in each case at the registered office of the Company or any other time and place agreed by the parties.

3.2 Investor's obligations at Completion

By 11:00am (AEDT) on the day prior to Completion, the Investor must pay (or procure that its Nominee pays) the applicable Subscription Amount to the Company Bank Account in immediately available funds, against the Company performing its obligations under clause 3.3 in respect of that Completion.

3.3 Company's obligations at Completion

At each Completion, the Company will:

(a) issue the relevant Subscription Shares to the Investor or its Nominee (as applicable), free from all Encumbrances; and

(b) register the Investor or its Nominee (as applicable) as the holder of those Subscription Shares.

3.4 Nominee

(a) The parties acknowledge and agree that the Investor may, by written notice to the Company before the relevant Completion, nominate a Related Body Corporate of the Investor to subscribe for all or any of the Subscription Shares at that Completion (Nominee).

(b) If the Investor nominates a Nominee, the Investor must procure that the Nominee complies with all of the relevant obligations of the Investor under this agreement.

(c) The Investor's nomination of the Nominee will not relieve the Investor of its obligations under this agreement, including (without limitation) the obligation to:

(i) pay (or procure the payment of) each Subscription Amount under clause 3.2; and

(ii) comply with the standstill arrangements under clause 7.

(d) Subject to applicable law and the ASX Listing Rules, the Company acknowledges and agrees that, following their issue, the Investor or the Investor's Participating Entity may transfer all or any of the Subscription Shares to a Related Body Corporate of the Investor.

3.5 Simultaneous actions at Completion

In respect of each Completion:

(a) the obligations of the parties under this agreement are interdependent; and

(b) all actions required to be performed in connection with that Completion will be taken to have occurred simultaneously on the relevant Completion Date. For the avoidance of doubt, Tranche 1 Completion is not conditional upon Tranche 2 Completion occurring.

3.6 Conditions precedent

(a) The obligations of the Investor and Company to effect Tranche 1 Completion are conditional upon:

(i) the Commitments Condition being satisfied at or before Tranche 1 Completion, evidenced by written confirmation from the Company to the Investor with reasonable supporting particulars of the binding commitments received; and

(ii) the Company having sufficient capacity under ASX Listing Rules 7.1 and 7.1A to issue the Tranche 1 Placement Shares without shareholder approval and being legally able to issue the Tranche 1 Subscription Shares.

(b) The obligations of the Investor and the Company to effect Tranche 2 Completion are separately conditional upon:

(i) Tranche 1 Completion having occurred; and

(ii) Shareholder Approval having been obtained at the EGM for the issue of the Tranche 2 Subscription Shares to the Investor (or its Nominee).

(c) The Company must, as soon as practicable following the announcement of the Transaction, convene the EGM and use all reasonable endeavours to obtain Shareholder Approval.

3.7 Allocation and Parallel Placement

(a) The Company must undertake the Parallel Placement in two tranches, with each tranche to complete contemporaneously with the corresponding Tranche 1 Completion or Tranche 2 Completion.

(b) Subject to the Company's available placement capacity and applicable law:

(i) all subscribers (including the Investor) other than Directors will receive a pro-rata allocation of Shares in Tranche 1, based on their total subscription commitments;

(ii) those subscribers will receive an approximately pro-rata allocation of Shares in Tranche 2; and

(iii) Directors may participate only in Tranche 2, subject to Shareholder Approval.

(c) Before Tranche 1 Completion, the parties must agree an Allocation Schedule which provides for the Investor to hold the Intended Interest.

(d) The Company must promptly notify the Investor of any proposed increase in the Total Raising or change to the Allocation Schedule.

(e) If the Total Raising is increased, another subscriber defaults or Shareholder Approval is not obtained for any Tranche 2 Placement Shares, the parties must consult in good faith to adjust the allocations to preserve the Investor's Intended Interest, to the extent practicable and permitted by law.

3.8 Consequences of conditions not being satisfied

(a) If Shareholder Approval is not obtained for any Tranche 2 Subscription Shares, neither party is obliged to complete the subscription for those Shares, and clause 3.7(e) applies.

(b) If the Commitments Condition is not satisfied by 6 November 2026 (Long Stop Date), neither party is obliged to complete any outstanding subscription, and either party may terminate its outstanding subscription obligations by written notice, without prejudice to any accrued rights or continuing obligations.

3.9 Repayment if Completion does not occur

If a Completion does not occur on the applicable Intended Completion Date, the Company must promptly, and in any event within 2 Business Days, repay to the Investor or its Nominee (as applicable) the full amount paid under clause 3.2 in respect of that Completion, without deduction, withholding or set off.

