As announced on 14 August 2026, the Company received firm commitments from professional and sophisticated investors to raise approximately $3,500,000 (before costs) through the issue of 777,777,778 Shares at an issue price of $0.0045 per Share, together with one (1) free-attaching listed option in the Company's existing quoted class (ASX: GLLD) (GLLD Options) for every one (1) Share subscribed for and issued (Placement).

Tranche 1 of the Placement, comprising 207,769,051 Shares, was issued on 25 August 2026 under the Company's available capacity under Listing Rule 7.1, and was the subject of the cleansing prospectus lodged with ASIC on 25 August 2026.

At the general meeting of Shareholders held on 29 September 2026 (General Meeting), the Company obtained Shareholder approval, amongst other things, to issue an aggregate of 612,966,347 Shares and 827,777,777 GLLD Options, as detailed below:

- (a) 539,633,015 Shares and 747,777,778 GLLD Options to unrelated new and existing professional and sophisticated investors who participated in the Placement (Placement Participants), on the basis of one (1) free-attaching GLLD Option for every one (1) Share subscribed for and issued under the Placement;
- (b) up to an aggregate of 29,999,999 Shares and 29,999,999 GLLD Options to those Directors and the Company Secretary (or their nominees), who elect to participate in the Placement, on the same terms as the unrelated Placement Participants, comprising:
 - (i) up to 4,444,444 Shares and 4,444,444 GLLD Options to Dale Hanna (or his nominee(s));
 - (ii) up to 2,222,222 Shares and 2,222,222 GLLD Options to Eduardo Robaina (or his nominee(s)); and
 - (iii) up to 23,333,333 Shares and 23,333,333 GLLD Options to Joseph Graham (or his nominee(s)); and
- (c) 43,333,333 Shares and 50,000,000 GLLD Options to CPS Capital Group Pty Ltd (CPS Capital) (or its nominee(s)), in part consideration for lead manager services provided in connection with the Placement.

Further details in respect of these issues of Securities are set out in the notice of general meeting released to the Company's ASX platform (ASX: GLL) on 31 August 2026

(Notice of Meeting). Refer to Section 4 for the full terms and conditions of the Securities offered pursuant to this Prospectus.

The Shares issued under tranche 2 of the Placement, the Shares issued to the Directors and the Company Secretary (or their nominees) and the Shares issued to CPS Capital (or its nominees) will be issued after the Opening Date but prior to the Closing Date. Those Shares are in the same class as the Shares offered under the Cleansing Offer and are accordingly cleansed by this Prospectus for the purposes of section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act. The GLLD Options are in a separate class and are therefore themselves the subject of the Placement Offer, the Director Offer and the Lead Manager Offer.

If all GLLD Options the subject of the Offers are issued and exercised, the Company will receive a further $9,105,555.

1.3 Lead Manager Mandate

On 31 July 2026, the Company entered into a mandate to engage CPS Capital to act as the lead manager, broker and corporate advisor to the Placement (Lead Manager Mandate). Under the Lead Manager Mandate, in consideration for the provision of services, the Company agreed to:

- (a) pay CPS Capital a management fee of 2% (plus GST where applicable) of the gross proceeds of the Placement (Management Fee), and a placement fee of 4% (plus GST where applicable) of the gross proceeds of the Placement (Placement Fee), each payable in cash or Securities at the election of CPS Capital;
- (b) by negotiation, CPS Capital may be liable to pay a placing fee to third parties, of up to 4% out of the Placement Fee referred to at (a);
- (c) issue 50,000,000 GLLD Options to CPS Capital (or its nominee(s)) at an issue price of $0.00001 per GLLD Option;
- (d) issue 25,000,000 Shares to CPS Capital (or its nominee(s)) at an issue price of $0.00001 per Share; and
- (e) pay a monthly corporate advisory fee of AUD$6,500 (plus GST), payable in cash for a minimum term of 12 months from the date of the Lead Manager Mandate.

The Lead Manager Mandate is otherwise on standard terms and conditions for an agreement of its nature.

CPS Capital has elected to receive $82,500 worth of its fees (being a combination of the Management Fee and the Placement Fee) in Shares (at the same issue price as the Placement), being 18,333,333 Shares. CPS Capital will also be paid $127,500 in cash fees.

Accordingly, CPS Capital is entitled to an aggregate of 43,333,333 Shares (Broker Shares) and 50,000,000 GLLD Options, the issue of which was approved by Shareholders at the General Meeting.

