Change of Director's Interest Notice

Verbrec Limited (ASX : VBC) (Verbrec or the Company) today announces the off-market sale of 4 Million shares in the Company by Mr. Brian O'Sullivan and his entities.

The transaction was facilitated by Unified Capital Partners to Australian institutional investors.

An Appendix 3Y is attached to this announcement as an appendix.

Mr. O'Sullivan is a non-executive director of the Company and substantial shareholder of Verbrec.

A note from Mr Brian O'Sullivan AM

For over 30 years, I have held charity positions and, in the past, have been privileged to chair and financially support the Muscular Dystrophy Foundation of Australia for several years.

In 2011, I established the O'Sullivan Brothers Appeal Fund Ltd, which is a charity specifically for people with Myotonic Muscular Dystrophy, which is a specific type of degenerative muscle dystrophy. My previous divestment of Verbrec shares in March 2022 and December 2024 supported this fund and this transaction is another tranche. The divestment of Verbrec shares this week will help to provide capital for the sustainability of this appeal fund.

I am the largest shareholder in Verbrec, with approximately 21.1% ownership stake (prior to this transaction). I have divested approximately 1.3% share in the Company to several Australian institutional investors. I am pleased that these parties share my support for Verbrec.

Like myself, they clearly see all the transformative work completed and the growth strategy for the business.

Brian O'Sullivan AM

Non-Executive Director

A note from the Chairman

I commend Mr O'Sullivan on his ongoing contributions to charitable funds, supporting the needs of people with Myotonic Muscular Dystrophy.

This transaction brings more diversity to our register, which is a positive sign for Verbrec and the continued interest in our company from the Australian investment community.

Phillip Campbell

Non-Executive Chairman

Authorised for release by the Board of Directors of Verbrec Limited.