4 Subscription Shares

4.1 Post-Completion obligations

As soon as practicable after each Completion, and in any event within 2 Business Days after the issue of the Subscription Shares at that Completion, the Company must in respect of those Subscription Shares:

(a) (quotation) apply for and use its best endeavours to obtain Official Quotation of the Subscription Shares by ASX;

(b) (holding statement) deliver to the Investor or it's Nominee (as applicable) a holding statement evidencing that holder's ownership of the Subscription Shares; and

(c) (cleansing notice) subject to clause 4.2, provide ASX with a notice in relation to the Subscription Shares in accordance with section 708A(5)(e) of the Corporations Act which complies with section 708A(6) of the Corporations Act (Cleansing Notice).

4.2 Inability to issue a Cleansing Notice

If the Company is unable to give a valid Cleansing Notice in respect of the Subscription Shares issued at a Completion in accordance with sections 708A(5) and 708A(6) of the Corporations Act, the Company must, as soon as practicable and in any event within 20 Business Days after that Completion, lodge with ASIC a prospectus satisfying section 708A(11) of the Corporations Act so as to permit an offer for sale of those Subscription Shares without disclosure to investors.

4.3 Ranking

The Subscription Shares will:

(a) be issued as fully paid;

(b) be issued free from Encumbrances; and

(c) rank equally in all respects with the other Shares already on issue as from their issue date.

4.4 Acknowledgements

(a) By agreeing to the issue of the Subscription Shares in accordance with this agreement, the Investor agrees to be bound by the Constitution.

(b) The Company and the Investor each acknowledge and agree that as at the date of issue of the Subscription Shares, the Subscription Shares are not being issued with the purpose of the Investor selling or transferring, or otherwise issuing or transferring interests in or options over, the Subscription Shares.

5 Use of funds

5.1 Use of funds

The Company acknowledges it intends to apply the proceeds of the Total Raising substantially in accordance with the following intended allocations, recognising that the amounts below apply respectively to an A$10 million and an A$20 million Total Raising and the final allocation for any amount in between remains to be confirmed. This is a statement of current intention only, and the Board may change the allocation at any time:

	A$10 million	A$20 million
Purchase of additional 39% stake in Zaranou Project	A$1.75m	A$1.75m
Exploration – Zaranou Central	A$5m	A$13.5m
Exploration – Zaranou Regional and Other Projects	A$0.25m	A$1.75m
Offer Costs plus Working Capital	A$3m	A$3m

6 Notification Right

6.1 Grant of Notification Right

Subject to clauses 6.2 and 6.3 and to the requirements of the ASX Listing Rules, during the Notification Period:

(a) the Company must use reasonable endeavours to give the Investor advance notice of, and a reasonable opportunity to participate in, any Prescribed Equity Offer on terms no less favourable than those offered to other participants, with the commercial objective of enabling the Investor (through the Investor's Participating Entity) to participate on a pro-rata basis to its existing holding in the Company (Notification Right);

(b) if the Company proposes to make a Prescribed Equity Offer, the Company must use reasonable endeavours to notify the Investor in writing, on a confidential basis and in advance, of the proposed Prescribed Equity Offer outlining the indicative material terms available to it at that time (including structure, quantum, use of proceeds and indicative subscription price or discount to trading prices or volume weighted trading prices) (Offer Notice);

(c) the Investor will have a reasonable period, having regard to the timetable of the Prescribed Equity Offer, after receiving the Offer Notice to provide a written indication of whether it wishes to participate (wholly or partly) in the Prescribed Equity Offer so notified (Commitment Notice), and the Company will use reasonable endeavours to facilitate that participation on the terms contemplated by clause 6.1(a); and

(d) the Investor's participation in a Prescribed Equity Offer (through the Investor's Participating Entity) is subject to all approvals required under the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and other applicable law and is not intended to confer an entitlement to acquire a proportion of the Prescribed Equity Offer greater than the Investor's pro rata entitlement to its Intended Interest (unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing).

6.2 Company's and Investor's obligations

(a) Where the Investor gives a Commitment Notice under clause 6.1(c), the Company will use reasonable endeavours to facilitate the Investor's Participating Entity's participation in the Prescribed Equity Offer (including seeking, and using all reasonable endeavours to obtain, all necessary approvals of the Company's shareholders), noting nothing in this clause requires the directors of the Company to act contrary to their directors duties under the Corporations Act.

(b) If the Investor indicates that it wishes to participate in a Prescribed Equity Offer, the Investor must co-operate (and procure that the Investor's Participating Entity co-operates) with the Company, and act reasonably, in relation to the processes by which the Company seeks to obtain any necessary shareholder approvals in relation to the issue of Equity Securities, (including having regard to the timing and cost of obtaining such approvals and seeking to minimise multiple shareholder meetings in short order).

(c) If the Investor's Participating Entity's participation in a Prescribed Equity Offer may only occur with an approval pursuant to the FATA (FIRB Approval), the Investor may specify in its Commitment Notice that its participation is conditional upon obtaining FIRB Approval. The Company will use reasonable endeavours to facilitate that participation, provided that FIRB Approval is obtained within 60 days after the date of the applicable Commitment Notice or such longer period as the parties agree in writing.

