About Minder®

Minder® is a minimally invasive implantable continuous EEG Monitoring (iCEM®) device that provides clinicians and patients with long-term, objective data on brain electrical activity. The system continuously records bilateral subscalp EEG and transmits data via an external wearable and smartphone application to a secure cloud platform. Patients wear the device during their normal daily activities, enabling real-world monitoring over months or years.

The Minder® System was authorised by the FDA via the de novo pathway and is being used in DETECT as a marketed device in a post-market study. The UMPIRE first-in-human multicentre trial, published in Epilepsia (2025), demonstrated Minder's safety and high-quality signal acquisition across extended monitoring periods.

About Epiminder

Founded in 2017 by Professor Mark Cook together with the Bionics Institute, St Vincent's Hospital, the University of Melbourne and Cochlear Limited, Epiminder is a medical device and information solutions company focused on developing diagnostic and treatment tools for epilepsy and other seizure disorders where continuous monitoring is required. Epiminder is headquartered in Melbourne, Australia and has offices in the United States.

2 Introduction

- 2.1 This Policy has been approved by the Board. The Board may approve any updates, amendments to and exemptions to this Policy from time to time. If this Policy conflicts with any other policy concerning this subject matter, this Policy prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.
- 2.2 The ordinary shares of the Company will be or are listed on the ASX. The Company aims to achieve the highest possible standards of corporate conduct and governance.
- 2.3 The purpose of this Policy is to ensure compliance with the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act, and to ensure that Relevant Persons are aware of the legal restrictions that exist on dealing in the Company's securities while such a person is in possession of inside information concerning the Company.
- 2.4 The Corporations Act and this Policy recognise that it is illegal for a person to deal in the Company's securities when he or she is in possession of inside information concerning the Company and that information has not been disclosed to the market or is not generally available. This is regardless of whether the terms of this Policy have been complied with.

- 2.5 To ensure that Relevant Persons do not inadvertently breach the insider trading laws, Relevant Persons are not permitted to deal in the Company's securities during certain periods determined by this Policy.
 - 2.6 It is the responsibility of each Relevant Person to comply with this Policy. Any non-compliance with this Policy will be considered serious misconduct.
 - 2.7 The restrictions set out in this Policy are in addition to any provisions governing or restricting the trading of securities set out in any agreement between the Company and a Relevant Person or a person holding securities in the Company or any provisions in the Company's employee incentive plans (if any). Where the provisions of an agreement between the Company and a Relevant Person or a person holding securities in the Company conflict with the provisions of this Policy, the most restrictive provisions will prevail.

3 Insider Trading

- 3.1 A person engages in insider trading if that person deals in securities of a relevant entity while possessing information that: (a) is not generally available; and (b) if it were available, may have a material effect on the price or value of the relevant entity's securities, and (c) the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the information is not generally available and, if it were, it might have a material effect on the price or value of the entity's securities. This type of information is commonly referred to as "price sensitive information" or "inside information".
- 3.2 Information is considered to have a material effect on the price or value of securities of a company if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, buy or sell those securities.
- 3.3 The prohibition against insider trading applies to: (a) direct trading in the Company's securities; (b) procuring another person to trade in the Company's securities; or (c) communicating price sensitive information to another person who is likely to trade in the Company's securities.
- 3.4 Insider trading is a criminal offence, punishable by substantial fines and/or imprisonment. The Company may in certain circumstances also be liable if a Relevant Person engages in insider trading. Insider trading may also attract civil liability, including liability to pay compensation to those who suffer loss or damage as a result of the insider trading.
- 3.5 The prohibitions against insider trading apply equally where inside information is held by a person about another listed company or entity. This may occur, for example, where in the course of negotiating a transaction with the Company, another listed entity provides confidential information about itself or another listed entity. Accordingly, if a person possesses inside information in relation to the securities of another listed entity, they must not take any of the actions specified in section 3.3 above in relation to those securities.
- 3.6 The requirements imposed by this Policy are separate from, and in addition to, the legal prohibitions on insider trading in Australia. Accordingly, under insider trading laws a person who possesses inside information may be prohibited from trading even where the trading may be permitted by this Policy.

