1. Nature of Operations

The accompanying condensed interim consolidated financial statements for Capstone Copper Corp. (the "Company" or "Capstone Copper") have been prepared as at September 30, 2026. The Company is listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange and on the Australian Securities Exchange (“ASX”), as an ASX Foreign Exempt Listing.

Capstone Copper Corp. is a copper mining and development company with operations in Chile, the United States, and Mexico. In Chile, the Company owns and operates the Mantos Blancos mine, holds a 70% interest in the Mantoverde mine, and owns the fully permitted Santo Domingo copper-iron-gold-cobalt development project. In the United States, the Company owns and operates the Pinto Valley mine in Arizona. In Mexico, the Company owns and operates the Cozamin mine in Zacatecas. The Company holds a portfolio of exploration properties in Chile and Mexico.

The Company's head office, registered and records office and principal address are located at 2100 - 510 West Georgia Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada and the Company is incorporated in British Columbia.

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors and authorized for issuance on October 29, 2026.

2. Basis of preparation and consolidation

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34, Interim Financial Reporting using the same accounting policies and methods of application as the audited annual consolidated financial statements of Capstone for the year ended December 31, 2025 (the "annual financial statements"), which were prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board. The condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair value. The policies were consistently applied to all of the periods presented, except as noted below.

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements.

3. Material Accounting Policy Information, Estimates and Judgments

The Company’s management makes judgments in its process of applying the Company’s accounting policies in the preparation of these condensed interim consolidated financial statements. In addition, the preparation of the financial data requires that the Company’s management makes assumptions and estimates of the impacts of uncertain future events on the carrying amounts of the Company’s assets and liabilities at the end of the reporting period, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from estimates as the estimation process is inherently uncertain.

Estimates are reviewed on an ongoing basis based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant under the circumstances. Revisions to estimates and the resulting impacts on the carrying amounts of the Company’s assets and liabilities are accounted for prospectively.

The Company considers the critical judgments and key sources of estimation uncertainty disclosed in Note 3 of the annual financial statements continue to be applicable in preparing these condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 except as follows:

Classification of Cozamin

Management applied significant judgment in concluding that Cozamin does not meet the criteria to be classified as an asset held for sale under IFRS 5, Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations. As at September 30, 2026, the required Mexican regulatory approval has not been received. Management determined that this approval represents a substantive condition to completion of the transaction. The approval and its associated timing are outside the control of both the Company and Luca Mining Corp. and accordingly the Company concluded the highly probable criteria under IFRS 5 had not been met as at September 30, 2026. Refer to Note 8 for further details on the planned sale of Cozamin.

4. Adoption of New and Revised IFRS and IFRS Not Yet Effective

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 – Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments

The Company adopted the amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 effective January 1, 2026 and is in compliance with the amended requirements. The adoption of these amendments did not result in any material changes to the Company's financial position, results of operations, presentation, or related disclosures.

IFRS 18 - Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

In April 2024, the IASB issued a new IFRS accounting standard to improve financial reporting, IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements, which replaces IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. IFRS 18 introduces new requirements relating to the presentation of the statement of profit or loss, the classification of income and expenses, and the disclosure of management-defined performance measures ("MPMs"). The key changes introduced by IFRS 18 include a revised structure for the statement of income or loss, requiring income and expenses to be classified into operating, investing, and financing categories, with separate sections for income taxes and discontinued operations and by specifying certain defined totals and subtotals. IFRS 18 will not affect the recognition and measurement of items in the financial statements, nor will it affect which items are classified in other comprehensive income and how these items are classified.

The standard also enhances the aggregation and disaggregation of information in the financial statements and notes to improve transparency, introduces mandatory disclosures for unusual items, and requires entities to disclose and reconcile MPMs to the closest IFRS-defined subtotal, along with explanations of their relevance and calculation methods.

