AUCyber Update on Payment for Outstanding Placement Subscription

AUCyber Limited (ASX: CYB) provides the following update in relation to the outstanding share subscription obligation under the placement agreement announced to the market on 20 September 2024 (Placement Agreement), and its subsequent update announcement.

As previously disclosed, Peerless Investments Pty Ltd as trustee for the Peerless Superannuation Fund, a company associated with former Managing Director and CEO Mr Peter Maloney, is obligated to pay $486,592 plus accrued interest pursuant to the Placement Agreement.

The Company previously advised that Mr Maloney had confirmed in writing his intention to make payment of the outstanding amount, with an initial payment expected by 31 July 2026 and full and complete payment of all amounts due by 31 August 2026.

The Company confirms that, as at 31 August 2026, payment of the outstanding amount has not been received in full. The Company received a partial payment of $50,000 in August 2026, and a further payment of $200,000 on 1 September 2026, bringing total payments received to date to $250,000. A balance of $236,592 plus accrued interest remains outstanding.

The Company is in contact with Mr Maloney regarding the outstanding balance and will provide a further update in due course.

Upon receipt of payment in full, the Company will issue the Subscription Shares in accordance with the terms of the Placement Agreement and as set out in the Company's announcement of 31 July 2026.

The Company will provide a further update upon receipt of full payment.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of AUCyber Limited.
