Excluded Unitholders will not be invited to participate in the Offer. An Excluded Unitholder is any Unitholder who (subject to the Custodian carve-out in the Glossary):

- resides outside Australia and New Zealand, or holds Units for the account or benefit of a person who resides outside Australia and New Zealand; or
- is in the United States or is a U.S. Person, or is acting for the account or benefit of a person in the United States or a U.S. Person.

1.3 How will custodians and nominees be treated under the Offer?

Certain Eligible Unitholders who are Custodians holding Units on behalf of certain Eligible Beneficiaries are also offered the opportunity to participate in the Offer. Please refer to the Offer Terms and Conditions for further information.

1.4 What is the Offer Price of the New Units?

The Offer Price of New Units under the Offer is A$2.00 per New Unit, being the same price paid by wholesale investors under the placement announced to the ASX on 8 September 2026.

The Offer Price may differ from the market price of Units on the day New Units are issued to you under the Offer. The market price or value of Units is subject to market volatility.

1.5 What do I do if I receive more than one Application Form?

If you receive more than one Application Form under the Offer due to you, for example, holding Units in more than one capacity or in different registered holdings (including as a joint holder), the maximum aggregate amount of New Units you may apply for is A$30,000 across all of your holdings.

1.6 Do I have to participate in the Offer?

No, participation in the Offer is optional (subject to the eligibility requirements described in this Offer Booklet). If you do not wish to participate in the Offer, there is no need to take any action.

1.7 Can I transfer my entitlement to participate in the Offer?

No. The Offer is non-renounceable, meaning you cannot transfer your right to purchase New Units under the Offer to anyone else.

1.8 What rights will the New Units issued under the Offer have?

New Units issued under the Offer will rank equally in all respects with existing Units, with effect from the Issue Date.

If you are an Eligible Unitholder, then you may apply for a Parcel of New Units under the Offer in a Parcel size of up to A$30,000, regardless of the number of Units you currently hold. These amounts may be subject to any scale back and rounding as described in FAQ 10.

The maximum amount you may apply to invest under the Offer in all capacities, and in aggregate, is A$30,000. This limit applies even if you receive more than one Application Form, or if you hold Units in more than one capacity (e.g. because you are both a sole and joint holder of Units). By applying to subscribe for New Units under the Offer, you certify you have not exceeded the A$30,000 limit.

1.10 Do I have a guaranteed allocation of New Units under the Offer?

No. The aggregate maximum number of New Units that will be issued under the Offer is 203,722,673 New Units (which is equal to 30% of the Units already on issue) to raise up to a maximum of A$407,445,346 (Offer Cap).

If Applications from Eligible Unitholders to participate in the Offer in aggregate exceed the Offer Cap (or any lower limit determined by the Responsible Entity), then the Responsible Entity may scale back applications in its absolute discretion acting reasonably and in accordance with its duties, having regard to the factors set out in this Offer Booklet. In the event of a scale back, the number of New Units allocated to you (calculated at the Offer Price) may be less than the Parcel you initially applied for. If this occurs, any excess Application money will be refunded to you, without interest.

The Responsible Entity expects to announce the final outcome of the Offer, including any scale back, on Friday, 27 November 2026.

1.11 How do I apply for and pay for New Units?

Holding statements for New Units are expected to be dispatched to Unitholders on Wednesday, 2 December 2026.

1.14 Will the New Units qualify for a distribution?

The Trust aims to pay monthly distributions. New Units issued to Eligible Unitholders will qualify for the December 2026 distribution (if payable) in respect of the Trust, expected to be paid in January 2027, assuming the Unitholder remains a holder of those New Units on the December distribution record date.

1.15 What is the market price of the Units?

The market price of the Units can be obtained from the ASX website by entering the ASX code 'GCI' in the prices search screen.

1.16 Are there risks with participating in the Offer?

The market price or value of Units is subject to market volatility and by submitting your Application, you are accepting the risk that the market price of the Units may be higher or lower than the Offer Price of the New Units you receive on the Issue Date.

(b) The Offer is dated and taken to be made on 11 November 2026.

(c) The Offer opens on Wednesday, 11 November 2026 (Offer Opening Date) and closes on Wednesday, 25 November 2026 (Offer Closing Date).

(d) Any reduction in allotments of New Units under the Offer is proposed to be announced on Friday, 27 November 2026.