The Company is currently assessing the impact of IFRS 18 on its consolidated financial statements. The Company has identified the following expected impacts upon initial application of IFRS 18:

- In the consolidated statements of income, income and expenses, including foreign exchange gains and losses and gains and losses on derivatives, will be classified into operating, investing, financing and income taxes categories. Gains and losses on derivatives where hedge accounting is not applied will be classified in the same category as items the Company is risk mitigating and foreign exchange gains and losses will be classified in the same category as the items that give rise to that foreign exchange. The Company will also present two new subtotals, operating income and income before financing and income taxes. Operating income will be determined differently than income from operations currently presented by the Company. Net income will not be impacted.
- In the consolidated statements of cash flows, operating income will be used as the starting point for determining cash flows from operating activities, rather than net income.
- In the notes to the consolidated financial statements, the Company will be required to provide additional disclosures for MPMs. MPMs are subtotals of income and expenses that are not specified by IFRS Accounting Standards and are used in public communications outside the financial statements to communicate management's view of an aspect of the Company's financial performance. Based on its preliminary assessment, the Company has identified adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net income attributable to shareholders as MPMs.

The Company will adopt IFRS 18 on its mandatory effective date of January 1, 2027. IFRS 18 will be applied retrospectively and comparative information for the year ending December 31, 2026 will be restated in accordance with IFRS 18.

5. Financial Instruments

Fair Value of financial instruments
Fair value measurement and related disclosure, including the fair value hierarchy (Levels 1, 2, and 3), are disclosed in the Company's annual financial statements, and there were no changes to the classification or levels during the period.

The Company's policy for determining when a transfer occurs between levels in the fair value hierarchy is to assess the impact at the date of the event or the change in circumstances that could result in a transfer. There were no transfers between Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026.

There have been no changes during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 in how the Company categorizes its financial assets and liabilities by fair value through profit or loss, fair value through OCI, or amortized cost.

At September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the carrying amounts of accounts receivable not arising from sales of metal concentrates and cathodes, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and other current assets and current liabilities are considered to be reasonable approximations of their fair values due to the short-term nature of these instruments. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt and amounts due to related party are approximated by its carrying value since the contractual interest rates are comparable to current market interest rates.

Financial instruments and related risks
The Company's activities expose it to financial risks of varying degrees of significance which could affect its ability to achieve its strategic objectives for growth and shareholder returns. The principal financial risks to which the Company is exposed are commodity price risk, credit risk, foreign exchange risk, liquidity risk and interest rate risk. The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework and reviews the Company's policies on an ongoing basis. There have been no significant changes in the Company's exposure to these financial risks.

Derivative instruments
As at September 30, 2026, the Company's derivative financial instruments comprise copper quotational pricing contracts, copper zero-cost collar contracts, gold zero-cost collar contracts, diesel swap contracts, foreign currency zero-cost collars ("ZCC"), and foreign currency forward contracts.

For copper concentrate sales, the sales price is determined on a provisional basis and therefore the Company is exposed to commodity price risk for the quotational period between the date of sale and the determination of the final selling price, normally ranging from 30 to 90 days after the initial recognition of revenue. The Company enters into copper time-spread swaps in order to manage the risk associated with provisional pricing specific to the quotational period.

The Company enters into copper and gold zero-cost collar contracts in order to manage the risk associated with fluctuations in copper and gold prices over the contract period. The Company enters into diesel swap contracts in order to manage the risk associated with increasing global diesel prices over the contract period.

The Company operates on an international basis and therefore foreign exchange risk exposures arise from transactions denominated in a foreign currency. The Company's foreign exchange risk arises primarily with respect to the Chilean Peso ("CLP"), the Chilean Unidad de Fomento ("UF"), the Mexican Peso ("MXN") and the Canadian dollar ("CAD"). The UF is an artificial inflation-indexed monetary unit used in Chile to denominate certain contracts. The Company's cash flows from Chilean and Mexican operations are exposed to foreign exchange risk, as commodity sales are denominated in US dollars and a certain portion of operating and capital expenses is denominated in local currencies. The Company may use foreign exchange forward and swap contracts and ZCCs to mitigate changes in foreign exchange rates.

