The WAM Alternative Assets (ASX: WMA) investment portfolio slightly increased in May, whilst the net tangible assets (NTA) decreased after expenses and fees. Investments held with private equity firm Fortitude Investment Partners (FIP) contributed to the investment portfolio performance.

During the month, WAM Alternative Assets received sale proceeds from units in condiment producer Birch and Waite, a long-standing private equity position held through investment partner FIP. WAM Alternative Assets has continued its partnership with FIP and have recently gained exposure to our newest private equity investment, FVS Services Group, within the Fortitude Fund.

FVS Services Group is a leading provider of fire testing, inspection, certification and compliance services for commercial and industrial customers. The company operates primarily across Queensland, Western Australia and the Northern Territory, working across government, commercial and industrial sectors. Operating within a highly regulated market with mandatory testing and inspection, FVS Services Group is well positioned as an established industry leader, with approximately 79% of its revenue from re-occurring customers. Significant route density within Queensland and Western Australia allows the business to provide expedited maintenance and testing of crucial fire equipment.

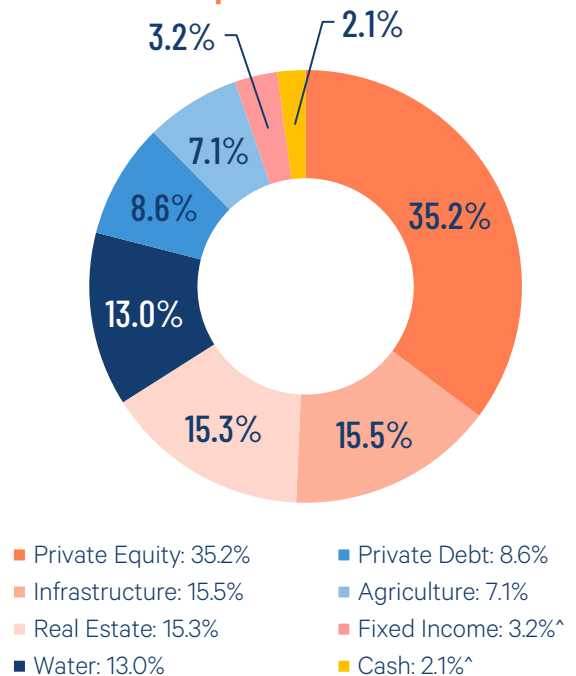

Led by an experienced management team, FIP is onboarding additional executive and non-executive capabilities, leading to further business enhancements. With five acquisitions made within the last five years and increasing regulatory complexity, the company is well positioned to capitalise on structural tailwinds and increase both its market share and earnings growth.