4 Scope of Policy

- 4.1 This Policy extends to dealing in the securities of the Company by Relevant Persons.
- 4.2 This Policy does not restrict the following trading, which is excluded from this Policy for the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 12.12.3 and may be undertaken at any time (including during a Prohibited Period), provided the Relevant Person is not in possession of inside information:
- (a) transfers of securities of the Company which result in no change to the beneficial interest in the securities;
 - (b) transfers of securities of the Company between a Relevant Person and a related party of the Relevant Person;
 - (c) transfers of securities of the Company by a Relevant Person to his or her superannuation fund;
 - (d) undertakings to accept or the acceptance of, or a disposal of securities of the Company arising from, a takeover offer, scheme of arrangement or equal access buy-back;
 - (e) trading under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the securityholders, such as, a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan and an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the Board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue;
 - (f) a disposal of securities of the Company that is the result of a secured lender or financier exercising their rights under a loan agreement;
 - (g) an acquisition or disposal of securities of the Company under a pre-determined investment or divestment plan for which prior written approval has been provided by the Designated Officer and where:
 - (i) the Relevant Person entered into or amended the plan at a time that was not a Prohibited Period; and
 - (ii) the plan does not permit the Relevant Person to exercise any discretion over how, when or whether to acquire or dispose of securities of the Company; and
 - (h) an acquisition of securities of the Company under an employee incentive scheme.

5 Closed Periods

- 5.1 Subject to compliance with the procedure set out in section 6, Relevant Persons may deal in the Company's securities at any time other than during a Prohibited Period. No confirmation, resolution or other positive act of the Board is required before a Trading Window opens. The following are the Company's Closed Periods (each a Blackout Period):

- (a) the period commencing at the close of trading on 31 December and ending at 10.00am on the first trading day after the public announcement of the Company's half year financial results;
- (b) the period commencing at the close of trading on 30 June and ending at 10.00am on the first trading day after the public announcement of the Company's full year financial results;
- (c) where the Company is required to lodge quarterly reports with ASX, the period commencing at the close of trading on the day falling 14 days before the release of each quarterly report and ending at 10.00am on the first trading day after the release of that quarterly report; and
- (d) any additional period imposed by the Board under section 7, (collectively, the Closed Periods).

5.2 Subject to the terms of this Policy, dealing by Relevant Persons in the Company's securities is not permitted during a Prohibited Period. The Board may at any time impose an additional Prohibited Period under section 7 if circumstances change or the Board considers it appropriate, in which case the Company Secretary will notify all affected Relevant Persons in writing.

5.3 Notwithstanding any term of this Policy, no dealing in the Company's securities will be permitted at any time if that Relevant Person possesses (or is deemed to possess) any inside information.

5.4 Where the Company releases unaudited or preliminary financial information (including a quarterly report), the relevant Blackout Period ends on release of that information in accordance with section 5.1. Where the Board considers that the released information is materially incomplete, or that audited or further results still to be released may have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities, the Board must consider imposing an additional Prohibited Period under section 7 until those results have been released.

6 Pre-Dealing Procedure – clearance to deal

6.1 For all periods during which dealing in the Company's securities is permitted in accordance with this Policy, Relevant Persons must apply to the Company Secretary on behalf of the Designated Officer to deal in the securities of the Company. The application must be in writing (which, for the avoidance of doubt, can be made via email or other internal electronic system as the Company advises from time to time) in the form set out in the Schedule and submitted to the Company Secretary on behalf of the Designated Officer.

6.2 Relevant Persons, as part of their application, must confirm that they are not in possession of any price sensitive or inside information.

6.3 On receipt of an application under section 6.1, the Company Secretary shall procure that the Designated Officer considers the application. No dealing in the Company's securities may be undertaken before the Relevant Person receives the written approval of the Designated Officer (which may be refused or given subject to any conditions the Designated Officer determines reasonably necessary to comply with this Policy).

- 6.4 Any approval to deal in the Company's securities by a Relevant Person in accordance with section 6 is automatically deemed to be withdrawn if the Relevant Person becomes aware of any inside information prior to or during any approved dealing in the Company's securities.
- 6.5 Written approval given under this section 6 is valid for 5 business days from the date on which it is given, or such shorter period as the Designated Officer specifies in the approval. If the dealing has not been completed within that period, the approval lapses and a further application must be made.