The Company's outstanding derivative instruments as of September 30, 2026, are as follows:

Agreement to sell Cozamin Mine
On September 21, 2026, the Company entered into a definitive agreement with Luca Mining Corp. ("Luca") to sell its Cozamin mine in Zacatecas, Mexico, together with certain related entities and its obligations under the Silver PMPA, for total consideration of up to $385.0 million. The consideration comprises:

- $275.0 million in cash payable at closing, subject to customary closing adjustments;
- $15.0 million in Luca common shares to be issued at closing;
- $35.0 million in deferred consideration payable on the first anniversary of closing in cash and/or Luca common shares at Luca's option; and
- up to $60.0 million in contingent cash consideration based on average annual LME copper prices for the 2027, 2028 and 2029 calendar years.

The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2026, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions and receipt of regulatory approvals, including stock exchange approval and approval from the Mexican National Antitrust Commission. The transaction is not subject to shareholder approval or any financing conditions.

Acquisition of San Pietro Copper Resources SpA
In August 2026, the Company acquired certain copper exploration concessions in Chile's Atacama Region from Golden Arrow Resources Corp. and Sociedad de Servicios Andinos SPA for total consideration of 2,034,970 common shares valued at US$23.1 million and US$1.9 million in applicable Chilean withholding taxes paid by the Company on sellers' behalf. The consideration paid plus associated transaction costs of US$0.3 million was recognized as part of mineral exploration properties.

Santo Domingo impairment reversal in 2025
During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, the Company recognized an impairment reversal of $209.5 million for the Santo Domingo cash generating unit ("CGU"). On October 15, 2025, the Company entered into a binding agreement with an unrelated third-party investor to acquire a 25% non-controlling interest in the Project for $225 million, conditional on Final Investment Decision ("FID"), with contingent payments of up to $60 million.

Management concluded that the terms of the agreement reflected conditions underlying the Project at September 30, 2025. The agreement's arm's-length price was therefore used as market evidence to estimate the CGU's recoverable amount at that date. Using a fair value less costs of disposal approach, management estimated recoverable amount at approximately $841.5 million, based on an implied CGU value of $900 million less $58.5 million of expected design and engineering expenditures to reach FID. Management also considered the potential range of FID timing. The CGU's carrying amount was $503.6 million. The $209.5 million impairment reversal represented a full reversal of the previously recognized impairment on the Santo Domingo CGU.

Exploration costs
The Company's exploration costs were as follows:

	Three months ended September 30,		Nine months ended September 30,
	2026	2025	2026	2025
Exploration capitalized to mineral properties	$ 13,940	$ 9,160	$ 39,969	$ 25,263

	$ 15,094	$ 9,596	$ 44,180	$ 28,559

Exploration capitalized to mineral properties during the periods ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, relates to brownfield exploration at the Mantoverde, Mantos Blancos, Santo Domingo, other Chile mines and Cozamin mines. Greenfield exploration expenses during the periods ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 related primarily to exploration efforts in Chile.

Withholding tax payable in relation to the payment to NCI holder
During March 2025, $34.6 million of the final installment of $45 million cash consideration was paid to Korea Resources Corporation ("KORES"). The remaining $10.4 million, representing withholding taxes payable to the Chilean tax authority, remained outstanding at December 31, 2025. The liability increased by $0.3 million from accretion recognized in finance expense (Note 25), resulting in a balance of $10.7 million that was paid in full in April 2026.

Working capital facilities
Two of the Company's Chilean subsidiaries entered into a series of short-term working capital facilities to support general working capital management. The aggregate balance of these facilities reflects accrued interest as at the end of the reporting period and includes $36.4 million received through a receivable financing arrangement with a customer (see Note 21). During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company drew $249.1 million from its working capital facilities, and repaid $42.0 million.

11. Accounts Payable and Accrued Liabilities

Accounts payable and accrued liabilities comprise the following:

	September 30, 2026	December 31, 2025

12. Non-Controlling Interest

Mitsubishi Materials Corporation ("MMC") owns a 30% non-controlling interest in Mantoverde S.A. through its wholly owned subsidiary.

