Mt Thirsty JV — Scandium Drill Program Advancing:

- Engagement of drilling contractor and planning being finalised for upcoming drill program targeting scandium

Greenland Projects (100%)

During the quarter, Conico completed a field program at its 100%-owned Mestersvig Project in East Greenland (MEL 2020/64), which hosts the historic high-grade Blyklippen Zn-Pb mine. Following approval of the Company's field activity application by the Mineral Licence and Safety Authority (MLSA), a field team mobilised to site in early September to undertake a site clean-up and removal of equipment and materials, in accordance with the Company's licence obligations.

The works form part of the Company's preparation of the Mestersvig Project for a potential divestment, with investigations and discussions with interested parties ongoing. The Company has also lodged an application for renewal of MEL 2020/64, and the MLSA has confirmed that it will now proceed with processing the renewal application.

Kai & Lilloise Projects: The Company's applications for two additional exploration licences, lodged on 13 May 2026 over the Kai Project (862 km², prospective for hard-rock rare earth element (REE) mineralisation) and the Lilloise Project (390 km², prospective for magmatic Au-PGE mineralisation), remain with the MLSA pending grant (CNJ ASX announcement 13 May 2026).

Subject to grant, the new licences will expand Conico's Greenland land position to approximately 6,460 km², making the Company one of the largest landholders in East Greenland.

Ryberg Project: The Company's existing 100%-owned Ryberg Project covers 4,941 km² of granted exploration licences and hosts multiple targets including the Miki and Togeda (Cu-Ni-PGE-Au) and Sortekap (Au, Ni-Co) prospects.

Planning of future exploration programs across the Greenland portfolio is well advanced for the 2027 field season.

Mt Thirsty PGE-Ni-Co-Mn-Sc Project, Western Australia (50% owned) (Maritana Minerals Limited, 50%)

The Mt Thirsty project is a 50:50 joint venture between Conico and Maritana Minerals Limited (ASX: MRT, formerly Horizon Minerals), located 16 km north-northwest of Norseman in southern Western Australia.

Scandium was first identified at Mt Thirsty through Phase 1 drilling in 2022, which employed a comprehensive multi-element assay suite for the first time. Historically, the deposit had only been assayed for cobalt, nickel and manganese, meaning scandium had never been recognised as part of the resource despite being present throughout the ultramafic host rock sequence. Drilling identified three distinct zones of flat-lying, horizontal mineralisation across the eastern licence area, each hosting scandium alongside the primary metals.

The project hosts one of Australia's most advanced undeveloped cobalt-nickel oxide deposits, with a PFS completed in 2020 and a significantly upgraded JORC Mineral Resource published in 2023 following Phase 1 drilling that also confirmed the presence of scandium — a high-value critical mineral not previously assayed for at the project.

Key drill intercepts (CNJ ASX announcement 23 January 2023) confirming scandium mineralisation include:

- MTRC011DA: 15m @ 0.45% Co, 0.91% Ni, 5.42% Mn and 40.9 g/t Sc from 45m depth (upper zone)
- MTRC009D: 21.8m @ 0.28% Ni and 49.8 g/t Sc from 268.2m depth (lower zone)
- MTRC005D: 48.0m @ 0.08% Co, 0.44% Ni, 0.13% Mn and 47.6 g/t Sc from 2m, including 6m @ 57.4 g/t Sc from 5m (near-surface upper zone)
- MTRC006D: 70m @ 0.05% Co, 0.45% Ni, 0.47% Mn and 36.3 g/t Sc from 3m, including 26m @ 28.2 g/t Sc from 47m
- MTRC007D: 33.5m @ 0.26% Ni and 35.8 g/t Sc from 237.5m (lower zone)

Scandium oxide currently commands an exceptional price — approximately US$600,000 per tonne — due to its scarcity and critical role in hydrogen fuel cells, solid oxide fuel cells and aluminium alloys for aerospace and defence applications. Australia historically has limited scandium production, making a domestic supply from a project like Mt Thirsty potentially strategically significant.

During the quarter, the Company progressed planning for an aircore/reverse circulation drill program at Mt Thirsty and is in the final stages of securing a drilling contractor.

The Company intends to proceed with the program with or without a funding commitment from its joint venture partner. The project already has drill pads and access tracks established from previous campaigns, which reduces the cost and time required to mobilise a new drill program.

Drilling is planned to target an upper zone of nickel-cobalt-manganese-scandium (Ni-Co-Mn-Sc) which returned intersections in excess of 40g/t scandium (CNJ ASX Announcement, 23 January 2023). Further, drilling will test the presence of a lower, potentially higher-grade Ni-Co-Mn-Sc zone, which is currently outside of the existing resource.

Project Generation

The Board continues to evaluate additional exploration project acquisition opportunities, across various commodities and jurisdictions.
