

Vale Nick Smart

Vintage Energy Ltd (ASX: VEN, “Vintage”), is sad to inform shareholders that Mr. Nicholas (Nick) Smart, a founder and long serving non-executive director of the company, passed away yesterday.

Mr. Smart served the company as a non-executive director of the company from its incorporation until ill-health necessitated his retirement in December 2024.

Vintage Chairman Reg Nelson said, “As a founder, director and supporter Nick was an important part of the Vintage team from its beginning. His loyal support and counsel were valued highly by the board as the company navigated its path from start-up to financing and first production. Moreover, Nick will be remembered most as an honourable and kind gentleman.

“On behalf of all shareholders and my fellow directors, I wish to acknowledge the contribution Nick made to Vintage and express our sympathy and condolences to his wife, Rossie, their daughters and their families on their loss.”

This release has been authorised on behalf of Vintage Energy Ltd by Mr Neil Gibbins, Managing Director.