MMC agreed to provide a $60 million Cost Overrun Facility ("COF") in exchange for additional offtake of copper concentrate production under a 10-year contract. The COF carries a variable rate of SOFR compounded daily to a 3-month period of 4.05% plus 1.961% per annum, with margins unchanged and matures on December 21, 2033.

In addition to the COF, MMC advanced its pro-rata share of funding requests, which amounted to an additional $171.9 million, to Mantoverde in the form of shareholder loans forming part of the financing for the MVDP. Total funds advanced by MMC at September 30, 2026, including cumulative accrued interest of $38.7 million (December 31, 2025 - $30.5 million), was $256.0 million (December 31, 2025 - $252.7 million). The interest rate on the shareholder loans as at September 30, 2026 was three-month adjusted SOFR of 3.73% (December 31, 2025 - 3.99%) plus 2.65% (December 31, 2025 - 2.65%) payable on the principal balance.

Mantoverde Term Loan
In June 2025, Mantoverde obtained a term loan of a principal amount of $145.0 million, maturing in June 2032. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company made voluntary principal repayments of $102.0 million and $137.0 million, respectively, on the loan (three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 – $nil).

Senior Unsecured Notes
On March 25, 2025, the Company completed an offering of $600 million aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes due March 2033 (the “Senior Notes”). The Senior Notes bear interest at 6.75%, payable semi-annually in March and September of each year.

The Senior Notes are guaranteed on an unsecured basis by each of the Company’s subsidiaries that provide a guarantee of the RCF.

The Senior Notes are recognized as financial liabilities, net of unamortized transaction costs, and measured at amortized cost using an effective interest rate of 7.07%.

Revolving Credit Facility ("RCF")
The RCF has an aggregate commitment of $1.0 billion, plus a $200 million accordion option available, and matures in May 2029. The RCF bears interest at adjusted term SOFR plus a margin ranging from 1.75% to 2.75%, based on the Company’s total net leverage ratio.

The interest rate at September 30, 2026 was one-month adjusted term SOFR of 3.832% plus 1.875% (December 2025 - adjusted term SOFR of 3.844% plus 2.000%) with a standby fee of 0.42190% (2025 – 0.450%) payable on the undrawn balance (adjustable in certain circumstances).

The RCF requires Capstone Copper to maintain certain financial ratios relating to debt and interest coverage. Capstone Copper was in compliance with these covenants as at September 30, 2026.

15. Deferred Revenue

Details of changes in the balance of deferred revenue are as follows:

Silver Precious Metals Purchase Arrangement ("Silver PMPA")
On February 19, 2021, a subsidiary of the Company concluded the Silver PMPA with Wheaton Precious Metals ("Wheaton") whereby Capstone Copper received an upfront cash consideration of $150 million against delivery of 50% of the silver production from the Cozamin mine until 10 million ounces have been delivered, thereafter dropping to 33% of silver production for the remaining life of mine. Cozamin has delivered 3.6 million silver ounces since contract inception until September 30, 2026. The Silver PMPA is included in the planned disposal group under the agreement with Luca to sell the Cozamin mine (Note 8).

Gold Precious Metals Purchase Arrangement ("Gold PMPA")
On April 21, 2021, a subsidiary of the Company received an early deposit of $30 million ("the Early Deposit") in relation to the Gold PMPA at Santo Domingo with Wheaton effective March 24, 2021. As completion was not achieved on or before the third anniversary date of receiving the early deposit, an early deposit delay payment was triggered that required the Company to sell and deliver 104 ounces of refined gold per month until the earlier of: the month completion is achieved, the month in which the early deposit is repaid to Wheaton or the month which refined gold is first sold and delivered to Wheaton (the "Gold stream obligation'). At December 31, 2025, the Gold stream obligation recorded in Other liabilities (Note 10) was $19.6 million.