1.4 Vested Performance Rights

The Company has received exercise notices from Directors and the Company Secretary for the following vested Performance Rights:

- (a) 6,000,000 Performance Rights held indirectly by Mr Joseph Graham;
- (b) 6,000,000 Performance Rights held indirectly by Mr Dale Hanna;
- (c) 6,000,000 Performance Rights held indirectly by Mr Troy Warrick; and
- (d) 6,000,000 Performance Rights held indirectly by Mr Eduardo Robaina, (together, the Vested Performance Rights).

The Company intends to issue 24,000,000 Shares on conversion of the Vested Performance Rights (Conversion Shares) prior to the Closing Date. The Conversion Shares are not offered under this Prospectus but, being in the same class as the Shares offered under the Cleansing Offer, may be on-sold without disclosure in reliance on section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act.

2. DETAILS OF THE OFFERS

2.1 The Cleansing Offer

Pursuant to this Prospectus, the Company invites investors identified by the Directors to apply for up to 10,000 Shares at an issue price of $0.0045 per Share, to raise up to $45.00 (before expenses) (Cleansing Offer).

The Cleansing Offer will only be extended and Application Forms will only be provided to specific parties on invitation from the Directors.

All of the Shares offered under the Cleansing Offer will rank equally with the Shares on issue at the date of this Prospectus. Please refer to Section 4 for further information regarding the rights and liabilities attaching to the Shares.

2.2 The Placement Offer

The Placement Offer is an offer of 747,777,778 GLLD Options for nil cash consideration to the Placement Participants (or their nominee(s)), on the basis of one (1) free-attaching GLLD Option for every one (1) Share subscribed for and issued under the Placement.

The GLLD Options offered under the Placement Offer will be issued on the terms and conditions set out in Section 4.2 and will rank equally with, and form part of, the Company's existing quoted class of Options (ASX: GLLD).

All Shares issued on exercise of the GLLD Options offered under the Placement Offer will rank equally with the Shares on issue at the date of this Prospectus.

Only the Placement Participants (or their nominee(s)) may accept the Placement Offer. Application Forms in respect of the Placement Offer will only be provided by the Company to the Placement Participants (or their nominee(s)), together with a copy of this Prospectus. The number of GLLD Options to which each Placement Participant is entitled is shown on the personalised Application Form which accompanies this Prospectus.

2.3 The Director Offer

The Director Offer is an offer of up to 29,999,999 GLLD Options, in aggregate, for nil cash consideration to those Directors and the Company Secretary (or their nominee(s)), who have elected to participate in the Placement on the same terms as the unrelated Placement Participants, up to the maximum number of GLLD Options as approved at the General Meeting, set out for each of them in Section 1.2(b).

The GLLD Options offered under the Director Offer will be issued on the terms and conditions set out in Section 4.2 and will rank equally with, and form part of, the Company's existing quoted class of Options (ASX: GLLD).

Only the Directors and the Company Secretary (or their nominee(s)) may accept the Director Offer. Application Forms in respect of the Director Offer will only be provided by the Company to the Directors and the Company Secretary (or their nominee(s)), together with a copy of this Prospectus.

2.4 The Lead Manager Offer

The Lead Manager Offer is an offer of 50,000,000 GLLD Options at an issue price of $0.00001 per GLLD Option to CPS Capital (or its nominee(s)), in part consideration for lead manager services provided in connection with the Placement. The Company will receive $500 for the issue of those GLLD Options, and the balance of the consideration comprises the lead manager services provided under the Lead Manager Mandate, a summary of the material terms of which is set out in Section 1.3.

The GLLD Options offered under the Lead Manager Offer will be issued on the terms and conditions set out in Section 4.2 and will rank equally with, and form part of, the Company's existing quoted class of Options (ASX: GLLD).

Only CPS Capital (or its nominee(s)) may accept the Lead Manager Offer. Application Forms in respect of the Lead Manager Offer will only be provided by the Company to CPS Capital (or its nominee(s)), together with a copy of this Prospectus.

2.5 Objective of the Offers

The primary purpose of the Offers is to issue the Securities to the Placement Participants, the Directors and CPS Capital as approved by Shareholders at the General Meeting, and to remove any trading restrictions that may otherwise have attached to those Securities, and to the Conversion Shares and any Shares issued on exercise of the GLLD Options, under Chapter 6D of the Corporations Act. Accordingly, the Company is seeking to raise only a nominal amount under the Offers, as the purpose of this Prospectus is not to raise capital.

The Company is not able to give a notice under section 708A(5)(e) of the Corporations Act in respect of the Securities, as trading in the Company's securities has been suspended for more than a total of 5 trading days within the 12 month period preceding the date of issue of the Securities. Accordingly, the Securities are being offered and issued under this Prospectus.