(e) The Offer is made in accordance with the ASIC Corporations (Share and Interest Purchase Plans) Instrument 2019/547 (ASIC Instrument). If as joint holders you receive more than one Application Form under the Offer due to multiple identical holdings, you may still only apply to subscribe for a maximum of A$30,000 worth of New Units. The certifications on the Application Form and in section 5 of this Offer Booklet by one joint holder will be effective in respect of the other joint holder(s).

(e) If you are a custodian, trustee or nominee within the definition of 'custodian' in the ASIC Instrument (Custodian), you may contribute a maximum of A$30,000 worth of New Units under the Offer for each Eligible Beneficiary on whose behalf you or a Downstream Custodian holds Units.

(f) The Responsible Entity will not allocate New Units to a Custodian unless the Custodian completes and submits a certification in accordance with the ASIC Instrument (Custodian Certificate) and submits a valid Application on behalf of each Eligible Beneficiary who wishes to participate in the Offer.

(g) Custodians wishing to participate on behalf of an Eligible Beneficiary should contact the Registry to obtain a copy of the Custodian Certificate and further information on how to apply.

(h) The Offer is made on the same terms and conditions to each Eligible Unitholder (whether you are a Custodian or hold Units on your own account).

(i) The Offer to each Eligible Unitholder is non-renounceable (which means Eligible Unitholders cannot transfer their right to apply for New Units under the Offer to another person).

3 Application for New Units

(a) Participation in the Offer is optional (subject to the eligibility criteria set out in this Offer Booklet). If you are an Eligible Unitholder, you can choose whether or not to participate. If you are a Custodian, you can choose whether to extend the Offer to your Eligible Beneficiaries.

(b) Eligible Unitholders may apply to purchase New Units in a Parcel with a dollar amount of A$1,000, A$2,500, A$5,000, A$10,000, A$15,000, A$20,000, A$25,000 or A$30,000. Applications must not exceed a maximum aggregate amount of A$30,000 per Eligible Unitholder.

(c) If you are an Eligible Unitholder and wish to participate in the Offer, you must follow the instructions in this Offer Booklet and the Application Form and make a payment for the dollar amount equivalent to the Parcel of New Units you wish to apply for using BPAY® or direct electronic funds transfer (EFT) (as applicable) by the Offer Closing Date.

(d) You must specify the unique customer reference number shown on the Application Form in your BPAY® or EFT transfer of Application money, which is required to identify your holding. If a payment is made, you will be deemed to have completed an Application Form for the value of the New Units the subject of your Application and are taken to make the certifications and representations described in section 5 of this Offer Booklet and on the Application Form. You do not need to return your Application Form.

(e) The Responsible Entity will not accept payment by cash, cheque, money order or credit card. It is your responsibility to ensure the Registry receives your Application payment in cleared funds no later than 5.00pm (Sydney time) on the Offer Closing Date.

(f) The Responsible Entity may, at its discretion, vary, amend, accept or reject your Application if:

  (i) The Responsible Entity has reason to believe you are not an Eligible Unitholder or have not complied with the ASIC Instrument.

  (ii) Your Application is incomplete, contains errors or is otherwise determined by the Responsible Entity to be invalid or defective.

  (iii) You apply for, or in the opinion of the Responsible Entity you appear to have applied for more than A$30,000 worth of New Units in aggregate (including any Units you hold directly, jointly or through a Custodian or nominee arrangement).

  (iv) Your BPAY® or EFT (as applicable) payment is received after 5.00pm (Sydney time) on the Offer Closing Date.

  (v) The Responsible Entity receives an amount that is not equal to a Parcel amount, in which case the Responsible Entity may round down the dollar amount of New Units that you are applying for to the next lowest Parcel or, if the Responsible Entity receives less than A$1,000, reject your Application and refund your Application payment without interest, as soon as practicable after the Issue Date.

  (vi) The value of your Parcel cannot be divided by the Offer Price to give a whole number of New Units, in which case the number of New Units issued to you will be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

  (vii) You are a Custodian, and the Responsible Entity is not satisfied with your Custodian Certificate for any reason, or you have not provided a Custodian Certificate.

4 Offer Price of New Units

(a) The Offer Price of New Units under the Offer is A$2.00 per New Unit, being the same price paid by wholesale investors under the placement announced to the ASX on 8 September 2026.

