LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Shareholder,

I am pleased to invite you to the Annual General Meeting of the Company which will be a physical meeting to be held at the Boardroom of Level 26, 44 Market Street, Sydney NSW 2000 at 11:00am (Sydney time) on Thursday, 12 November 2026.

The pages that follow outline the items of business for your consideration and vote at the AGM.

For the financial year ended 30 June 2026, the portfolio returned -7.77%. The S&P/ASX Small Ordinaries Index returned +8.11% over the same period, so we underperformed by 15.88 percentage points. This is a disappointing result, and we want to explain clearly what caused it.

The main reason was sector positioning rather than stock selection. Most of the small-cap index's return for the year came from resources, and gold miners in particular. The gold price reached a record of around US$5,589/oz in January 2026. Because the Australian dollar was weak, the A$ gold price rose even further, and producers earned record margins. Resource stocks outside the ASX 100 rose about 68% for the year, while small industrials, where most of our portfolio sits, gained very little.

The portfolio held resources, but it was underweight the sector against the index and held no gold producers. That second point is what hurt us. The resources we did own were chosen on their supply fundamentals, and the best of them did well. Sandfire Resources benefited from tight copper supply and was one of our strongest contributors. Metals X was helped by supply constraints in Indonesian tin. However, gold drove the index's return, and none of our resources exposure was in gold. Mineral Resources, our lithium and iron ore holding, also went against us, because Chinese steel demand and property investment stayed weak.

We were not alone. Most active small-cap managers are underweight resources, and the majority underperformed the index by a wide margin this year, many recording outright declines. The managers who did well held concentrated gold and resources positions or large cash balances. This does not excuse our result, but it confirms that the shortfall came from sector positioning rather than from the individual companies we chose.

What worked and what didn't

Beyond copper, our best returns came from the build-out of electrical, grid and data-centre infrastructure, through SKS Technologies, Southern Cross Electrical and Service Stream. We also earned strong gains in Ventia, Technology One and Superloop.

The main detractors were Mineral Resources, holdings exposed to consumer credit and the domestic economy (including Zip), and Aussie Broadband. Inflation surprised on the upside during the year. Oil went above US$120/bbl in April. The Reserve Bank moved from easing to tightening and raised the cash rate to 4.35% in May. Together these weighed on consumer-facing companies and on higher-multiple growth stocks.

Positioning and outlook

We are making clear changes to the portfolio in response. Our resources holdings performed well where we owned them, but we were not holding enough of the sector, and we had no gold at all.

Our core themes stay the same: electrical and grid infrastructure, data-centre construction, defence, and healthcare services. Each is supported by committed public or corporate spending, not by a hoped-for economic recovery. Merger and acquisition activity has also become a meaningful source of returns in small caps. During the year, trade and private-equity buyers made takeover bids at significant premiums, which suggests listed valuations are below what private buyers are willing to pay.

The outlook is constructive but calls for discipline. Small industrials trade at a near-record discount to large caps. That view is now shared by most of the market, though, so we will judge cheapness on earnings delivery rather than on valuation alone. Inflation remains persistent and further rate rises are possible. Given that, we are concentrating on companies with strong balance sheets, reliable cash generation and identifiable earnings catalysts, and we are avoiding companies that depend on lower rates or cheap funding.

The Company's Annual Report is available at www.glennonsmallcompanies.com.au.

I look forward to welcoming you to the AGM. If you are unable to attend, please ensure your proxy form is submitted by the required date and time.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Glennon

DATED: Thursday, 8 October 2026

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD

Michael Glennon
CHAIRMAN

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Explanatory Statement has been prepared for the information of the shareholders of the Company in connection with the business to be conducted at the Annual General Meeting to be held at the Boardroom of Level 26, 44 Market Street, Sydney NSW 2000 at 11:00am (Sydney time) on Thursday, 12 November 2026.

