the Board, Michael Johnstone has also announced his decision to retire as an Independent Non-Executive Director effective today. His vacancy will be filled by the appointment of Glenn Fraser, who joins the Board and will be appointed Chair of the Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee. Glenn is an accomplished professional Non-Executive Director with a long career in finance, infrastructure and property. He has served on the boards of a number of ASX-listed entities.

Mr Paramor said: "I joined the Board in 2023 on an interim basis following the passing of Mr Hodgetts and now hand over to Bevan as Chair. Having been a director for that same period, Bevan is well placed to assume this role. I have every confidence that Bevan and the Board will continue to deliver on CQE's strategy to provide stable and secure returns to its unitholders.

I congratulate Glenn on his appointment and thank Michael for his significant contribution to CQE over the past two decades, including in its evolution to become Australia's largest and most diversified Social Infrastructure REIT."