On March 9, 2026, Capstone repaid the $30 million Early Deposit to Wheaton. As a result of this repayment, the remainder of the early deposit delay payment under the Gold stream obligation is extinguished. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company recognized deliveries of $nil and $0.8 million (2025 - $0.9 million and $2.5 million), respectively, and a mark-to-market expense of $nil and $3.2 million (2025 - $1.9 million and $4.3 million), respectively, on the Gold stream obligation prior to the repayment of the Early Deposit. The extinguishment of the Gold stream obligation resulted in a gain of $22.0 million, which is recognized within Other Income (Note 24). All terms of the Gold PMPA remain unchanged, and the Company concluded that the repayment of the Early Deposit does not impact the classification of the Gold PMPA arrangement as deferred revenue.

The remaining $11.3 million balance of deferred revenue relates to the cumulative accretion incurred to date on the original $30 million Early Deposit. As no performance obligations have been completed in relation to the Gold PMPA, this balance remains recognized until such time that Santo Domingo reaches commercial production and the Company begins delivering gold credits, at which point it will be added to any additional deposit amounts received and amortized over the ounces delivered to Wheaton under the Gold PMPA.

The $30 million repaid to Wheaton remains part of the Gold PMPA and will be included as part of the $290 million of installments to be received from Wheaton over the Santo Domingo development project construction period, subject to sufficient financing having been obtained to cover total expected capital expenditures and other customary conditions.

16. Income Taxes

As a result of its mining operations, the Company is subject to both income and mining taxes. Mining taxes are generally based on a measure of profitability from carrying on mining operations but are subject to more restrictive deductions than those available for income tax purposes. These restrictions include deductions for financing expenses, such as interest and royalties. In addition, income not attributed to mining operations is not subject to mining tax.

A reconciliation between tax expense and the product of accounting profit multiplied by the Company's statutory income tax rate for the periods ended September 30, 2026 and 2025 is as follows:

On October 9, 2026, after the reporting period, the President of Chile signed the decree promulgating the National Reconstruction and Economic and Social Development Law. The law includes a gradual reduction in the First Category corporate income tax rate from 27% to 25.5% in 2027, 24% in 2028 and 23% in 2029, together with changes to the integration of corporate and shareholder income taxes.

At September 30, 2026, the legislation had not been substantively enacted and its effects have not been reflected in the Company’s deferred tax balances. The Company considers the legislation substantively enacted upon the President’s signature on October 9, 2026. The Company estimates that the changes will decrease deferred income tax liabilities related to its Chilean assets by approximately $80 million. This deferred tax recovery will be recognized in the fourth quarter of 2026.

Minto Obligation
In June 2019, the Company sold its interest in the Minto mine and, in connection with the transaction, remains an indemnitor to the surety provider for reclamation obligations posted by Minto Metals Corp. (“Minto Metals”). In May 2023, Minto Metals ceased operations and the Yukon Government assumed care and control of the site. Following Minto Metals’ default on the surety bond, the Company recognized an initial provision of approximately $55.0 million (C$72.0 million) in 2023, representing its maximum exposure to the Yukon Government in their capacity as surety provider.

As at September 30, 2026, the Company has made cumulative payments of $50.1 million (C$67.5 million) (December 31, 2025 – $45.8 million paid), with $3.2 million (C$4.5 million) representing the remaining obligation.

Surety Bonds
As at September 30, 2026, the Company has in place seven surety bonds totaling $277.6 million to support various reclamation and other obligation bonding requirements. These comprise $182.0 million securing reclamation obligations at Pinto Valley, $4.0 million provided as security as part of a power supply agreement at Pinto Valley, $53.1 million at Mantos Blancos, and $36.5 million at Mantoverde, respectively, securing reclamation obligations and $2.0 million related to the construction of a port for the Santo Domingo development project in Chile.

18. Share Capital

Stock options
Stock options are granted to directors, officers, and employees under the Company's stock option plan. Options have a contractual life of up to five years, vest based on terms determined by the Board, and are exercisable at prices denominated in Canadian dollars.