(d) Unless the Investor and Company agree otherwise, the following principles apply to the implementation of the Notification Right:

(i) the Investor is not obliged to subscribe for any Equity Securities unless it gives a Commitment Notice and the parties agree the terms on which it is to subscribe;

(ii) where the terms or nature of an issue (including a non-cash issue) cannot reasonably be replicated for the Investor, the Company must use reasonable endeavours to consider and offer, where lawful and practicable, an economically equivalent opportunity to participate; and

(iii) any such participation is subject to:

(A) the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and all necessary approvals; and

(B) the requirements and timetable of the relevant Prescribed Equity Offer.

(e) To the extent ASX advises the Company that the Notification Right is not compliant with the ASX Listing Rules in its proposed form, the Company must negotiate in good faith with the Investor and use reasonable endeavours to provide the Investor with a modified right, mechanism or arrangement that most closely replicates, without contravening the ASX Listing Rules or other applicable law, the commercial intent of the Notification Right, and the parties must amend this agreement to reflect that modified right, mechanism or arrangement.

6.3 Lapse of Notification Right

If the Investor does not:

(a) provide a Commitment Notice within the time period specified in the Offer Notice (or such longer period as agreed by the Company); or

(b) obtain any necessary approvals required under clause 6.2 within any time period specified in the Commitment Notice (or such longer period as agreed by the Company), in respect of any Prescribed Equity Offer, the Notification Right, including all of the Investor's rights under this clause 6, in respect of the applicable Prescribed Equity Offer will lapse. For the avoidance of doubt, the lapsing of rights pursuant to this clause 6.3 applies only in relation to the applicable Prescribed Equity Offer and do not affect a Notification Right for any subsequent Prescribed Equity Offer during the Notification Period.

6.4 Breach by the Company

Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of the Investor, a breach by the Company of this clause 6 does not affect the Investor's rights in relation to any subsequent Prescribed Equity Offer during the Notification Period, and nothing in this clause 6 requires either party to act contrary to the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules or any other applicable law.

6.5 Holds benefit on trust

The Investor holds the benefit of the Notification Right on trust for the Investor's Participating Entity. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Investor or its Nominee transfers all or any of the Subscription Shares to a Related Body Corporate of the Investor, that Related Body Corporate will have the benefit of the Notification Right under this clause 6 in respect of the Shares it holds, as if it were the Investor.

7 Standstill

7.1 Existing interest

The Investor represents and warrants that, as at the date of this agreement (and other than in respect of its rights pursuant to this agreement):

(b) neither the Investor, nor any of its Related Bodies Corporate and Associates have entered into any agreement or arrangement that confers rights or interests the economic effect of which is equivalent or substantially equivalent to holding, acquiring or disposing of Equity Securities in the Company or any of its Related Bodies Corporate or of any assets of the Company or any of its Related Bodies Corporate (including cash-settled derivative contracts, contracts for difference or other derivative contracts).

7.2 Standstill

Subject to clause 7.3, during the Standstill Period, unless the parties agree in writing otherwise, the Investor must not, and must procure that its Related Bodies Corporate and each of their Associates (alone or with others) must not:

(a) directly or indirectly acquire, subscribe for, purchase or offer to acquire, invite or solicit the sale of, any Shares, any Relevant Interest in Shares or any right or option to acquire Shares, or make or cause to be made a public announcement of an intention to do any of the foregoing;

(b) enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding that would confer rights on the Investor or a Related Body Corporate of the Investor, the economic effect of which is equivalent to acquiring or holding Shares or a Relevant Interest in Shares (including a cash-settled equity swap or similar derivative relating to Shares); or

(c) aid, abet, counsel, solicit, encourage or induce any other person to do any of the things referred to in clauses 7.2(a) or 7.2(b).

7.3 Exceptions

The prohibitions in clause 7.2 do not apply:

(a) on or after the date the Standstill Period ends;

(c) to an acquisition of Shares (including on-market) by the Investor or a Related Body Corporate of the Investor to maintain or restore their aggregate Relevant Interest in the Company to the Intended Interest, provided that:

(i) immediately following that acquisition, the aggregate Relevant Interest of the Investor and its Related Bodies Corporate does not exceed 9.9% of the Shares on issue; and

(ii) that acquisition complies with the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and other applicable law and does not involve the Investor or a Related Body Corporate making or announcing a Takeover Bid; or

(d) to an acquisition of Shares by the Investor or a Related Body Corporate of the Investor pursuant to a transfer from the Investor or another Related Body Corporate of the Investor; or

(e) if the prior written consent or agreement of the Company has been obtained.

8 Investor Warranties