(b) You agree to pay the Offer Price per New Unit for the number of New Units calculated under section 4(b) of these Offer Terms and Conditions or, if there is any scale back of New Units, the number of New Units calculated under section 10 of these Offer Terms and Conditions.

(c) The Responsible Entity will apply to the ASX for quotation of the New Units. It is anticipated that the trading of the New Units on the ASX will commence on 2 December 2026.

(i) you are over 18 years of age and have full legal capacity and power to perform all of your rights and obligations under the Application Form;

(k) if your Application results in a fractional number of New Units, the number of New Units you will be allotted (subject to the terms of the Offer, including any scale back), will be rounded down to the nearest whole number of Units;

(l) you acknowledge the risk associated with any refund that may be dispatched to your nominated bank account or address shown on the Register;

(m) no interest will be paid on any Application monies held pending the allotment of New Units or subsequently refunded to you for any reason;

(o) there is a risk the market price of the Units may change (i.e., rise or fall) between the date you submit your Application and the Issue Date, which may mean that the Offer Price you pay for the New Units may exceed or be less than the market price of Units on the Issue Date;

(p) you are in compliance with all relevant laws and regulations, the Corporations Act and the ASIC Instrument;

(q) this Offer Booklet is not a prospectus nor a product disclosure statement and it does not contain all of the information that you may require in order to assess an investment in the Trust and is given in the context of the past and ongoing continuous disclosure announcements to the ASX on behalf of the Trust;

(r) the information contained in this Offer Booklet, including the Offer Terms and Conditions and your Application Form is not a recommendation nor financial product advice and has been prepared without taking into account your investment objectives, financial circumstances or particular needs;

(s) to the extent permitted by any applicable law, you acknowledge the Responsible Entity is not liable for any exercise of its discretions referred to in this Offer Booklet;

(t) none of the Responsible Entity, the Manager nor their respective related bodies corporate and affiliates and their respective directors, officers, partners, employees, representatives, agents, consultants or advisers guarantees the performance of the Trust, nor do they guarantee the repayment of capital;

(u) the Offer does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any securities in the United States;

(w) you have not, and will not, distribute or release any materials related to the Offer to any U.S. Person, or to any person outside Australia and New Zealand;

(x) you are not in the United States, you are not acting for the account or benefit of a U.S. Person, and you are not otherwise a person to whom it would be illegal to make an offer of, or issue of New Units under the Offer, or under any applicable laws and regulations; and

(y) if in the future you decide to sell or otherwise transfer the New Units, you will only do so in standard brokered transactions on the ASX, where neither you, nor any person acting on your behalf knows, or has reason to know, that the sale has been prearranged with, or the purchaser is, a U.S. Person.

6 Related party transactions

The Responsible Entity, in consultation with, and with agreement from the Manager, engaged in respect of the Trust:

(a) an associated company, Unity Fund Services Pty Ltd (ABN 16 146 747 122), as Administrator for fund accounting services.

The Responsible Entity may from time to time enter into other transactions with other related entities. All transactions will be effected at market rates or at no charge, and in accordance with the Corporations Act.

Members of One Investment Group (OIG), comprising One Investment Group Pty Ltd and its subsidiaries and associates, hold and administer a large number of bank accounts in relation to their clients/funds. Where possible, OIG seeks to negotiate terms for the bank accounts relating to its clients/funds that may not be ordinarily available to those clients/funds on a standalone basis, including in particular the benefit of a higher interest rate than is ordinarily offered to other parties by a bank. Where such preferential terms are negotiated, OIG may also receive a fee or benefit (OIG Benefit) from the relevant bank. This OIG Benefit is not paid out of a bank account relating to a client/fund or from interest earned on such bank account and will not appear on any bank statement for such an account. Neither is it an asset of a client/fund.

7 Rights attached to New Units

(a) New Units will rank equally with existing Units in all respects from the Issue Date.

(b) New Units issued under the Offer on 1 December 2026 will be entitled to receive the distribution for the month ending 31 December 2026 (if paid).

8 Participation Costs

Eligible Unitholders may subscribe for New Units without incurring brokerage fees, commissions or other transaction costs in respect of the application for, and allotment of, New Units.