The continuity of stock options issued and outstanding is as follows:

	Options outstanding	Weighted average exercise price (C$)
Outstanding, December 31, 2025	3,474,911	$ 7.34

Other share-based compensation plans

The Company has share-based payment arrangements under which it grants restricted share units ("RSUs"), performance share units ("PSUs"), and deferred share units ("DSUs"). RSUs and PSUs are granted under the Share Unit Plan ("SUP"). RSUs vest over three years, and PSUs vest after three years subject to a performance factor ranging from 0% to 200%. RSUs and PSUs may be settled in cash, shares, or a combination thereof, at the discretion of the Company. DSUs are granted to directors, vest upon issuance, and are redeemable in cash only upon cessation of service on the Board of Directors.

Compensation expense for RSUs and PSUs is recognized over the vesting period and is adjusted each reporting period for changes in share price, expected vesting, and, for PSUs, expected performance outcomes. Compensation expense for DSUs is recognized immediately and remeasured at each reporting period based on the Company's share price.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the total fair value of DSUs granted under the SUP was C$0.64 million (2025 – C$10.9 million including RSUs), and had a weighted average grant-date fair value of C$12.91 (2025 – C$8.40) per unit. No PSUs and RSUs have been granted during the nine months ended September 30, 2026.

Treasury Share Unit Plans
The Company grants PSUs to executives and RSUs to employees under its Treasury Share Unit Plan, which vest over three years and may be settled in shares or cash at the Company's discretion. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the total fair value of units granted under the TSUP was C$17.5 million (2025 – C$9.1 million), and had a weighted average grant-date fair value of C$12.91 (2025 – C$7.44) per unit.

Weighted average assumptions used in calculating the fair values of units granted under the TSUP during the period were as follows:

	Nine months ended September 30,

22. Commitments

Agreement with OR Royalties International Ltd. ("OR Royalties") (Formerly Osisko Bermuda Limited)
Pursuant to a long-term streaming agreement made in 2015 that covers the life of mine, the Company delivers 100% of the payable silver sold by Mantos Blancos. OR Royalties pays a cash price of 8% of the spot price at the time of each delivery, in addition to an upfront acquisition price previously paid. After 19.3 million ounces of silver have been delivered under the agreement, the stream will be reduced to 40% of the payable silver sold over the remaining life of mine period. Mantos Blancos has delivered 8.2 million silver ounces from contract inception until September 30, 2026.

Other
The Company has existing contractual agreements extending until 2027 and 2033 to purchase water for operations at Mantos Blancos. A new contractual agreement was entered into during 2026 that is effective from 2028 to 2060.

The Company has contractual agreements for the purchase of power for operations at Mantos Blancos and Mantoverde, extending until 2038 and 2040, respectively. The Company has entered into two new contractual agreements for the purchase of power for operations at Mantos Blancos and Mantoverde. These agreements commence in 2028 and extend through 2030 and 2037, respectively.

Total royalties	$ (10,318)	$ (8,387)	$ (31,480)	$ (21,994)

Ad Valorem and Extraordinary Mining Duty are revenue-based levies that do not meet the definition of an income tax under IAS 12 and are accordingly presented within royalties rather than income tax expense. Ad Valorem is the 1.0% component of the Chilean Mining Royalty regime introduced in 2024, levied on copper net sales; the regime also includes a mining-margin component calculated on operating profitability, which is recognized within income tax expense. Extraordinary Mining Duty is the 1.0% Mexican federal duty levied on gross revenues from the sale of precious metals such as silver.

27. Segmented Information

The Company is engaged in mining, exploration and development of mineral properties, and has operating mines in the US, Chile and Mexico. The Company has six reportable segments as identified by the individual mining operations of Pinto Valley (US), Mantos Blancos (Chile), Mantoverde (Chile), Cozamin (Mexico), as well as the Santo Domingo development project (Chile) and Other. Early stage exploration, other and corporate operations are reported in the Other segment. Intercompany revenue and expense amounts have been eliminated within each segment in order to report on the basis that management uses internally for evaluating segment performance. Total assets and liabilities do not reflect intercompany balances, which have been eliminated on consolidation. Segments are operations reviewed by the CEO, who is considered to be the chief operating decision maker.
