Aussie Broadband announces Jean-Baptiste Rousselot as Non-Executive Director

The Board of Aussie Broadband (ASX: ABB) is pleased to announce that Jean-Baptiste (JB) Rousselot will be joining the Board as Non-Executive Director, effective 6 October 2026.

With over 25 years of experience across telecommunications and digital infrastructure in Australia and New Zealand, JB's background combines strategy, operations, change and technology transformation, M&A and regulatory engagement in leadership roles.

More recently he was CEO of Chorus NZ where he oversaw deep system integration of Customer Relationship Management (CRM) systems and introduced key programs of work relating to AI. JB previously held C-suite roles at NBN Co where he has led large scale network rollouts and operational transformation supporting scaling. He also has board experience with FTR Holdings and the Telecommunications Forum NZ where he was a Non-Executive Director for 5 years and Chair for a year, among other roles.

JB is currently a Non-Executive Director at BAI Communications.

“JB brings deep expertise across the telecommunications sector with key executive roles at Telstra, NBN Co and Chorus that add valuable industry experience to the Board,” said Aussie Broadband Chair, Adrian Fitzpatrick.

“JB’s appointment comes at a time when Aussie Broadband is driving for organic and inorganic growth as we execute on our recent strategic acquisitions to deliver on our FY28 ambitions and beyond. We are delighted to welcome him to Aussie Broadband.”
