Review of 2020 Mineral Resource Report

Citigold Corporation Limited (“the Company”) advises that the Competent Person responsible for the Company’s Mineral Resources and Ore Reserves 2020 Charters Towers Gold Project report has commenced a review of that document. The review will include an assessment of the technical assumptions, geological interpretations, and reporting formats used in the 2020 document. At this stage, it is not possible to quantify any change to the Mineral Resource estimate, as the technical review process has only just commenced. The Company will provide an update to the market once the revised report is completed.
