Swift secures 36-month contract with Aegis Aged Care

- 36-month contract extensions secured across two Aegis Aged Care facilities in Western Australia
- Minimum Total Contract Value (TCV) of $141,048
- TCV could increase to $189,648 through optional Entertainment+ subscriptions

Swift is pleased to announce a three-year subscription agreement with Aegis Aged Care Group for two Western Australian facilities. Aegis Aged Care is Western Australia's largest privately owned residential aged care provider, operating 30 facilities and supporting more than 3,000 residents.

The agreements have a combined minimum Total Contract Value (TCV) of $141,048 (excluding GST) across the two facilities, with the new contract term commencing on 1 November 2026.

The agreements also include provisions for annual CPI adjustments and automatic 12-month renewal provisions.

This contract strengthens Swift's established aged care relationships and support continued recurring revenue growth. Swift's aged care solutions bring entertainment, communication and engagement together, helping residents stay informed and connected.

Swift CEO Brian Mangano commented, "We are pleased to be continuing our relationship with Aegis Aged Care for another three years. We really value the trust they've placed in Swift and look forward to working together to make everyday life better for residents."