The purpose of this Explanatory Statement is to provide information that the directors believe to be material to shareholders in deciding whether or not to pass the Resolutions in this Notice of Annual General Meeting.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND REPORTS

The business of the Annual General Meeting will include receipt and consideration of the annual financial report of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2026 together with the declaration of the directors, the directors' report, the remuneration report and the auditor's report.

RESOLUTION 1 – REMUNERATION REPORT

The remuneration report as set out in the directors' report in the Company's Annual Report must be put to the vote for its adoption in accordance with section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act. The vote on this resolution is advisory only and does not bind the directors or the Company.

The remuneration report sets out the Company's remuneration arrangements for the directors of the Company. The remuneration report is part of the directors' report for the financial year ended 30 June 2026.

The Annual Report of the Company (containing the remuneration report) is available on the Company's website at www.glennonsmallcompanies.com.au.

Shareholders will be given a reasonable opportunity at the Annual General Meeting to ask questions about, or make comments on, the remuneration report.

At the Company's AGM held on 26 November 2025 (the 2025 AGM), the Company received a "second strike" against its 2025 Remuneration Report. The conditional spill resolution was then put to shareholders and was not passed.

Board's response to the 2025 vote

At the 2025 AGM, 48.06% of the votes cast were against the remuneration report, representing approximately 10.5% of the Company's issued capital. Two shareholders attended the meeting, and no questions or comments were raised at the meeting about the remuneration report. The Board notes that a substantial portion of the votes against was cast by a single shareholder holding approximately 6% of the Company. That shareholder has not communicated any questions regarding, or specific concerns about, the remuneration report.

The Company's key management personnel are its three directors. Directors' fees totalled $50,000 (plus superannuation) for the year ended 30 June 2026, and directors received no performance-based or equity-based remuneration for that year.

On 18 February 2026, at its first meeting after the 2025 AGM, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee reviewed the Company's remuneration framework against those paid by comparable listed investment companies. Each independent director receives $25,000 (plus superannuation), which is lower than the fees paid by those comparable companies to their independent directors. The Executive Chairman receives no director fees from the Company, however, is the owner of Glennon Capital Pty Ltd, the Company's investment manager, which receives fees under the investment management agreement as disclosed in the Annual Report. Independent director fees have not increased since the Company listed in 2015, other than superannuation, which has increased only in line with the statutory superannuation guarantee rate. The Committee resolved that no significant change to the remuneration framework was recommended and determined not to increase directors' fees or make other material changes.

The Board considers that the existing framework remains appropriately aligned with the Company's strategy, performance objectives and the long-term interests of shareholders. The Board will continue to review directors' fees semi-annually.

For this 2026 AGM, if at least 25% of the votes cast are against the adoption of the 2026 remuneration report, and then again at the following AGM, the Company will be required to put a resolution to the later AGM to approve calling a further general meeting (spill resolution). If more than 50% of the votes cast are in favour of the spill resolution, the Company must convene a general meeting (spill meeting) within 90 days of the later annual general meeting. All of the directors who were in office when the directors' report considered at the later annual general meeting was approved, other than a managing director, will need to stand for re-election at the spill meeting.

RESOLUTION 2 – ELECTION OF BOARD ENDORSED DIRECTOR – MICHAEL GLENNON

In general terms, clause 20.3 of the Company's constitution requires one-third of the directors to retire from office at the AGM.

The retiring director, Michael Glennon, is eligible for re-election and accordingly submits himself for re-election as a director of the Company.

Michael Glennon was first appointed as a Director of the Company on 29 April 2015.

Michael Glennon has over 25 years' experience in financial markets and as a portfolio manager and director of several investment management firms. He has extensive knowledge of smaller listed companies. He has worked with some of Australia's most respected small company fund managers and has also managed a listed investment company and listed operating businesses.

Michael Glennon holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Western Sydney. He is the Chairman of Benjamin Hornigold Limited (ASX: BHD) and Metgasco Ltd (ASX: MEL).

Recommendation

The directors support the re-election of Michael Glennon. They (other than Michael Glennon) recommend that shareholders vote in FAVOUR of Resolution 2.
