Vintage Energy Ltd (ASX: VEN, “Vintage”) announces the appointment of Ms Cath Norman as a non-executive director of the company.

Cath comes to the Vintage board with more than 35 years’ experience in leadership in international oil, gas and resource sectors across Australia, Africa, Europe and the Middle East. In this role, Cath oversaw the negotiation and execution of the range of legal, financial and corporate agreements and actions attendant with developing exploration and production including acreage awards, farmin and farmout agreements, debt and equity capital raising, joint venture operation, participation in technical committees and asset sales.

Cath is an experienced director whose current roles include Non-Executive Chair of both Kingston Resources Ltd and BOA Resources Ltd. She also provides consultancy and advisory services to the resources sector as founder and principal of Lionne Pty Ltd.

“I am pleased to announce Cath’s appointment and welcome her to the board of directors,” said Vintage Chairman, Reg Nelson. “Cath brings proven, direct experience in the tasks before Vintage and I expect her capabilities and judgement to be a valuable asset to the board of directors”.