The Company confirms that:

- (a) the Securities offered pursuant to the Offers are being issued with disclosure under this Prospectus (which is a disclosure document under Part 6D.2 of the Corporations Act), such that section 707(3) of the Corporations Act does not apply to those Securities; and
- (b) the Offers are being made such that the relief under ASIC Corporations (Sale Offers That Do Not Need Disclosure) Instrument 2026/94 with respect to the on-sale provisions of section 707 of the Corporations Act is available in respect of Shares issued on exercise of the GLLD Options offered under this Prospectus.

Relevantly, section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act provides that a sale offer does not need disclosure to investors if:

- (a) the relevant securities are in a class of securities that are quoted securities of the body; and
- (b) either:
 - (i) a prospectus is lodged with the ASIC on or after the day on which the relevant securities were issued but before the day on which the sale offer is made; or
 - (ii) a prospectus is lodged with ASIC before the day on which the relevant securities are issued and offers of securities that have been made under the prospectus are still open for acceptance on the day on which the relevant securities were issued; and
- (c) the prospectus is for an offer of securities issued by the body that are in the same class of securities as the relevant securities.

Accordingly, the requirements of section 708A(11) are satisfied in respect of Shares issued by the Company before the Closing Date, including the Shares referred to in Section 1.2 and the Conversion Shares.

The GLLD Options are issued under, and with disclosure in, this Prospectus.

3.4 Pro-forma balance sheet

The balance sheet as at 30 June 2026 shown below has been prepared on the basis of the accounting policies normally adopted by the Company and reflects the changes to its financial position resulting from the sale of the Company's Glenaras Project, the Placement, the conversion of the Vested Performance Rights and the Offers.

The pro-forma balance sheet has been prepared for illustrative purposes for inclusion in the Prospectus, has been derived from the audited balance sheet as at 30 June 2026, assuming the completion of the pro forma adjustments as set out in the notes to the pro-forma balance sheets as if those adjustments had occurred as at 5 October 2026 and including expenses of the Offers.

The pro-forma balance sheet has been prepared to provide investors with information on the assets and liabilities of the Company and pro-forma assets and liabilities of the Company as noted below. The historical and pro-forma financial information is presented in an abbreviated form, insofar as it does not include all of the disclosures required by Australian Accounting Standards applicable to annual financial statements.

The historical financial information set out in the column headed 'Audited as at 30 June 2026' has been extracted from the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2026, which were audited by BDO Audit Pty Ltd and released to the Company's ASX platform (ASX: GLL) on 4 September 2026. The pro-forma financial information has not been audited or reviewed. Investors should note that past performance is not a guide to future performance.

The independent auditor's report in respect of those financial statements was not modified, but included a material uncertainty related to going concern paragraph, drawing attention to the events and conditions described in note 2 to those financial statements which give rise to a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Investors should read that report, and the risk factors set out in Section 5, in conjunction with the financial information set out in this Section.

4. RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES ATTACHING TO SECURITIES

4.1 Shares

The following is a summary of the more significant rights and liabilities attaching to Shares being offered pursuant to this Prospectus, and to Shares issued on exercise of the GLLD Options offered pursuant to this Prospectus. This summary is not exhaustive and does not constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of Shareholders. To obtain such a statement, persons should seek independent legal advice.

Full details of the rights and liabilities attaching to Shares are set out in the Constitution, a copy of which is available for inspection at the Company's registered office during normal business hours.

(a) General meetings

Shareholders are entitled to be present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company. The Company's constitution permits the use of technology at general meetings of shareholders to the extent permitted under the Corporations Act, Listing Rules and applicable law.

Shareholders may requisition meetings in accordance with section 249D of the Corporations Act and the Constitution of the Company.

(b) Voting rights

At a general meeting every Shareholder present in person or by proxy, attorney or body corporate representative has one vote on a show of hands and every Shareholder present in person or by proxy, attorney or body corporate representative has one vote for each Share on a poll.

The Constitution enables the Board to determine that Shareholders who are entitled to attend and vote at a meeting may do so by way of direct vote and to prescribe regulations, rules and procedures regarding such direct votes.

(c) Dividend rights

Dividends are declared by the Directors at their discretion and are paid to Shareholders according to their rights and interest in the profits at the time of entitlement to the dividend.

(d) Winding-up

If the Company is wound up, the liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, divide among the Shareholders in kind the whole or any part of the property of the Company, and may for that purpose set such value as he considers fair upon any property to be so divided, and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between the Shareholders or different classes of Shareholders.

The liquidator may, with the authority of a special resolution, vest the whole or any part of any such property in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributories as the liquidator thinks fit, but so that no Shareholder is compelled to accept any shares or other securities in respect of which there is any liability.

