Explanatory Notes

Explanatory Note 1: Re-election and election of Directors (Resolutions 1 & 2)

The NZX Listing Rules provide that a director of an issuer must not hold office (without re-election) past the third annual meeting following the director's appointment or three years, whichever is longer.

Accordingly, Kate Jorgensen who was last elected at the 2023 Annual Meeting, is retiring from office at this year's Annual Meeting and offers herself for re-election.

Ms Jorgensen is standing with the full support of the Board. The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of her re-election.

In addition, Paul Reid was appointed as a director by the Board effective as at 1 October 2026. The NZX Listing Rules provide that a director appointed by the Board during the year must not hold office (without election) past the next annual meeting following the director's appointment. The Board fully supports Mr Reid's appointment and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of his election.

The Board has determined that each of Ms Jorgensen and Mr Reid is an independent director.

A biographical background of each director standing for re-election and election is set out above.

Explanatory Note 2: Auditor fees and expenses (Resolution 3)

Following a formal tender and evaluation process at the end of 2025 involving six audit firms, KPMG were reappointed as Chorus' external auditors while we changed our co-source internal audit partner from PwC to EY. As KPMG are currently Chorus' external auditors, they will be automatically reappointed under the Companies Act 1993. Under the Companies Act, auditor fees and expenses must be fixed in the manner determined at the Annual Meeting. Shareholder approval is, therefore, sought to authorise the Board to fix the fees and expenses of KPMG as auditor.

Explanatory Note 3: Replacement of Chorus' constitution (Resolution 4)

As part of Chorus' demerger from Telecom Corporation of New Zealand Limited (now Spark New Zealand Limited) in 2011, ownership restrictions were included in a deed between Chorus and the Crown dated 11 November 2011 (Deed) which required Ministerial approval for ownership of more than 10% of Chorus' voting shares or over 49.9% if the proposed owner is not a New Zealand national. These ownership restrictions are also included in Chorus' constitution and have resulted in Chorus carrying a "non-standard" designation for the entirety of its listing on the NZX.

On 4 August 2026, Chorus and the Crown executed an unconditional variation to the Deed to enable the removal of the ownership restrictions from Chorus' constitution subject to the approval of 75% of the votes of those shareholders entitled to vote and voting.

It is proposed that Chorus' constitution be revoked and replaced with a constitution that:

- removes the ownership restrictions; and
- reflects a change to the NZX Listing Rules to provide more flexibility in the appointment of proxies (rather than being sent out with a notice of meeting, the NZX Listing Rules now allow proxy appointment forms to be made available and completed entirely online, if a listed issuer chooses to do so).

The non-standard designation was a condition of NZX Listing Rule waivers granted to permit the ownership restrictions in Chorus' constitution. If the replacement constitution is approved and the ownership restrictions are removed from Chorus' constitution, the waivers will cease to apply and NZX has agreed to remove Chorus' non-standard designation. This removal will take effect on the date the replacement constitution is adopted, being three business days following the Annual Meeting (Monday 9 November).

You may inspect a copy of the proposed replacement constitution (marked to show the changes from the existing constitution) at: company.chorus.co.nz/investors/services/your-shareholding/annual-meetings.

You may also request a copy of the proposed replacement constitution free of charge by contacting: company.secretary@chorus.co.nz.

Chapman Tripp has provided an opinion to NZX that it considers that the new constitution continues to comply with the NZX Listing Rules. The Directors recommend that shareholders vote to approve Resolution 4.
