Hydrix enters the inflection zone as defence takes centre stage

Hydrix Limited (ASX: HYD) is pleased to share Nadine Blayney's (ausbiz news host) interview with Hydrix Executive Chairman Gavin Coote.

During the interview titled Hydrix enters the inflection zone as defence takes centre stage, Mr Coote discusses Hydrix's recent milestones that demonstrate growth initiatives are coming together:

- $6.5 million in contract sales secured during the June quarter, supporting the first-half FY27 revenue outlook, with 15 active clients representing approximately $37 million in potential future programs;
- strengthened the Company's balance sheet through $5.2 million raised to date and the commitments to convert a majority of debt into equity; and
- established Hydrix Defence as a catalyst for growth, leveraging Hydrix's advanced safety-critical systems engineering into IP ownership to capture longer-duration, high-value revenue streams.

Mr Coote also discusses recent DefenceTech contract wins with NIOA and Phasor Quantum, which provide early validation of Hydrix's capabilities in priority defence modernisation technology areas.
