

Killi Investor Webinar

Killi Resources (ASX: KLI) Director Hamish Halliday will host a live investor webinar on Wednesday June 24, 2026 commencing at 9am AWST / 11am AEST.

Mr Halliday will deliver a presentation focusing on the Company's recent acquisition of the Lodestone Iron Ore Project in WA.

Unlike virtually all the other iron ore mined in WA, Lodestone has the potential to produce a very high value concentrate uniquely suited for supplying the new generation of electric arc steel mills.

This unique characteristic, combined with the very low impurities, means Killi is well positioned to take advantage of a substantial price premium received for this high purity product.

As well as a substantial premium, Killi's costs will benefit from the plentiful supply of electricity and its easy access to the existing road and rail which goes straight to the Geraldton port.
