ChemX Materials Limited

ASX Announcement

19 November 2026

WITHDRAWAL OF RE-COMPLIANCE APPLICATION AND

REMOVAL FROM THE OFFICIAL LIST

ChemX Materials Limited (ASX: CMX) (ChemX or the Company) advises that its board has resolved not to proceed with the proposed acquisition or with its re-compliance listing on ASX, and has withdrawn its application for re-admission to quotation.

The Company's securities have been suspended from quotation since 19 December 2024. Under ASX's policy, an entity whose securities have been suspended for two continuous years is removed from the official list. The Company expects to be removed on or about 21 December 2026 and does not intend to seek an extension.

What this means for shareholders

- Shareholders keep their shares. After removal the Company continues as an unlisted public company, and its shares will no longer be quoted on ASX.
- Shares in an unlisted company can be transferred off-market. Shareholders should contact the share registry, Computershare, for the transfer process.
- The Company will continue to meet its obligations under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), including holding annual general meetings and providing financial reports to members as applicable to an unlisted public company.

The board will keep shareholders informed of any further developments.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of ChemX Materials Limited.