(e) Shareholder liability

As the Shares issued will be fully paid shares, they will not be subject to any calls for money by the Directors and will therefore not become liable for forfeiture.

(f) Transfer of shares

Generally, the Directors will not refuse to register a transfer unless the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, ASX Listing Rules or the Constitution permit it to do so, the transfer of Shares is inconsistent with the Share transfer requirements outlined within the Constitution, the transfer would result in more than three persons being registered as joint holders or the Company has a lien on the Shares.

(g) Variation of rights

The rights and privileges attaching to a class of Shares, unless their terms of issue state otherwise, can be altered by a special resolution of Shareholders and either:

- (i) by special resolution passed at a meeting of the members holding Shares in that class; or
- (ii) by the written consent of Shareholders with at least 75% of the votes in that Share class.

A special resolution is a resolution passed by a majority of not less than 75% of those entitled to vote on the resolution.

(h) Alteration of Constitution

The Constitution can only be amended by a special resolution passed by at least three quarters of Shareholders present and voting at the general meeting. A special resolution is a resolution passed by a majority of not less than 75% of those entitled to vote on the resolution.

5. RISK FACTORS

5.1 Introduction

The Securities offered under this Prospectus should be considered as highly speculative and an investment in the Company is not risk free.

The Directors strongly recommend that prospective investors consider the risk factors set out in this Section 5, together with information contained in this Prospectus.

The future performance of the Company and the value of the Securities may be influenced by a range of factors, many of which are largely beyond the control of the Company and the Directors. The key risks associated with the Company's business, the industry in which it operates and general risks applicable to all investments in listed securities and financial markets generally are described below.

The risk factors set out in this Section 5, or other risk factors not specifically referred to, may have a materially adverse impact on the performance of the Company and the value of the Shares. This Section 5 is not intended to provide an exhaustive list of the risk factors to which the Company is exposed.

If you do not understand any matters contained in this Prospectus or have any queries about whether to invest in the Company, you should consult your accountant, financial adviser, stockbroker, lawyer or other professional adviser.

5.2 Company specific

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
Oil and Gas Flow Rates	The rate at which oil and gas flows from the Company's wells will be a key determinant of its future profitability and success. The Company is undertaking a sidetrack of the Zydeco-1 well in Acadia Parish, Louisiana, USA, which as announced on 24 September 2026 commenced on 28 September 2026 using the drilling rig already on site. The sidetrack will target five prospective shallow oil zones identified from the original Zydeco-1 wellbore, being the Borsum, Richie, Discorbis gravelli, First Het and Homeseeker B sands. The deeper Stafford and Tweedel gas-condensate objectives remain potential targets for a dedicated future well. There is no certainty that any of these targets will produce oil, gas or condensate at commercially viable flow rates. The Company's prospective resource estimates are unrisks and no resource estimate has been attributed to the Stafford interval. If commercially viable flow rates are not achieved, the Company may be required to undertake further drilling or other remedial steps, resulting in additional expenditure and potentially further funding requirements.
Other Exploration Risk	Key to the Company's financial performance is to have success in exploring for and locating commercially exploitable hydrocarbons. Exploration is subject to various technical risks and uncertainty of outcome. Even if the Company is able to generate an acceptable gas flow rate, there is no assurance that expenditure on activities will result in any or sufficient hydrocarbon reserves and resources that can be commercially, socially or economically exploited, which would adversely impact the financial performance of the Company.
Funding Risk	The Company is an oil and gas exploration company and currently relies on external funding to progress and implement its objectives. Development of gas reserves and resources require significant capital and operational expenditure. The Company's capital requirements depend on numerous factors, including the success of its planned exploration programs, the future exploration programs for its projects, the Company's ability to generate income from its operations and possible acquisitions or other corporate opportunities. Any future capital raising could result in dilution to existing Shareholders, depending on the nature of the capital raising (whether it is via debt or equity). Further, there is no guarantee that any future funding required by the Company would be available or on terms acceptable to the Company. If funding is not available on terms acceptable to the Company, it may need to scale back its exploration programs, which may impact adversely on the Company, or it may not be able to secure opportunities to acquire new projects or other corporate opportunities. As at 30 June 2026, the Company's cash position was approximately $2.20 million. The Company has incurred significant expenditure on the Zydeco-1 drilling program (approximately $4.682 million during the June 2026 quarter). As announced on 24 September 2026, the Company expects the sidetrack and oil testing program to be funded from the proceeds of the Placement, with no additional funding currently anticipated for that program. There is nevertheless a risk that the cost of the sidetrack and testing program exceeds the Company's current estimates, or that the Company requires further funding to pursue its objectives beyond that program, and that any such funding is not available on terms acceptable to the Company. The Company's audited financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2026 record net operating cash outflows of $6,562,167 and a loss after tax of $5,417,361 for that year, and disclose a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt over the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The independent auditor's report in respect of those financial statements included a material uncertainty related to going concern paragraph. Refer to Section 3.4.