7 Discretion to prohibit trading

In addition to the Closed Periods, the Board has the discretion to prohibit trading by any Relevant Person during any additional periods when the Company is considering matter that are subject to the exception to the continuous disclosure requirements set out in Listing Rule 3.1A (together with the Closed Periods, the "Prohibited Period").

8 Dealing during a Prohibited Period in exceptional circumstances

- 8.1 Relevant Persons may in exceptional circumstances apply to the Company Secretary on behalf of the Designated Officer for approval to deal in the Company's securities during a Prohibited Period, provided that the Relevant Person is not in possession of any inside information. The application must be in writing (which, for the avoidance of doubt, can be made via email or other internal electronic system as the Company advises from time to time) in the form set out in the Schedule and submitted to the Company Secretary on behalf of the Designated Officer.
- 8.2 On receipt of an application under section 8.1, the Company Secretary shall procure that the Designated Officer considers the application. No dealing in the Company's securities may be undertaken before the Relevant Person receives the written approval of the Designated Officer (which may be refused or given subject to any conditions the Designated Officer determines necessary to comply with this Policy).
- 8.3 The Designated Officer may grant the Relevant Person written permission to deal in the Company's securities during a Prohibited Period if the Designated Officer is satisfied (in its absolute discretion) that the Relevant Person's circumstances amount to exceptional circumstances. Exceptional circumstances may include, for example, severe financial hardship or compliance with a court order, undertaking or regulatory requirement.
- 8.4 If a Relevant Person receives written permission from the Designated Officer to deal in the Company's securities during a Prohibited Period, that permission will automatically expire (and no such dealing in the Company's securities may occur) on the date that is 5 business days after written permission has been granted by the Designated Officer.
- 8.5 The Designated Officer may refuse to grant permission to deal in the Company's securities in its absolute discretion and is not required to give any reasons for its decision. If permission is refused, the Relevant Person must keep that information confidential and not disclose it to any other person.
- 8.6 The Designated Officer's decision whether or not to permit dealing in the Company's securities is final and binding on the Relevant Person.

9 Maintenance of records

The Company Secretary will maintain a copy of:

- (a) all requests for an approval to deal in the Company's securities submitted by a Director or Relevant Person; and
- (b) details of all dealings in the Company's securities made by a Director or Key Management Person.

10 Other restrictions

10.1 Speculative trading

Directors and Relevant Persons must not engage in short-term or speculative trading in the Company's securities. This prohibition includes short term direct dealing in the Company's securities as well as transactions in the derivative markets involving exchange traded options, share warrants, contracts for difference and other similar instruments which are short term or speculative.

10.2 Prohibition on margin loans, hedging and security arrangements

Directors and Relevant Persons are prohibited from entering into:

- (a) a margin loan, risk hedging or other security arrangement in respect of the Company's securities; and
- (b) protection arrangements in respect of the Company's securities and any associated products, including any arrangement that limits the economic risk of security holdings in the Company over unvested entitlements or otherwise enables a Relevant Person to profit from a decrease in the market price of securities (e.g. short selling).

11 ASX Notifications

- 11.1 The Company must notify the ASX within 5 business days after any change to a Director's relevant interest in Company securities or a related body corporate, including whether the change occurred during a Prohibited Period and, if so, whether prior written clearance was provided.
- 11.2 To enable the Company to comply with the obligation set out in section 11.1, a Director must notify the Company Secretary, as soon as possible and no later than three business days, in writing of the requisite information for the Company Secretary to make the necessary notifications to the ASX and as required under the ASX Listing Rules.
- 11.3 If the Company makes a material change to this Policy, the amended Policy will be provided to the ASX for release to the market within 5 business days of the material change taking effect.

12 General

- 12.1 A breach of this Policy will be regarded seriously by the Company and may lead to disciplinary action, including but not limited to dismissal.

- 12.2 Any Director or Relevant Person who is unsure of the nature of the information that they have in their possession or whether they may deal in the Company's securities should contact the Company Secretary before dealing in any securities of the Company.