9 Responsible Entity discretion

Despite any other provision of these Offer Terms and Conditions, the Responsible Entity may, at its sole and absolute discretion, accept, reject, correct or amend your Application under the Offer, including without limitation, in the following circumstances:

(a) the Responsible Entity considers that the Application (whether alone or in conjunction with other Applications) does not comply, or it is not reasonably satisfied that the Application (whether alone or in conjunction with other Applications) complies, with the requirements of the ASIC Instrument or any requirements in the ASX Listing Rules or the Corporations Act;

(b) the Application Form is incomplete, incorrectly completed or accompanied by application money which is not paid in full on first presentation;

(c) an Application is received after 5.00pm (Sydney time) on the Offer Closing Date;

(d) an Application is made by a Custodian and does not include the required Custodian Certificate;

(e) the BPAY® payment received in respect of an Application is for less than the full, requisite amount;

(f) the EFT payment received in respect of an Application is for less than the full, requisite amount; or

(g) the Responsible Entity is not reasonably satisfied the applicant is an Eligible Unitholder.

10 Scale back

(a) The aggregate maximum number of New Units that will be issued under the Offer is 203,722,673 New Units, being an amount equal to 30% of the Units already on issue (being the applicable maximum specified in Exception 5 in ASX Listing Rule 7.2 and Exception 4 in ASX Listing Rule 10.12), to raise up to the Offer Cap.

(b) Subject to complying with applicable laws and the ASIC Instrument, the Responsible Entity reserves the right to close the Offer early and has absolute discretion to scale back Applications. In the event of a scale back, the number of New Units allocated to you may be less than the Parcel you initially applied for.

(c) Any scale back will be at the Responsible Entity's discretion, however it is the Responsible Entity's current intention that any scale back will be applied having regard to some or all of the following factors:

(i) the size of the unitholding of Eligible Unitholders (as at the Record Date) who apply for New Units;

(ii) whether the Unitholder has sold or purchased Units since the Record Date;

(iii) whether the Unitholder has multiple holdings;

(iv) the date on which the Application was made; and

(v) the total Applications received.

(d) If a scale back is applied and it produces a fractional number of New Units, the number of New Units you will be allocated will be rounded down to the nearest whole number of Units.

(e) If there is a scale back, the difference in value between the Application payment and the number of New Units allocated to you multiplied by the Offer Price, will be refunded to you, without interest, by direct deposit (to your nominated account as recorded on the Register) or by cheque as soon as practicable following the Issue Date.

11 Privacy

(a) Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act requires information about Unitholders (including name, address and details of the Units held) to be included in the Trust's public register. If a Unitholder ceases to be a Unitholder, Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act requires this information to be retained in the Trust's public register. These statutory obligations are not altered by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) as amended. Information is collected to administer Unitholders' security holdings.

(b) The Registry and the Responsible Entity may use personal information to process your Application and administer your unitholding.

(c) The Responsible Entity and the Manager may also use your personal information to tell you about other products and services offered by them or other related bodies corporate.

(d) Under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), you can access personal information about you that is held by, or on behalf of, the Responsible Entity or the Manager except in limited circumstances. (e) Under various laws and regulatory requirements, the Responsible Entity or Manager may have to pass on certain information to other organisations, such as the ATO or AUSTRAC.

(f) By submitting an Application, you give the Responsible Entity and the Manager permission to pass on information they hold about you to other companies which are involved in or help administer the Trust, or where it is required for the purposes of compliance with FATCA and the CRS.

Eligible Unitholders should consult their own taxation adviser about the tax status of their investment in the New Units.

(b) FATCA is United States legislation that enables the United States Internal Revenue Service to identify and collect tax from United States residents that invest in assets through non-United States entities. The CRS is a similar global regime aimed at collecting and reporting on an investor's tax status. If you are a foreign resident for tax purposes, then you should note the Trust will comply with its FATCA and CRS obligations by collecting, retaining and reporting about certain investors to the ATO.

14 ASIC Instrument

(a) The Offer is made to Eligible Unitholders in accordance with the requirements of the ASIC Instrument, which grants relief from the requirement to prepare a product disclosure statement for the offer of up to A$30,000 of New Units per Eligible Unitholder in any 12 month period, subject to certain conditions.

(b) This Offer Booklet is not a product disclosure statement under the Corporations Act and has not been lodged with ASIC. It is recommended that you read the entire Offer Booklet and seek independent investment advice from your financial adviser or other professional adviser before deciding whether to apply for New Units.

Other limits may also apply.
