Extension to Voluntary Suspension Granted

BSA Limited (ASX: BSA) (Company) advises that ASX has granted an extension to the voluntary suspension of the Company's securities from the commencement of trading on Wednesday, 30 September 2026 pending an announcement in relation to a material acquisition, in respect of which the Company is in advanced negotiations.

The voluntary suspension will remain in place until the Company releases the announcement in relation to a material acquisition which it expects to make on or before market open on Thursday, 1 October 2026.

The Company confirms that it is not aware of any further information relevant to the voluntary suspension that is required to be disclosed to the market or that ASX has requested.

Authorised for release by the Board of Directors.
