Jeromy Young to retire from Atomos Board

Melbourne, Australia - Atomos Limited (ASX:AMS) ('Atomos' or the 'Company') advises that Mr Jeromy Young, co-founder of Atomos, former Chief Executive Officer and current Non-Executive Director, has advised that he will not stand for re-election to the Board at the Company's Annual General Meeting to be held in November 2026.

Mr Young co-founded Atomos and has played a pivotal role in the establishment and development of the business, including leading the Company as Chief Executive Officer. His contribution has been instrumental in building Atomos into an established global provider of innovative video recording, monitoring and production solutions.

Following his retirement from the Board, Mr Young will remain available to provide consulting services to the Company on an as-required basis. This arrangement will enable Atomos to continue to access his extensive industry knowledge, technical expertise and understanding of the business where appropriate.

The Board thanks Mr Young for his significant contribution to Atomos over many years and acknowledges his important role in the Company's history and development. The Board looks forward to maintaining a positive working relationship with Mr Young through the consulting arrangement.
