49 Metals Managing Director, Phil Carter, commented:

"The results received during the quarter have materially advanced our understanding of Gold Mountain. The Adit Zone discovery has developed into a broad gold mineralised system containing multiple higher-grade structures, with DRC#22 demonstrating the substantial widths of mineralisation present.

"Follow-up drilling is now well underway, targeting extensions to the discovery and infilling key areas to improve our understanding of mineralisation continuity and geometry. We look forward to completing the campaign in November and receiving assay results progressively thereafter."

Overview

During the quarter, 49 Metals Limited (ASX:49M) ("49 Metals" or "the Company") received the remaining assay results from its maiden RC drilling program at the Gold Mountain Project in Nevada, USA. The program comprised 22 holes for approximately 7,500m and was completed prior to the September quarter. Gold and/or silver mineralisation was intersected in every hole.

Results received during the quarter materially advanced the Company's understanding of the Adit Zone. What had been interpreted as a series of discrete mineralised structures is now interpreted as a broader mineralised system containing multiple higher-grade, structurally controlled zones. The Adit Zone remains open along strike and down dip and represents one prospect within the broader Gold Mountain Project.

Subsequent to quarter end, and as announced on 6 October 2026 follow-up drilling has been fast tracked and has commenced on site. Approximately 3,500m of RC drilling is planned initially across 10–11 holes, with the objective of expanding and infilling the Adit Zone. The Company confirms drilling is ongoing with the campaign expected to be completed in November 2026.

Gold Mountain

Gold Mountain is the Company's flagship gold project, located approximately 7km south of Tonopah within Nevada's Walker Lane trend. The maiden drilling program tested geological, structural and geophysical targets across the Project, with later holes focused on the Adit Zone following the discovery of high-grade gold mineralisation in DRC#9.

Adit Zone

The Adit Zone discovery was initially highlighted by DRC#9, which returned 27.4m @ 8.3g/t Au from 221.0m, including 9.1m @ 21.9g/t Au from 224.0m, as announced on 3 June 2026. The Company interprets this mineralisation as part of a potentially high-grade feeder corridor within the broader Gold Mountain epithermal system.

Results announced on 1 July 2026 included the lower portion of DRC#16, drilled approximately 40m along strike from DRC#9. This hole returned 15.2m @ 2.4g/t Au from 268.2m, including 6.1m @ 5.0g/t Au from 274.3m. DRC#16 ended in mineralisation. The Company interprets the high-grade intervals in DRC#9 and DRC#16 as part of the same feeder structure.

Further results announced on 24 July 2026 demonstrated the presence of a broader mineralised envelope in DRC#16, which returned 64.0m @ 1.0g/t Au from 152.4m, including 13.7m @ 1.9g/t Au from 181.4m. DRC#15, drilled approximately 150m southwest of the discovery holes, returned shallow mineralisation of 15.2m @ 1.5g/t Au from 4.6m, including 6.1m @ 3.2g/t Au from 12.2m.

Results announced on 27 August 2026 extended the interpreted feeder corridor and confirmed the presence of broad mineralisation. DRC#19 returned 67.1m @ 1.7g/t Au from 169.2m, including 10.7m @ 8.4g/t Au from 185.9m and 3.0m @ 20.0g/t Au from 189.0m. DRC#22 returned 170.7m @ 0.9g/t Au from 121.9m, including 50.3m @ 1.2g/t Au from 207.3m, the thickest gold intersection reported at Gold Mountain.

Further shallow mineralisation was identified in DRC#21, which returned 13.7m @ 2.9g/t Au from 12.2m, and DRC#18, which returned 29.0m @ 1.3g/t Au from 18.3m. These intersections support the presence of additional mineralised structures outside the initial discovery area.

The maiden drilling program has materially advanced the Company's understanding of the Gold Mountain mineralised system. Drilling has highlighted a close relationship between gold mineralisation, major structures and the Oddie Rhyolite, which is emerging as an important host to mineralisation at the Adit Zone.

The Company's current interpretation is that major faults and subsidiary structures acted as pathways for mineralising fluids, with higher-grade gold mineralisation developing in favourable structural and geological settings. Broader zones of lower-grade mineralisation occur around and between these structures, producing the substantial mineralised widths observed in several holes.

Drilling also indicates oxidation extends to approximately 300 metres depth in parts of the Adit Zone. Further metallurgical work will be considered as the geological model and potential scale of the mineralised system become better defined.

Broader Exploration Targets

While the Adit Zone was the principal focus of the maiden drilling program, it represents only one mineralised centre within the broader Gold Mountain hydrothermal system. The Project contains numerous historical workings, mineralised structures and exploration targets that remain untested or only lightly tested by modern exploration. These include the Combination, Monte Christo, Murane, Sealy Ridge, Divide and East Adit areas, as well as extensions of the Adit Zone itself.

Results announced during the quarter also included DRC#12 at the Brougher Zone, approximately 600m north-northwest of the Adit Zone, which returned 4.6m @ 1.7g/t Au from 36.6m and 16.8m @ 0.7g/t Au from 123.4m. At Sealy Ridge, DRC#13 returned 1.5m @ 3.0g/t Au from 22.9m. The results demonstrate mineralisation across additional target areas, with further interpretation required to define their significance.

Follow Up Drilling

On 24 September 2026, the Company announced that a fully funded follow-up RC program of approximately 3,500m across 10–11 holes was scheduled to commence in October. The program was designed to expand the Adit Zone through step-out drilling, infill the existing drill pattern and improve understanding of the geometry of the higher-grade structures and surrounding mineralised envelope.

The drilling program is expected to be completed in the first half of November 2026 with initial assay results expected approximately four to six weeks after drilling commenced, subject to laboratory turnaround times, with results expected progressively thereafter.