Development Risk	Oil and gas development is a high risk undertaking and successful development cannot be guaranteed. The Company's financial performance will substantially depend on the accuracy of its sub-surface analysis, the production flow rates achieved and from cost estimates for its exploration well, project development costs and production facilities activities, working capital requirements and the duration of its works program. Due to individual prospect geological risk there can be no assurance that the Company's exploration activities, projects, tenements or databases that the Company holds or may acquire in future, will result in profitable outcomes for the Company. In the event that the Company's exploration and development proves to be unsuccessful, this could lead to a diminution in value of its projects, a reduction in the cash reserves of the Company and the possible relinquishment of one or more of its tenements.
Operational Risk	The business of oil & gas exploration, development and production, by its nature, involves significant risks. The business depends on, amongst other things, successful exploration and identification of resources and reserves, geological conditions, security of tenure, the availability of adequate funding, satisfactory performance of drilling operations, limitations on activities due to inclement weather or seasonal weather patterns, availability and cost of consumables and plant and equipment (including drilling rigs and other necessary machinery to undertake exploration, development and production) and skilled labour when required.

	The Company's Zydeco-1 well in Louisiana, USA experienced a mechanical interruption during drilling when drill pipe became stuck at a measured depth of 9,393 feet within the open-hole section. The Company determined that a sidetrack from the existing wellbore was required to complete the planned geological evaluation. The sidetrack commenced on 28 September 2026. While existing surface casing, the wellhead and drilling pad infrastructure remain intact and available for reuse, the sidetrack introduces additional operational risks including the possibility of further mechanical failure, cost overruns, delays in securing contractor availability, and the risk that the sidetrack may not successfully reach or evaluate all five of the target shallow oil intervals. The Company's operations in Louisiana are also subject to the risks associated with conducting drilling operations in a foreign jurisdiction, including reliance on third-party US-based drilling contractors (RFC Drilling, LLC) and technical consultants.
Foreign Operations Risk	The Company's Zydeco Oil & Gas Project is located in Acadia Parish, Louisiana, USA. The Company's operations in the United States expose it to risks associated with operating in a foreign jurisdiction, including compliance with US federal and Louisiana state laws and regulations governing oil and gas exploration and production, environmental protection, land access, taxation and employment. The Company is subject to US tax obligations and potential withholding requirements in addition to its Australian tax obligations. Changes to US federal or state legislation, regulatory policy or the interpretation of existing laws could adversely affect the Company's operations and financial performance. The Company's US operations are also exposed to political, economic and social risks specific to the United States, and to currency risk arising from expenditure denominated in US dollars.
Glenaras Divestment and Royalty Risk	On 31 July 2026, the Company announced that it had entered into a binding Share Sale Agreement with Novus Energy Production Company Pty Ltd for the sale of 100% of the issued capital of Galilee Resources Pty Ltd, which holds the Glenaras Gas Project (comprising ATP 2019 and its associated environmental authority) in Queensland's Galilee Basin. Completion of the Glenaras Sale occurred on 2 September 2026. As a consequence of the Glenaras Sale, the Company no longer holds any interest in the Glenaras Gas Project and its operating activities are now concentrated on the Zydeco Oil & Gas Project. The Company no longer controls the funding, development or operation of the Glenaras Gas Project. Its remaining exposure to the future success of that project is limited to a 2% net overriding royalty (after accounting for a 1% royalty payable to the Company's financial adviser on the transaction), the reimbursement of approximately A$1.34 million of cash-backed security deposits and deferred cash consideration of up to A$500,000, which is contingent on the Purchaser achieving an agreed financing milestone.
Reliance on the Zydeco Oil & Gas Project	Following completion of the Glenaras Sale, the Company's exploration and development activities are concentrated on the Zydeco Oil & Gas Project. The Company no longer has the benefit of a diversified portfolio of projects, and the value of the Shares is therefore substantially dependent on the outcome of the Zydeco-1 sidetrack and testing program and on the Company's ability to progress that project towards production. Any adverse event affecting the Zydeco Oil & Gas Project, including those described above, will have a proportionately greater effect on the Company than would have been the case before the Glenaras Sale. There is no certainty that the Company will acquire or develop further projects.

