Ventia secures Western Australia Court Security and Custodial Services contract extension

Ventia Services Group Limited (ASX: VNT) has secured a contract extension with the Government of Western Australia to continue providing Court Security and Custodial Services. Commencing in March 2027, the extension will continue through to June 2028 and is expected to generate approximately $110 million in revenue over the extension period.

Ventia Managing Director and Group Chief Executive Officer, Mark Ralston, said "We are pleased to continue our long-standing partnership with the Government of Western Australia and support the delivery of these essential services.

"Since 2017, our team has worked closely with the Department of Justice to respond to evolving operational requirements and increasing demand across the State's justice system.

"Our experienced workforce across metropolitan and regional Western Australia is well positioned to continue delivering these critical services, supporting the safe and effective operation of the justice system and the communities it serves."

Ventia provides Court Security and Custodial Services throughout Western Australia, including court security, court custody, transport, medical movements and support services.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Ventia Disclosure Committee.
