Comments
Revenue for the current reporting period decreased by 44.3% to $8,160,569, primarily reflecting lower shipment volumes of the consolidated entity's EV charging products compared with the prior corresponding period.

The consolidated entity recorded a loss after income tax of $5,138,843 for the year ended 30 June 2026, compared with a loss of $783,792 in the prior corresponding period. The result included a provision of approximately $5.6 million for slow-moving and obsolete inventory.

In response to reduced trading activity, the consolidated entity implemented cost-management initiatives and continued to review its operating expenditure. Management also maintained its focus on working-capital management, inventory control and prudent expenditure to support liquidity and maintain operational flexibility.

At the same time, the consolidated entity continued to evaluate improvements to its existing product portfolio and potential new products in response to evolving customer requirements and opportunities in new market segments. Subject to technical feasibility, customer demand and commercial viability, these activities are intended to diversify the consolidated entity's product offering and support its longer-term strategic priorities.