5.3 Industry specific

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
Gas Markets Risk	The Company's possible future revenues are expected to be derived from domestic and/or export gas sales, including from the Springsure Project (ATP 2050). The profitability of the Company's Australian gas business will be determined by the future market for domestic and export gas. LNG prices are generally linked to oil price and in US dollars, and can vary significantly depending on oil prices, exchange rates, worldwide LNG supply and demand and the terms under which LNG off-take arrangements are agreed. Domestic gas prices are historically fixed prices typically under long term contracts with a percentage escalation of CPI, and may also vary due to various economic factors and factors which influence demand and supply at the time of contracting. There is also a spot domestic gas market with spot prices typically reflective of netback LNG plus other domestic supply/consumption influences. Numerous factors outside the control of the Company impact on gas prices. The prices required to achieve adequate returns on the Company's conventional gas business at Springsure will vary depending on cost of production including drilling costs, economies of scale and gas flow rates. Any substantial decline in the price of gas is likely to have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Company. The Company's Zydeco Oil & Gas Project in Louisiana, USA is targeting shallow oil, together with deeper conventional gas and condensate objectives. Revenue from US operations, if achieved, will be subject to US Gulf Coast crude oil, natural gas and condensate pricing, which is influenced by international crude oil benchmarks, Henry Hub benchmark gas prices and Gulf Coast condensate pricing. These prices are denominated in US dollars and are subject to different supply, demand and regulatory dynamics than the Australian domestic gas market.
Reserve and Resource Estimates	Estimating hydrocarbon reserves and resources is subject to significant uncertainties associated with technical data and interpretation of that data, future commodity process and development and operating costs. Resource and reserve estimates are expressions of judgement based on knowledge, experience and industry practice. While these estimates may be appropriate when made, they may change significantly when new information or techniques become available. There are risks associated with such estimates. Resource estimates depend to some extent on interpretations, which may prove to be inaccurate and require adjustment. Adjustments to resource estimates could affect the Company's future plans and ultimately its financial performance and value. There can also be no assurance that the Company's resources will successfully be converted into reserves, or that the Company will be able to produce the volume of reserves that it estimates are contained within its projects.

	In relation to the Zydeco Oil & Gas Project, the Company's current gross unrisks prospective resource estimate is up to 13.7 Bcf of gas and 1,033,000 barrels of oil (3U high case, before royalties), comprising the five shallow oil sands to be evaluated by the sidetrack and the deeper Upper and Lower Tweedel objectives, as set out in the Company's announcement dated 24 September 2026. No prospective resource estimate has been attributed to the Stafford interval identified during drilling. These estimates are unrisks and have not been adjusted for chance of discovery or chance of development, which the Company assesses to be 65%. The drilling of the Zydeco-1 sidetrack will determine the existence of a commercial quantity of potentially moveable hydrocarbons.
Drilling and Completion Techniques Risk	The Company may use horizontal drilling in its exploration and development activities. The use of these drilling technologies may be necessary for the production of commercial quantities of gas from geological formations of the type that the Company is targeting. There has been an increase in interest by governments and the public in various drilling techniques used in the oil and gas industry and the enactment of any new laws, regulations or requirements by any relevant government authority in respect of drilling techniques could result in operational delays, increased operational costs and potential claims from a third party or governmental authority. Restrictions on the use of drilling technologies or techniques may reduce the amount of gas the Company can produce and may have a material impact on the Company's business. The Company's Zydeco-1 well utilises directional drilling techniques and, following the mechanical interruption of the original wellbore, requires a sidetrack, which commenced on 28 September 2026, and involves a kick-off from the existing casing at approximately 2,760 feet. Sidetrack drilling involves specific technical risks including cementing and casing integrity at the kick-off point, directional control through new formation, and the risk of encountering lost-circulation zones similar to those experienced in the original hole. The revised well design includes a shallower casing point intended to mitigate the lost-circulation issues previously encountered, however there is no assurance this will be effective.
Infrastructure Risk	Infrastructure is a key path to market for a gas producer and any limitation of infrastructure exposes a producer to potential cost and capacity constraints. Discoveries in remote locations may be difficult and expensive to commercialise due to infrastructure and transport costs. Sharing with other industry participants of transport and operating infrastructure is common in the gas sector. Any delay or failure to access properly maintained operating infrastructure or shared facilities may have a material adverse effect on the Company.
Personnel Risk	The Directors are primarily responsible for overseeing the operations and the strategic management of the Company. The day-to-day operations of the Company are the responsibility of the Managing Director, assisted by the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer and technical staff. There can be no assurance that there will be no detrimental impact on the Company if one or more of the Directors, particularly the Managing Director, no longer act as Directors of the Company, or if the employment outlook for geologists, engineers and other petroleum oil and gas industry specialists remains tight or further tightens for any reason.

