Dear Sir/Madam

Request for voluntary suspension - Hejaz High Income Active ETF (HJHI)

Equity Trustees Limited (EQTL) as responsible entity and product issuer of Hejaz High Income Active ETF (HJHI) requests an immediate suspension of HJHI.

To assist in managing its continuous disclosure obligations, EQTL provides the following information:

1. The voluntary suspension is necessary due to a change of circumstances that have materially impacted the governance framework supporting HJHI. In the absence of appropriately functioning investment governance arrangements, EQTL considers that investment oversight is not currently operating at an acceptable level.
2. EQTL requests that the voluntary suspension remains in place until governance standards are restored to an acceptable level.
3. EQTL is not aware of any further information necessary to inform the market about the voluntary suspension.
4. EQTL is not aware of any reason why the voluntary suspension should not be granted.

Yours sincerely

Andrew Godfrey
