HeraMED Limited (ASX:HMD) ('HeraMED' or the 'Company'), a medical data and technology company leading the digital transformation of women's and maternity care, is pleased to announce that it has won the People's Choice Award at the 2026 Garmin Health Awards, presented at the Garmin Health Summit in Bangkok, Thailand.

Recognition of HeraMED's women's health vision

In announcing the award, Garmin described HeraMED as an Australian publicly listed company advancing personalised, continuous, AI-enabled women's healthcare across pregnancy, postpartum, menopause and chronic conditions through a unified, scalable, data-driven platform.

HeraMED views the award as recognition of its vision to connect women, their health information and their care teams beyond individual clinical appointments. The Company's focus is on supporting engagement, continuity of care and the practical integration of connected health information into care delivery.

HeraMED Managing Director and CEO, Anoushka Gungadin, said:

"We are delighted to receive the People's Choice award at the 2026 Garmin Health Awards. Recognition from an international digital health audience is a proud milestone for our team and brings valuable visibility to women's health.

"In a fragmented health system, underserving women, our vision is to make care more personalised, connected and continuous, both in how care is delivered by clincians and care is experienced by women, Our collaboration with Garmin brings everyday health and wellbeing data into HeraCARE, alongside clinical monitoring and personalised care plans. This gives women and their care teams a more complete view of health between appointments and supports our ambition to deliver care across pregnancy, postpartum, menopause and beyond."

"This award and industry recognition validates our approach and encourages us to keep building and delivering a better model of care for women."

2026 Garmin Health Awards

The Garmin Health Awards recognise digital health solutions integrated with the Garmin Health Connected Ecosystem of wearables and data integration services. Garmin received 113 applications from 31 countries, assessed on customer benefit, scalability, uniqueness, innovation and performance.

Six finalists presented their solutions to industry experts and Summit attendees in Bangkok. HeraMED Managing Director and CEO Anoushka Gungadin pitched the HeraCARE solution and its integration of Garmin wearable data into personalised women's care.

HeraMED won the People's Choice Award, decided by Summit attendees

The People's Choice award was determined by Summit attendees following finalist presentations. The Summit brought together more than 200 executives and industry leaders to discuss wearable integration across healthcare, research, insurance and other sectors.

Building on the Garmin Health Collaboration

The award builds on HeraMED's three-year Strategic Collaboration Agreement with Garmin Health, announced in February 2025. Through the Garmin Health API, users can connect Garmin smartwatches to HeraCARE, adding heart rate, sleep, activity, stress and skin temperature data to personalised care plans and remote monitoring.

The award recognises HeraMED's contribution to women's healthcare and reflects the industry's growing focus on solutions designed specifically for women. It also gives HeraMED global visibility across Garmin Health's network of healthcare, research, insurance and wellness organisations, supporting engagement with health systems and strategic partners.