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
Environmental Risk	The Company's operations and projects are subject to state and federal laws and regulation regarding the environment. These laws and regulations set various standards regulating certain aspects of health and environmental quality and provide for penalties and other liabilities for the violation of such standards and establish, in certain circumstances, obligations to remediate current and former facilities and locations where operations are or were conducted. Significant liability could be imposed on the Company for damages, clean-up costs, or penalties in the event of certain discharges into the environment, environmental damage caused by previous owners of property acquired by the Company, or noncompliance with environmental laws or regulations. The Company proposes to minimise these risks by conducting its activities in an environmentally responsible manner, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and where possible, by carrying appropriate insurance coverage.
Tenement Risk	The Company's exploration and appraisal activities are dependent upon the grant and maintenance of appropriate licences, permits, resource consents, access arrangements and regulatory authorities (Authorisations), which may not be granted or may be withdrawn or made subject to limitations at the discretion of government or regulatory authorities. Although the Authorisations may be renewed following expiry or granted (as the case may be), and the Company is not aware of any reason why they would not be granted, there can be no assurances the authorisations will be continued, renewed or granted, or as to the terms of such renewals or grants. In relation to the Company's US operations, the Zydeco Oil & Gas Project comprises mineral leases over 325.3 acres in Acadia Parish, Louisiana. These leases are subject to the terms and conditions imposed by the lessors and applicable Louisiana state law. The Company holds a 100% working interest and a 70% net revenue interest in the project, with the balance representing royalty obligations to the lessors. There is a risk that mineral leases may not be renewed or extended on acceptable terms, or that the Company may not comply with the conditions of its leases, which could result in forfeiture of its interest in the project.
Legislation and Regulatory Risk	The Company's activities in the petroleum industry are subject to legislation, regulation and approvals. The introduction of new legislation, amendments to existing legislation, the application of developments in existing common law or policies or the interpretation of those laws or policies, particularly in relation to, land access arrangements, environmental approvals, the carbon tax or its substitute, the effect of greenhouse gases legislation, royalties and production and exploration licensing may adversely affect the Company's future operations and financial performance. The Company will, from time to time, require various government regulatory approvals for its transactions and operations and must comply with those approvals, applicable laws, regulations and policies. In particular, the Company may require licences and approvals in relation to mining activities, environmental matters and the manufacture and supply of gas and electricity. There is a risk that the Company or a joint venture that it is a party to may not obtain, or there may be a delay in obtaining, the necessary licences and approvals. This may affect the timing and scope of transactions and work that can be undertaken. Further, a failure to comply with a licence, approval or applicable law may affect the timing and scope of work that can be done. The loss of granted tenements or failure to obtain relevant approvals in relation to them may have a material adverse effect on the Company. By way of example, in the context of the current political environment, the introduction of legislation that further restricts or inhibits gas exploration and production, changes to strategic cropping, native title, land access or overlapping tenement arrangements or the introduction of legislation that restricts or inhibits exploration and production would likely operate to the Company's detriment. The Company's Zydeco Project in Louisiana, USA is subject to US federal and Louisiana state legislation and regulation governing oil and gas exploration, drilling, production, environmental protection, well abandonment and remediation. The Company must comply with permits and approvals issued by Louisiana state regulatory authorities, including the Louisiana Department of Natural Resources. Changes to US federal or Louisiana state laws, regulations or their interpretation could adversely affect the Company's US operations and financial performance.

Occupational Health and Safety Risk	Gas exploration and production may expose the Company's staff to potentially dangerous working environments. If any of the Company's employees suffered injury or death, compensation payments or fines may be payable and such circumstances could result in the loss of a licence or permit required to carry on the business.
Climate Risk	There are a number of climate-related factors that may affect the operations and proposed activities of the Company. The climate change risks particularly attributable to Company include: (a) the emergence of new or expanded regulations associated with the transitioning to a lower-carbon economy and market changes related to climate change mitigation. Company may be impacted by changes to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, or by specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage. These examples sit amongst an array of possible restraints on industry that may further impact the Company and its profitability. While the Company will endeavour to manage these risks and limit any consequential impacts, there can be no guarantee that the Company will not be impacted by these occurrences; and (b) climate change may cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by the Company, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns and incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate patterns. All these risks associated with climate change may significantly change the industry in which the Company operates.
Community and Social Risk	While the Company has good relations with the local landowners on whose land it operates, there is a risk that wider community disapproval of oil and gas activities may lead to direct action which impedes the Company's ability to carry out its lawful operations, resulting in project delay, reputational damage and increased costs and thus impact the financial performance of the Company.

