RECORD RUN OF FIVE CASH-POSITIVE QUARTERS: ASX GRANTS RELIEF FROM QUARTERLY REPORTING

FlexiRoam Limited (ASX:FRX) ("FlexiRoam" or "the Company") advises that ASX has exercised its discretion to lift the requirement for the Company to lodge quarterly cash flow and activities reports under ASX Listing Rules 4.7B and 4.7C due to FlexiRoam having achieved five consecutive positive operating cash flow quarters.

Over the five quarters to 30 September 2026[1], the Company reported net operating cash inflows of $2.94 million, and its cash balance rose from $1.61 million to $3.63 million with no capital raised.

Accordingly, the "Q1 FY27 Update and Appendix 4C" for the September 2026 quarter, released on 30 October 2026, is the Company's final quarterly cash flow and activities report. The Company will now report in line with standard ASX reporting requirements, including Half Year and Full Year financial statements. The Company's next periodic report will be the release of its Half Year Report (Appendix 4D) due by 26 February 2027.

The Company will continue to keep the market informed of any material developments in accordance with its continuous disclosure obligations under ASX Listing Rule 3.1.

FlexiRoam CEO Jefrey Ong said: "ASX's decision recognises the progress FlexiRoam has made. Shareholders will continue to receive our half-year and full-year results, and any material news as it happens."

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Directors.