General risks

RISK CATEGORY	RISK
Economic	General economic conditions, introduction of tax reform, new legislation, movements in interest and inflation rates and currency exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the Company, as well as on its ability to fund its operations. If activities cannot be funded, there is a risk that the tenements comprising the Company's projects may have to be surrendered or not renewed. General economic conditions may also affect the value of the Company and its valuation regardless of its actual performance.
Competition Risk	The industry in which the Company will be involved is subject to domestic and global competition. Although the Company will undertake all reasonable due diligence in its business decisions and operations, the Company will have no influence or control over the activities or actions of its competitors, which activities or actions may, positively or negatively, affect the operating and financial performance of the Company's projects and business.
Market Conditions	Share market conditions may affect the value of the Company's Shares regardless of the Company's operating performance. Share market conditions are affected by many factors such as: (a) general economic outlook; (b) introduction of tax reform or other new legislation; (c) interest rates and inflation rates; (d) changes in investor sentiment toward particular market sectors; (e) the demand for, and supply of, capital; and (f) terrorism or other hostilities. The market price of Shares can fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities in general and resource exploration stocks in particular. Neither the Company nor the Directors warrant the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company.
Commodity Price Volatility and Exchange Rate Risks	The Company's operating results, economic and financial prospects and other factors will affect the trading price of the Shares. In addition, the price of Shares is subject to varied and often unpredictable influences on the market for equities, including, but not limited to, general economic conditions including the performance of the Australian dollar on world markets, inflation rates, foreign exchange rates and interest rates, variations in the general market for listed stocks in general, changes to government policy, legislation or regulation, industrial disputes, general operational and business risks and hedging or arbitrage trading activity that may develop involving the Shares. In particular, the share prices for many companies have been and may in the future be highly volatile, which in many cases may reflect a diverse range of non-company specific influences such as global hostilities and tensions relating to certain unstable regions of the world, acts of terrorism and the general state of the global economy. No assurances can be made that the Company's market performance will not be adversely affected by any such market fluctuations or factors. Furthermore, the international prices of most commodities are denominated in United States dollars and the Company's cost base will be in a combination of Australian dollars and United States dollars. Consequently, changes in these exchange rates may impact on the expenditure of the Company and the Company's purchasing capacity. The Company's projects are prospective for natural gas, condensate and oil. The market prices of these commodities fluctuate and are affected by numerous factors beyond the control of the Company, including current and expected future supply and demand, OPEC+ production decisions, geopolitical events, and macroeconomic conditions. The Company's US operations are denominated in US dollars while its reporting currency is Australian dollars, creating significant foreign exchange exposure. Fluctuations in the AUD/USD exchange rate may materially impact the Company's reported expenditure and, if production is achieved, its revenue when converted to Australian dollars.

Insurance	The Company intends to insure its operations in accordance with industry practice. However, in certain circumstances the Company's insurance may not be of a nature or level to provide adequate insurance cover. The occurrence of an event that is not covered or fully covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of the Company. Insurance of all risks associated with the Company's business may not always be available and where available the costs can be prohibitive.
Force Majeure	The Company's projects now or in the future may be adversely affected by risks outside the control of the Company including labour unrest, civil disorder, war, subversive activities or sabotage, fires, floods, explosions or other catastrophes, epidemics or quarantine restrictions.
Taxation	The acquisition and disposal of Shares will have tax consequences, which will differ depending on the individual financial affairs of each investor. All potential investors in the Company are urged to obtain independent financial advice about the consequences of acquiring Shares from a taxation viewpoint and generally. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company, its officers and each of their respective advisors accept no liability and responsibility with respect to the taxation consequences of subscribing for Shares under this Prospectus.
Litigation Risks	The Company will be exposed to possible litigation risks including native title claims, tenure disputes, environmental claims, occupational health and safety claims and employee claims. Further, the Company may be involved in disputes with other parties in the future which may result in litigation. Any such claim or dispute if proven, may impact adversely on the Company's operations, reputation, financial performance and financial position. The Company and its subsidiaries are not currently engaged in any litigation.
Liquidity Risk	While the Company's Shares are currently admitted to ASX's official list, no assurance can be given of the price at which Shares will trade or that they will trade at all. The market price of securities can fall, as well as rise, and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities and, in particular, resources entities. Neither the Company nor the Directors provide any warranty as to the future performance of the Company or any return on an investment in the Company.

Prospective investors should consider that an investment in the Company is highly speculative.
